2013 Season Outlook

The Temple Owls are anxious to take the field for the 2013 season. After posting back-to-back BIG EAST wins for a 2-0 start in league play for the first time in school history, Temple opens the season at perennial powerhouse Notre Dame on August 31 before a national television audience on NBC.

Change seems to be the only constant for Temple football. The Owls, who finished the 2012 season at 4-7 overall and 2-5 in their return to BIG EAST Conference play, welcome a new head coach this season, their third in four years.

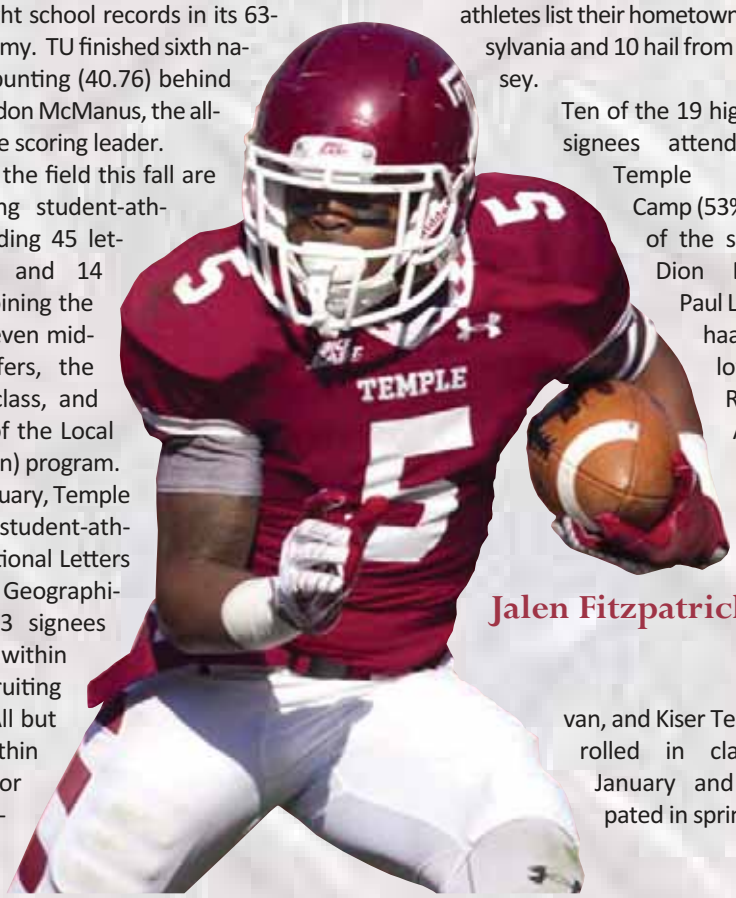
Head coach Matt Rhule is no stranger to Temple. The former Owls' assistant coach for six seasons returned to take the reins after eight months in the NFL coaching ranks. He is disciplined, determined, and vested. He is truly Temple Made. His staff is young and energetic.

While Temple football will be adjusting to a new coaching staff, the Owls have also shifted in conference affiliation. Temple is now a part of the newly created American Athletic Conference for all sports, a first in school history.

But the Temple Owls pride themselves on overcoming adversity. In 2012, Temple rewrote eight school records in its 63-32 win at Army. TU finished sixth nationally in punting (40.76) behind senior Brandon McManus, the all-time Temple scoring leader.

Taking the field this fall are 68 returning student-athletes, including 45 letterwinners and 14 starters. Joining the Owls are seven mid-year transfers, the freshman class, and members of the Local 215 (walk-on) program.

In February, Temple signed 23 student-athletes to National Letters of Intent. Geographically, all 23 signees came from within TU's recruiting footprint. All but four live within 200 miles (or less) of campus. Ten student-athletes list their hometown in Pennsylvania and 10 hail from New Jersey.



Jalen Fitzpatrick

Ten of the 19 high school signees attended the Temple Football Camp (53%). Seven of the signees—Dion Dawkins, Paul Layton, Jihaad Pretlow, John Rizzo, Averee Robinson, Adrian Sullivan, and Kiser Terry— enrolled in classes in January and participated in spring drills.

OFFENSE

The Temple offense returns eight players to starting positions among the 27 lettermen. Under the direction of first-year offensive coordinator Marcus Satterfield, TU will utilize a pro spread system.

Expected to direct the offense is junior Connor Reilly, who moved up the depth chart in the spring. Reilly, Temple's only male two-sport athlete (he also plays baseball), saw action in all 11 games last fall as the holder on special teams. His impressive performance in the spring and his adjustment to the new offense make him the one to beat for the starting nod.

Two-year starter Chris Coyer moved to halfback during spring drills (see below). The Owls' other returning starter is Clinton "Juice" Granger. In two starts last fall, Granger was 31-of-55 for 370 yards and two touchdowns. He rushed for 206 yards and a touchdown on 42 carries.

Additionally, Satterfield will guide sophomore Chad McCloskey, redshirt freshman Thomas Rumer, and freshman P.J. Walker. McCloskey and Rumer have not seen game action yet.

In his first season, coach Allen Mogridge will develop a youthful offensive line. Returning four starters, seniors Sean Boyle, Evan Regas, Scott Roorda, and Jeff Whittingham will lead the pack.

Returning for a sixth season (medical redshirt), Boyle started the first seven games at center before suffering an injury.

Cody Booth

Sophomore Kyle Friend finished out the season, starting the last four games with 11 appearances overall. Sophomore Jacob Quinn is expected to provide depth.

At left tackle, senior Cody Booth took over duties during spring drills after three seasons at tight end. Booth started all 11 games last fall, finishing second in receiving overall (and top tight end) with 137 yards and four touchdowns on 17 receptions. Junior Adam Metz is expected to provide support.

Senior Scott Roorda will be the veteran up front, leading the Owls at left guard. Seeing action in 11 contests a year ago, he started the last four games. Redshirt freshman Brendan McGowan will battle for the position.

At right guard, true freshman Dion Dawkins and sophomore Will Rathbone will compete for a starting role.

Expected to take over at right tackle is sophomore Zach Hooks, filling the vacancy left by graduating All-BIG EAST honoree Martin Wallace. He started all 11 games as a redshirt freshman last fall. Sophomore Raymond Korang will vie for playing time.

Other lineman expected to compete are senior Jeff Whittingham, a starter in all 11 games in 2012; senior Evan Regas, who played in all 11 games last season, mostly on special teams; sophomore Eric Lofton, who saw action in every game last fall, mostly on special teams; and junior Elijah Grant.

Returning to the sidelines after two seasons in the front office is tight ends coach Ed Foley. Seniors Alex Jackson and Chris Parthemore are expected to compete for the starting nod. Jackson saw action in each game with four starts. He had nine receptions for 99 yards. Parthemore saw limited action in three contests.

Adding depth are junior Wanemi Omuso and sophomore Romond Deloatch.

Senior Chris Coyer, the Offensive MVP of the 2011 New Mexico Bowl, moved from quarterback into a hybrid halfback/tight end slot. In nine starts, Coyer went 84-of-164 for 946 yards and eight touchdowns while rushing for 444 yards and two touchdowns last fall.

Seventh-year running backs coach Tyree Foreman has the biggest shoes to fill, replacing All-American Montel Harris and BIG EAST Specialist of the Year Matt Brown.

The Owls will rely on the speed of junior Kenny Harper and sophomore Jamie Gilmore. Last fall, Harper had 65 rushing yards and two touchdowns on 13 carries. He was third in receiving with 13 receptions for 129 yards and a touchdown. In seven games, Gilmore had 94 yards on 20 carries as a true freshman.

Also competing for time will be sophomore Hassan Dixon and redshirt freshman Avery Williams. True freshman John Rizzo is expected to see action at fullback.

First-year wide receivers coach Terry Smith has a plethora of talent in his arsenal. Seniors Deon Miller and Ryan Alderman, and junior Jalen Fitzpatrick are expected to assume starting roles.

After 11 games, Fitzpatrick was the Owls' top receiver with 30 catches for 363 yards and two touchdowns last fall. Miller had seven receptions for 101 yards, while Alderman had five catches for 51 yards.

Wyatt Benson

DEFENSE

The Temple defense needs to reload, losing four starters, including All-BIG EAST honoree John Youboty. Under the guidance of first-year defensive coordinator Phil Snow, the Owls return 18 letterwinners, including six starters.

First-year line coach Brandon Noble has to fill both end positions, vacated by graduating team captain Marcus Green and Youboty. Senior Sean Daniels, who played in 11 games with one start last season, returns. Junior Jaimen Newman, who played six games at right guard last fall, switches to defense for the first time since high school. Competing for starting nods will be sophomores Brandon Chudnoff and Avery Ellis who both saw action last fall. Providing depth are sophomore Shabaz Ahmed, redshirt freshman Bryan Osei, freshman Kiser Terry, and senior Dan Van Norton.

At nose tackle, senior Levi Brown is expected to continue in his starting role. The two-year starter saw action in all 11 games, racking up 27 tackles, 3.5 TFL, and two fumble recoveries.

Sophomore Matt Ioannidis is expected to compete for playing time.

At tackle, senior Kamal Johnson, senior Shahid Paulhill, sophomore Hershey Walton, and true freshman Averee Robinson will battle for the starting nod.

Linebacking coach Mike Siravo returns to Temple after six years. His unit returns all three starters.

Abdul Smith

Freshman All-American and BIG EAST Rookie of the Year Tyler Matakevich returns for his second season in the Cherry and White. The ECAC Defensive Rookie of the Year played in all 11 games, starting eight games last fall. One of just four true freshmen to earn a starting role for the Owls, Matakevich became the first freshman in school history to record 100 tackles. He led the Temple defense in his inaugural campaign with 101 tackles, including 67 solo stops, three TFL, three break-ups, two fumble recoveries, and a forced fumble. Redshirt freshman Haason Reddick and junior Marc Tyson will provide depth.

Paul Layton

Sophomore Nate D. Smith controls the middle. In 11 games last fall, he finished second in tackling with 75 tackles, including 51 solo stops, a team-best 6.5 TFL, 3.5 sacks, three forced fumbles, two break-ups, a fumble recovery, and a hurry. Senior Wyatt Benson, who played fullback last year, will challenge for playing time.

Two-year starter and senior Blaze Caponegro rounds out the returning starters at linebacker. He had 30 tackles and two sacks last fall. Sophomore Rob Dvoracek and redshirt freshman Michael Kalaman will provide depth.

The cornerbacks, under the guidance of Francis Brown, are stacked with experience. Senior Zamel Johnson and junior Anthony Robey are expected to resume their starting roles. In nine starts last fall, Johnson racked up 23 tackles and four break-ups. Robey, who started all 11 contests, had 41 tackles and a team-best six break-ups. Adding depth will be sophomore Tavon Young who saw action in 10 games as a true freshman.

Looking for playing time will be sophomore Ikeem Boyd, sophomore Will Hayes, and sophomore Brandon Shippen.

Brown will have his hands full filling the roles vacated by FS Vaughn Carraway and SS Justin Gildea. Leading the pack will be senior Abdul Smith and junior Chris Hutton. Smith played in eight games with two starts. Hutton played in all 11 games last year with two starts. He finished with 19 tackles and an interception.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Matt Rhule will look to replace four-year placekicker and punter Brandon McManus.

New to the Owls this spring is transfer Paul Layton, who earned his degree from Albany and will complete his eligibility at Temple this fall. The two-time first-team All-Northeast Conference honoree averaged 41.0 yards per punt in his career.

Also competing at placekicker are sophomore Tyler Mayes, redshirt freshman Colby Perry, and true freshman Jim Cooper, Jr., who earned All-America honors in high school.

2013 SCHEDULE

Temple opens the 2013 season at Notre Dame on August 31 at 3:30 p.m. on NBC.

In their home opener, the Owls host conference newcomer Houston in American Athletic Conference play on Sept. 7 at Lincoln Financial Field. TU hosts Fordham (Sept. 14) and will enjoy a bye week before visiting Idaho (Sept. 28).

Defending conference champion Louisville comes to Philadelphia on Oct. 5. The Owls will have a shortened-game week of preparation before heading to Cincinnati on Friday, Oct. 11 for a nationally televised game on ESPN/ESPN2.

Temple returns home to Lincoln Financial Field on Oct. 19 to host Army in its annual Homecoming game.

The Owls hit the road for back-to-back games, heading to Southern Methodist on Oct. 26 and regional rival Rutgers on Nov. 2.

Following a second bye week, Temple closes out the slate with home games against UCF (Nov. 16) and Connecticut (Nov. 23) and its season finale at Memphis (Nov. 30).

"It's a pleasure to welcome Matt Rhule to the American Athletic Conference. Matt has already contributed to some of Temple's most successful teams as an assistant, and he has impressive credentials at the college and professional levels that make him a perfect fit to build on that success as head coach."
– Commissioner Mike Aresco, American Athletic Conference

Matt Rhule

Head Coach
Penn State '97

1st Season (7th overall) at Temple

Matt Rhule, who has 15 seasons of coaching experience on the collegiate and professional levels, was named Temple University's 26th head football coach on December 17, 2012. He previously served as the assistant offensive line coach with the New York Giants.

The State College, Pa., native, a former player at Penn State, has 14 years of collegiate coaching experience, including six seasons at Temple, and six bowl games-- two with the Owls-- on his resume.

Rhule joined the Giants in the spring of 2012. He worked closely with Pat Flaherty, who has been the offensive line coach since 2004. The Giants began the 2012 season as defending Super Bowl champions. They finished the 2012 campaign at 9-7, second in the NFC East, and averaged 355 yards of offense per game. Four New York players, including guard Chris Snee, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

During his previous tenure at Temple, Rhule's role changed several times. In spring 2012, he was promoted to co-offensive coordinator after serving as the assistant offensive coordinator and tight ends coach as well as the recruiting coordinator under Steve Addazio in 2011. Temple's 2012 recruiting class was ranked No. 1 in the Mid-American Conference and helped lay the foundation for the program's transition to the BIG EAST Conference.

Under Al Golden, Rhule was promoted to offensive coordinator in the spring of 2008. He also coached the TU quarterbacks. He coached the defensive line in 2006 and served as the quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator during the 2006 and 2007 seasons. For three consecutive years, Temple's recruiting class was ranked No. 1 in the MAC [2006, 2007, 2008].

In 2011, the Owls went 9-4 and played in the fourth bowl game in school history, the Gildan New Mexico Bowl, where they crushed Wyoming, 37-15 – Temple's first postseason victory since the 1979 Garden State Bowl. Rhule mentored two-time first-team All-MAC selection TE Evan Rodriguez. For the second time in Rhule's tenure, the Owls set the Temple single-season rushing yardage record and rushing touchdowns records behind the explosive efforts of All-MAC junior running backs Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown.

In 2010, Rhule guided the offense to the largest margin of victory in a MAC game. Helping the team to an 8-4 regular-season record, the Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79, including their first win over a BCS team. The Owls recorded the largest margin of victory (42 points) in a MAC game against Buffalo. A school record six offensive players earned All-MAC honors, including repeat first-team honorees OL Colin Madison, OL Darius Morris, and RB Bernard Pierce as well as first-time honoree TE Evan Rodriguez.

In 2009, Rhule's offense helped TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and first-place tie in the MAC East. Under Rhule's guidance, the Owls set the Temple single-season rushing yardage record. A school record five offensive players were named All-MAC, including three on the first team. All-American Bernard Pierce rushed his way into the Temple record book, re-writing all records for a rookie en route to 2009 MAC Freshman of the Year honors.

In 2008, Rhule took the reins as offensive coordinator, helping the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls out-scored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. Rhule coached All-MAC honorees C Alex Derenthal and school record holder WR Bruce Francis, while QB Adam DiMichele set the school record for passing touchdowns with six in the 55-52 win over Eastern Michigan. WR Bruce Francis set the school records for career receiving TDs (23) and consecutive games with a reception (38).

Rhule arrived in Owl Country after spending four seasons as an assistant coach at Western Carolina, including three as assistant head coach.

From 2002 to 2005, Rhule was an assistant at Western Carolina under head coach Kent Briggs, serving as assistant head coach during his last three seasons. In 2005, he was offensive line coach and run game coordinator after directing the linebackers his first three years. Rhule was special teams coordinator during his tenure in Cullowhee (N.C.). In 2005, the Catamounts led Division I-AA in kickoff returns, averaging 27.44 yards per return. Sophomore Mike Malone earned first team All-Southern Conference honors with a 31.29 yards per kickoff return average, ranking second nationally. Two offensive linemen and the team's punter captured second team all-league accolades.

In 2004, WCU ranked 12th nationally in total defense and 15th in pass defense, largely due to the production of Rhule's linebacker corps. The team's top five tacklers were linebackers in its eight man front scheme. In 2003, the Catamounts led the SoCon in rush defense for the first time in school history.

Rhule arrived at Western Carolina after serving as assistant defensive line coach at UCLA in 2001. He assisted in coaching five Bruins that earned All PAC-10 honors as the team posted a 7-4 record under head coach Bob Toledo.

From 1999 to 2000, Rhule served as an assistant coach at Mid-American Conference member Buffalo, directing the Bulls defensive line in 2000 and working as assistant defensive line coach in 1999. In 2000, the team's sack total increased from 12 to 27 utilizing a 3-4 alignment. Buffalo also earned its first two Division I-A victories that season.

Rhule began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Penn State in the spring of 1998 before working at Albright College in Reading, Pa. for the 1998 season. At Albright, he coached the linebackers in a 4-3 scheme and recruited western and central Pennsylvania.

Rhule played four seasons at linebacker with the Nittany Lions under Joe Paterno. A three-time Penn State Scholar-Athlete, he earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in 1997.

Born January 31, 1975, Rhule received his undergraduate degree in political science before earning his master's degree in educational psychology from Buffalo in 2003.

He is married to the former Julie Nibert. The couple has an eight-year old son, Bryant, and an infant daughter, Vivienne.

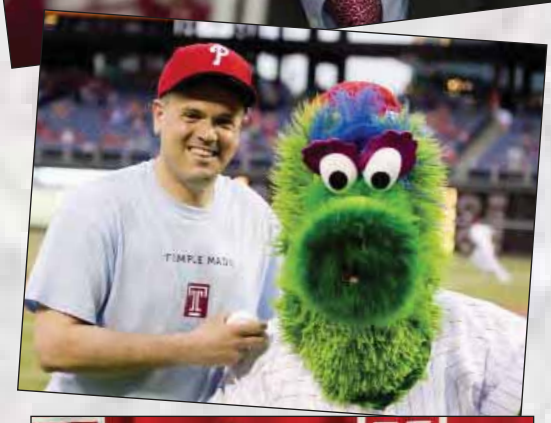
What They're Saying About Matt Rhule . . .

#ItBegins



"Matt is a good, young coach. He has very good command, and is thorough and detailed in his assignments and with personnel. He has an outstanding background in the game, and the players like and respect him. He will be a great representative for Temple University and leader of that football program."
– Head Coach Tom Coughlin, New York Giants

"From the minute that he stepped foot here and became our assistant, you could tell he was a guy that was passionate about football. He loves the games; he loves being around it. He's a guy who brings that energy each and every day for us in the offensive line room. He not only looks at us up front, but he's able to read things with linebackers and coverage's that actually make an influence on what happens with us up front. Not a lot of guys can do that. Number one, he brings a lot of energy; number two, there's not a single thing that's left undone. He's detail-oriented and every single person in the room knows exactly what they have to do regardless of what situation they're in. For him to be a head coach, he's a young energetic guy who's passionate about the game. He loves the game, and most importantly, aside from all of his knowledge and what he brings to the game, he's a great guy. He's a great man, he's a father and he's a character guy who's going to be able to really help young men become men."
– OT David Diehl, New York Giants

"What a great day for Matt and Julie Rhule and the Temple Owls' Family! Coach Rhule was on the front line of the transformation that lead to three straight 8+ winning seasons, two bowl games, the longest winning streak in school history and the 2011 New Mexico Bowl championship. During that span, Matt oversaw an offense that lead the MAC in several statistical categories and produced the likes of NFL stars Evan Rodriguez, Rod Streeter, and Bernard Pierce. In addition, his professionalism and leadership were an essential part of the Owls' transformation to the BIG EAST Conference. Finally, Matt returns to North Broad Street with the added experience of having spent one season under the guidance of World Champion Head Coach Tom Coughlin. A Pennsylvania native, Matt will bring stability and continuity to the Temple Owls and will provide leadership and vision in the Delaware Valley for years to come."
– Head Coach Al Golden, Miami Hurricanes (former Temple head coach, 2006-10)

"It sounds like we've selected a coach who has knowledge of Temple, who is a good recruiter, and who has experience on both the collegiate and professional levels. He should spur the program on to greater heights."
– Wayne Hardin, former Temple head coach (1970-82)

"Matt Rhule knows the entire landscape at Temple. The players, present and past, trust him. I'm extremely happy for him and the Owls' family."
– Kevin Negandhi (Temple '97), ESPN SportsCenter

"Coach Rhule is very passionate and genuinely cares about the guys he coaches. I still have a good relationship with him, and he played a huge role in me being in the NFL today."
– DT Terrance Knighton (2005-08), Denver Broncos

"Passion. Dedication. Toughness. These are the qualities that turned this program around a few years ago. Matt was a pillar of these qualities during our years together at Temple, and he was a huge part of the turnaround. I'm excited he's back. I'm excited for our program. Go Owls!"
– TE Steve Maneri (2006-09), Chicago Bears

"I am very excited to learn that Temple has named Matt Rhule as the new head coach. I look forward to seeing this new era in Temple football under his watch. Temple players will all enjoy playing for him as I have. I'm glad to see him back, and I have a lot of respect for Coach Rhule."
– RB Bernard Pierce (2009-11), Baltimore Ravens, Super Bowl champions

"Matt Rhule is a great guy. He will be a good coach, someone who will make a big difference on a Temple program on the rise."
– DE Adrian Robinson (2008-11), Pittsburgh Steelers

"Coach Rhule is a great coach who will connect with the players and bring the best out of players and coaches. This is a great move to take the program to the next level."
– WR Rod Streater (2010-11), Oakland Raiders

"Coach Rhule is a great fit for Temple as a head coach. He knows the program and the area, as proven through his previous track record on the staff. I am truly happy to see him in that position and know his effort will never be questioned."
– OL Wayne Tribue (2008-11), San Francisco 49ers

"Ed Foley has served the Temple football program and its student-athletes loyally for five years, and I am excited that he will return to the field as an assistant football coach. As a former head coach, offensive coordinator, and the man responsible for the development of future NFL players Steve Maneri and Evan Rodriguez, Ed brings invaluable experience and resources to our offensive staff and to me as the Assistant Head Coach.

Ed has played an integral role in the program's conference moves as well as the improvements to Edberg-Olson Hall.

A south jersey native, Ed brings stability and integrity to the Temple football family."

Ed Foley

Assistant Head Coach • Tight Ends
Bucknell '89

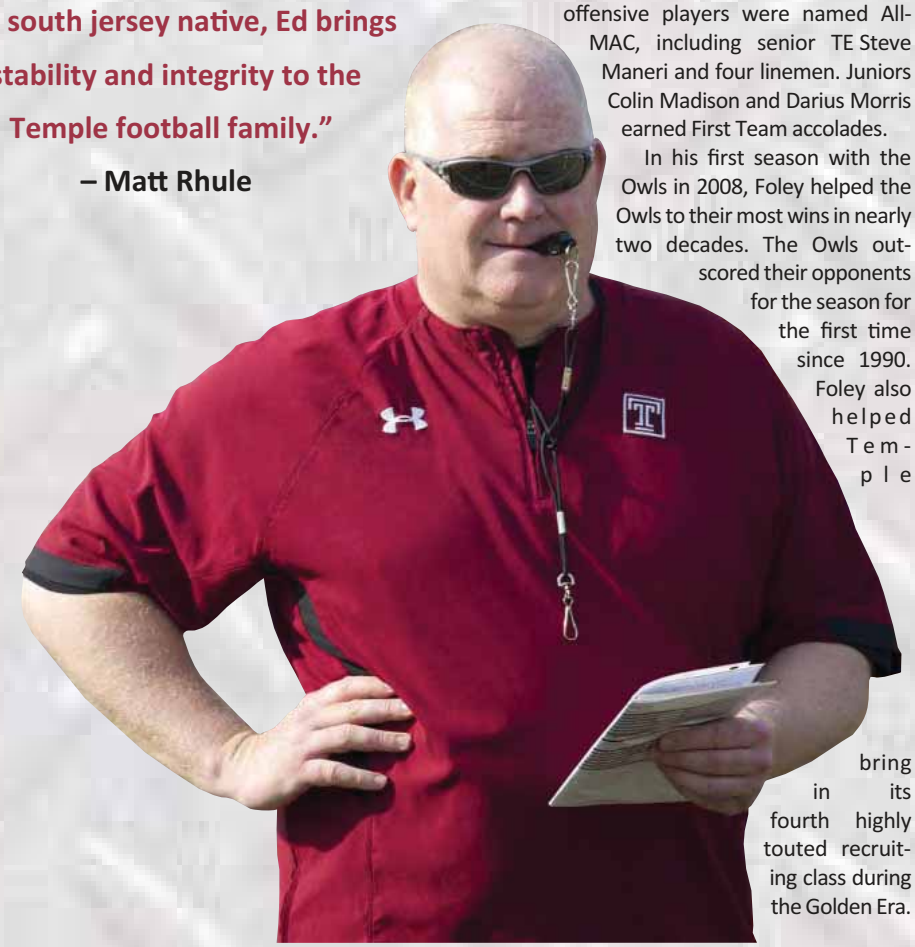
6th Season at Temple

Ed Foley enters his sixth season with Temple University and first as the Assistant Head Coach and tight ends coach after two seasons as the Director of Football Operations. Previously he served as the Owls' recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach/assistant offensive line coach for three seasons.

In 2010, his 22nd season as a coach, Foley's tight ends and offensive line helped the team to an 8-4 regular-season record. The Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79. A school record six offensive players earned All-MAC accolades, including first-team honorees TE Evan Rodriguez, OL Colin Madison, and OL Darius Morris. Madison and Morris became the first repeat first-team All-MAC recipients in school history.

In 2009, the tight ends and offensive line helped TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and first-place tie in the MAC East. A school record five offensive players were named All-MAC, including senior TE Steve Maneri and four linemen. Juniors Colin Madison and Darius Morris earned First Team accolades.

In his first season with the Owls in 2008, Foley helped the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls outscored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. Foley also helped Temple bring in its fourth highly touted recruiting class during the Golden Era.



A native of Cherry Hill, N.J., Foley returned to the City of Brotherly Love after spending three seasons at Hofstra as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator, and offensive line coach. The Pride offense blossomed under Foley in his first year as coordinator, increasing its yardage total from 269 to 388 yards per contest from the previous year. The Pride's scoring output also increased from 16.8 to 26.9 points per game. Foley also brought balance to the Pride attack as Hofstra's rushing total was its highest since 2000 (145 yards/game) and its passing attack netted 243 yards per contest. Charles Sullivan left as the all-time leader in receptions and yards after catching 86 balls for 991 yards under Foley's tutelage.

Prior to joining the Pride, Foley served seven years at Fordham University, including two seasons as head coach (2004, 2005). After a 5-6 record in 2004, a season in which the Rams dropped four games by a touchdown or less, Fordham slipped to a 2-9 mark in 2005. As Fordham's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 1999 through 2003, Foley helped rejuvenate a program that rose to the top of the Patriot League in 2002, when it won its first-ever league title with a 10-3 record. In 2003, the Rams compiled a 9-3 overall record and had 12 players named to the All-Patriot League Team, including six members of the offense, four of whom were named to the first team.

Under Foley's guidance, the Fordham offense set numerous team and individual records. The Rams set a team record for most rushing yards in a season in 2003, gaining 1,657 yards, while also setting a school record for most pass completions in a season with 255. In 2002, Fordham led the Patriot League in passing offense and scoring offense, while finishing second in total offense and setting a team record for most points in a season. In addition to winning the Patriot League title that season, the Rams advanced to the NCAA I-AA Playoffs, where they defeated Northeastern University in the first round.

In 2001, Foley helped the Fordham offense develop its first 1,000-yard rusher on the NCAA Division I-AA level, as well as the first-ever 1,000-yard receiver in Fordham's history. The Rams had the second-ranked passing offense in the Patriot League in 2001 as well as the second-best scoring offense. In 2000, Foley's offense established a running game that generated 1,635 yards (an average of 148.6 per game), the most for a Fordham team on the I-AA level until the 2003 team gained 1,657.

Foley arrived at Fordham after spending the 1998 season as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Jacksonville University, which sponsored a football team that year for the first time in the school's history. Foley helped lead the Dolphins to a 4-5 record during their inaugural season, as the offense scored 271 points in nine games (30.1 ppg). The Dolphin attack averaged 380 yards per game, a perfectly balanced 190 yards rushing and passing per game.

Foley also served as an assistant coach at the University of Pennsylvania from 1991 to 1993, and again from 1995 to 1997, spending the 1994 season as an assistant at Williams College. At Penn, Foley coached the tight ends and tackles for five years and helped the Quakers to a perfect 10-0 record in 1993, when they also won the Ivy League Championship. Prior to his stint at Penn, Foley served as the offensive line coach at the State University of New York (SUNY) at Albany for two years.

Foley was a three-year starter at Bucknell University, playing offensive guard for one season and center for two. During his junior year, he was named the team's top lineman, and he served as a captain during his senior year. He earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from Bucknell in 1989 and a master's degree in educational psychology at SUNY Albany in 1991.

Foley and his wife Rebecca have two sons, Charlie (13) and Luke (6), and a daughter Sara (4). His brother Glenn was a seven-year NFL veteran quarterback, playing with the New York Jets and Seattle Seahawks from 1993 to 2000.

"Marcus Satterfield brings seven years of coordinator experience to our offensive staff, as well as a history of developing quarterbacks and wide receivers. He has success offensively, at places that had historically struggled, because of his offensive mind, his system and his work ethic. Marcus is a relentless recruiter who will expand our recruiting reach, and he will develop and push the players already within our program."

Marcus SATTERFIELD

Offensive Coordinator
East Tennessee State '99

1st Season at Temple

Marcus Satterfield enters his first season as the offensive coordinator at Temple University.

Satterfield spent the last four seasons as offensive coordinator at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. He spent his first three years grooming one of the most talented quarterbacks UTC has ever seen into an NFL draft pick. Satterfield totally revamped Chattanooga's offense to focus on the next generation of Mocs. In 2012, UTC switched to a spread system. The Mocs finished the season ranked fifth in the SoCon in scoring (25.5 ppg) and eighth in total offense (349.8 ypg).

B.J. Coleman had an outstanding three-year career under Satterfield's tutelage. He was eventually picked in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers, graduating with a UTC record 52 touchdown passes.

The 2010 season saw UTC rank No. 11 in the nation with 4,730 yards of total offense, the third highest mark in school history. Chattanooga also ranked in the top 20 in the FCS with 31.5 points per game, the second highest total in school history. UTC ranked No. 8 in the nation in passing offense with 277 yards per game and was third in the FCS in third-down conversions at 48.7%. Five offensive players were named to the All-SoCon team, while receiver Joel Bradford was pegged Third-Team All-American by the Associated Press.

In 2009, Coleman and Blue Cooper made up one of the top pass-catch tandems in the country. Cooper was No. 6 in the nation with 84 receptions and went on to sign a free-agent contract with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Prior to coming to UTC, Satterfield was the offensive coordinator at UT Martin for three seasons. There he helped the Skyhawks win the 2006 Ohio Valley Conference championship and finish with the No. 1 ranked scoring offense in the OVC in 2008. He also led the 2007 squad to a No. 1 league ranking in total offense and points-per-game.

Satterfield worked at Richmond during the 2004 season. Satterfield left Richmond to coach the wide receivers at Western Carolina, alongside Matt Rhule, for two years before joining UT Martin's staff.

A Greenback, Tenn., native, Satterfield was a three-year letterman as a wide receiver and punter at East Tennessee State from 1995-98, earning his degree in history from ETSU in 1999. He also played point guard for Chattanooga State Community College during the 1994-95 season.

Satterfield is married to the former Sarah Houser. The couple has a daughter, Harper (6).

"When I had the opportunity to return to Temple, I could not have wanted to bring any coach to North Broad Street more than Phil Snow. In my one year with Coach Snow at UCLA, a year in which he engineered a defensive turnaround in his first season there and led the Pac 10 in several defensive categories, I saw first-hand what he could bring to a defense and to its players. Not only does he bring NFL coaching experience, 20 years of experience as a defensive coordinator at the Division 1 level, he is one of the finest teachers I have ever been around. Phil has the ability to develop and train great defensive players at all levels."

Phil Snow

Defensive Coordinator
Cal State Hayward '78

1st Season at Temple

Phil Snow, who has a wealth of experience in both the collegiate and professional coaching ranks, enters his first season at Temple University as the defensive coordinator.

He joins the Owls after three seasons as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Eastern Michigan University.

Under Snow's guidance, EMU ranked 38th nationally and third in the MAC in pass defense in 2012. The Eagles gave up just 212.75 yards per game. Senior linebacker Justin Cudworth and senior defensive end Andy Mulumba were second-team All-Mid-American Conference honorees.

Snow orchestrated a major turnaround during the 2011 campaign, ranking 35th nationally and third in the MAC in total defense. The Eagles gave up 350.33 yards per game, an improvement of 103.8 yards per contest. In 12 games, the Eagles' defense allowed just 292 points for a total of 24.3 points per game. The last EMU squad to accomplish the feat was the 1994 team which gave up 275 points through its 11 contests.

Snow joined the Eagles after four seasons as an assistant coach with the NFL's Detroit Lions as the linebackers coach (2005-08).

Prior to his NFL stint in Detroit, the 57-year-old Snow served as an assistant football coach at the University of Washington, UCLA, Arizona State University, the University of California, Boise State University, and Laney College.

A 1978 graduate of Cal-State Hayward, Snow began his coaching career on the high school level, coaching at Berkeley (Calif.) H.S. in 1976, and at his high school alma mater, Winters (Calif.) in 1977-78.

From there, Snow joined the Laney (Calif.) College football staff in 1979 as a defensive backs coach before taking over as the defensive coordinator in 1980 and 1981.

His next stop was Boise State University where he was an assistant coach from 1982-86. He was a defensive backs coach in his first season at Boise before becoming the defensive coordinator in 1983 and holding that position through the 1986 season. In addition, he was the top assistant to the head coach from 1984-86. His Boise State defense was ranked sixth in the nation in 1986.

From Boise, Snow became an assistant coach in charge of the defensive backs at the University of California from 1987-91. The 1990 and 1991 teams won the first back-to-back bowl games (Copper and Citrus) in school history. The 1991 team moved up as high as sixth in the weekly national rankings and played in the school's first New Year's Day bowl game in 33 years.

After his California experience, Snow became the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Arizona State University from 1992-2000 and saw the 1996 team play in the Rose Bowl, the 1997 team make the Sun Bowl, while the 1999 and 2000 squads played in the Aloha Bowl. Snow's 1996 ASU squad finished first in the conference in rush defense (98.0), pass defense (104.2) and total defense (306.2). It held Nebraska scoreless in one game and limited the opposition to under 10 points in five games total that season. The team finished the season ranked fourth in the nation in both polls.

His defensive units ranked among the top three in scoring defense in the PAC-10 in three of his last five seasons at ASU. In 2000, the Sun Devils ranked first in the nation in fumbles recovered and third in the country in number of turnovers created. The group was headlined by PAC -10 Defensive Player of the Year Adam Archuleta and conference Freshman of the Year Terrell Suggs.

Snow left ASU to become the defensive coordinator for two seasons at UCLA, where he mentored head coach Matt Rhule during the 2001 season. The Bruin defense ranked first in the PAC -10 in total defense in Snow's first season. The unit also finished the season ranked second in the league in rushing defense and scoring defense. In addition, linebacker Robert Thomas, a first round selection by the Rams in the 2002 NFL draft, earned 2001 PAC -10 Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors. Kenyon Coleman was the defensive winner of the Morris Trophy as the PAC -10's best lineman. The 2002 team participated in the Las Vegas Bowl.

The University of Washington called next and Snow spent 2003 as first the co-defensive coordinator and then the 2004 season as coordinator for the Huskies before moving to the NFL in 2005.

A native of Woodland, Calif., Snow graduated from Winters H.S. in Winters, Calif. He went on to earn an associate's degree at Sacramento City College in 1975 before completing his bachelor's at Cal-State Hayward.

Snow and his wife, Debra, have two sons, Phillip and Jacob. Son Phillip played golf at Nevada.

3rd Season at Temple

Francis Brown begins his third season at Temple University and first as the defensive backs coach.

In 2012, he served as a graduate assistant coach working with the defense.

In 2011, Brown worked as the assistant director of internal operations. He was in charge of player development and community service projects.

Prior to joining the Owls, Brown coached the defensive backs at Paul VI High School. The New Jersey native also worked as a football trainer at Nexxt Level Sports in 2009-10, training South Jersey athletes, and helped with several area summer camps.

Brown received his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Western Carolina University in 2006. Playing under assistant head coach Matt Rhule, the team captain was a first-team All-SoCon selection at cornerback for the Catamounts.

Following graduation, Brown had two short stays with the Cincinnati Bengals during the 2007 and 2008 seasons.

Brown was three-time All-Conference quarterback at Camden High School, setting the school record with 47 touchdown passes.

"I've had the pleasure of working with Tyree Foreman throughout my time here at Temple. Tyree has been a solidifying force to our running game. His development of young athletes, like Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown, has been invaluable. His tireless efforts in recruiting helped Temple have the No. 1 recruiting class last spring. I am pleased that Tyree will continue to contribute to our staff."

Tyree Foreman

Running Backs
Virginia '01

7th Season at Temple

Tyree Foreman, who has coached at Temple since 2007, is in his seventh season as the Owls' running backs coach.

In 2012, Foreman worked with All-American Montel Harris and BIG EAST Special Teams Player of the Year Matt Brown. The duo combined for a record-breaking day in the win at Army, rushing for school records of 534 yards, 22 rushing first downs, and nine touchdowns. In just one season at Temple, Harris earned first-team All-BIG EAST and Philadelphia Inquirer Performer of the Year accolades. He finished as the national leader with 27 career 100-yard rushing games while leading Temple and the BIG EAST in rushing with 1,054 yards and 12 touchdowns on 196 carries.

In 2011, Foreman guided the dynamic duo of juniors Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown to All-MAC honors while helping the Owls set the school records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns in a season. Pierce became Temple's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (53), total touchdowns (54), and points scored (324). He also set the season records for rushing TDs (27), total TDs (27), points scored (162), and 100-yard rushing games (9), while setting game records for rushing TDs in a game (5 at Maryland) and points scored (30 at Maryland).

All-American Bernard Pierce, who decided to forego his senior season, was a third round draft selection by the Baltimore Ravens in 2012, the first of a school record three Draftees and a school record class of 11 NFL signees.

In 2010, the running backs helped the team to an 8-4 regular-season record. The Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79. Sophomore RB Bernard Pierce repeated as a first-team All-MAC honoree, while sophomore RB Matt Brown garnered second-team honors.

In 2009, Foreman's running game exploded, helping TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and first-place tie in the MAC East. All-American Bernard Pierce rushed his way into the Temple record book, re-writing all records for a rookie en route to 2009 MAC Freshman of the Year and first-team All-MAC honors.

In 2008, Foreman helped the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls outscored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. Foreman also coached true freshman Kee-ayre Griffin, who switched to running back mid-season and went on to score a touchdown in his first five games. He led the Owls on the ground.

Foreman played his collegiate ball at Virginia, where former Temple coach Al Golden served as the Cavaliers' defensive coordinator during his senior season in 2001.

Foreman arrived at West Point in March 2004 and helped make an immediate impact on the Black Knights' rushing attack under head coach Bobby Ross. After finishing last in the nation in team rushing in 2003, Army concluded the 2004 campaign ranked 36th. The team also boasted the 13th leading rusher in the nation, Carlton Jones, who averaged 115.36 yards on the ground per game. Jones' production continued with Foreman's assistance in 2005, when he ranked 29th in the country in rushing with a 102.40 yards-per-game average.

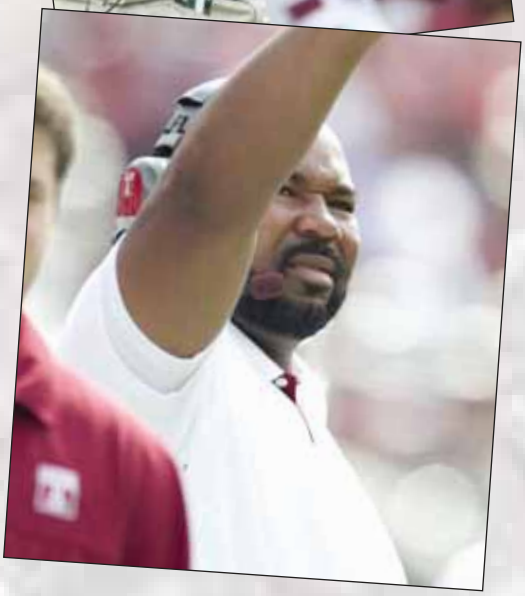
In addition to coaching ball-carriers during his tenure at Army, Foreman also worked with special teams, assisting with punt, kickoff return and punt return, as well as field goal and extra point units. He recruited in Maryland, Washington D.C., Virginia, Delaware, West Virginia, and Ohio for the Black Knights.



A three-year letterwinner in the backfield at Virginia from 1999 to 2001, Foreman rushed for 636 yards and 11 touchdowns during his career in Charlottesville, averaging 5.0 yards per carry. He started at both the fullback and tailback positions, closing his tenure with 34 receptions for 387 yards (11.4 avg.) and five receiving scores.

After departing Virginia, the Sandy Spring, Md., native, signed a rookie, free-agent contract with the San Diego Chargers in April, 2002. He was released at the end of training camp, but was signed to the Chicago practice squad in August 2002. He remained with the Bears throughout the season and was a teammate of former Temple signal caller Henry Burris. Foreman was allocated to NFL Europe during the spring of 2003 and spent the season as the starting fullback for the Barcelona Dragons.

Born November 6, 1979, Foreman earned a bachelor's degree in religious studies, with concentrations in Christianity and Buddhism, from Virginia in May 2001. He left professional football during the summer of 2003 and returned to the gridiron with his initial coaching assignment at West Point.

Foreman is married to the former Shakeya Currie. The couple has a daughter Cassidy (2).

Allen Mogridge

Offensive Line
North Carolina '99

1st Season at Temple

Allen Mogridge enters his first season as the offensive line coach at Temple University.

Mogridge spent the 2012 season at Central Florida as the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach.

Prior to joining the Knights, he spent three seasons as special teams and tight ends coach with North Carolina where the Tar Heels advanced to a bowl game each year from 2009-11.

Also working as UNC's recruiting coordinator, Mogridge helped guide the Tar Heels to the 2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl, a double-overtime victory over Tennessee in the 2010 Music City Bowl and a berth in the Independence Bowl in 2011.

A 1999 graduate of North Carolina, Mogridge's 2011 tight ends combined for 33 receptions for 488 yards and two touchdowns. In 2010, they led the ACC with 85 catches, highlighted by Ryan Taylor's 36 and Zack Pianalto's 30. At UCF, both of those numbers would rank in the top four as only two tight ends for the Knights have registered at least 30 receptions in a single-season (Don Grayson with 50 in 1987 and John Osborne with 31 in 1988). Pianalto holds UNC's career record with 94 catches by a tight end and played in 13 games for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2011, while Taylor was picked in the seventh round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers.

On special teams in 2011, North Carolina ranked 11th in the nation by allowing just 4.63 yards per punt return, and 23rd in the FBS by permitting opposing kick returners to average only 19.54 yards per attempt. In Mogridge's first year, the Tar Heels were 19th in the country in punt returns and 18th in punt return defense.

Mogridge was on the coaching staff at the University at Buffalo from 2004-08 where he led the running backs before ending his stint leading the offensive line and serving as the Bulls' recruiting coordinator. While in Buffalo, Mogridge coached freshman running back James Starks to the All-MAC Second Team in 2006 - the first time a UB freshman earned all-league honors. Starks went on to become the school's first 1,000-yard rusher (in the FBS era) a year later. During that 2007 season, the offensive line paved the way for a school FBS record 291 points and 258 completions by quarterback Drew Willy. On the O-line was center Jamey Richard, who was an All-MAC honoree and eventually taken in the seventh round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts.

In Mogridge's final season, Buffalo won the 2008 Mid-American Conference championship, upsetting undefeated Ball State in the title game, 42-24.The Bulls advanced to the International Bowl, the school's second bowl berth, in Toronto against Connecticut.

Mogridge spent one year as a strength and conditioning coach at UNC in 2000 while playing for one year in the Arena Football League with the Carolina Cobras. He also worked in the Carolina Panthers 2000 training camp. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant on defense at Buffalo from 2001-02, helping the Bulls jump from near the bottom of total defense to 45th in the nation in 2001.

Mogridge then helped lead Western Carolina as its defensive ends coach and recruiting coordinator in 2003 when Matt Rhule served as the Catamounts' assistant head coach, linebackers coach, and special teams coordinator.

A native of Maryville, Tenn., Mogridge earned his bachelor's degree in history at North Carolina in 1999. He lettered from 1996-99 while playing four different positions – tight end, fullback, offensive tackle, and defensive end. He earned the Kenan Award for Leadership as a senior, and went to four bowl games highlighted by the 1996 and 1997 Gator Bowls. UNC was a combined 21-3 over those two seasons and finished No. 4 in the final USA Today Coaches Poll in 1997.

Mogridge is married to the former Jennifer Carpenter. The couple has three daughters, Livi (9), Izzy (6), and Lola Sofia (1).

"We are excited to welcome Brandon Noble and his family home to Southeastern Pennsylvania. Brandon will bring technical expertise and experience that he has accumulated throughout his college and professional playing careers, as well as his collegiate and professional coaching careers. Brandon brings strong ties to both our local communities as well as the Virginia Beach area which will benefit us in our recruiting efforts."

– Matt Rhule

Brandon NOBLE

Defensive Line
Penn State '98

1st Season at Temple

Brandon Noble begins his first season as the defensive line coach at Temple University.

A former Penn State teammate of Matt Rhule's, Noble spent the 2012 season at Coastal Carolina as the Chanticleers' defensive line and special teams coach. Coastal Carolina won the 2012 Big South Conference championship and advanced to the NCAA Division I playoffs.

In 2011 Noble worked under Chanticleer head coach Joe Moglia as the defensive line coach with the Omaha Nighthawks, where he helped the squad lead the United Football League (UFL) in both sacks and tackles for loss.

Prior to his time at Omaha, Noble spent four seasons (2006-08 and 2010) as an assistant coach at West Chester University, working with the linebackers and defensive line in his time with the Golden Rams.

Noble spent seven seasons in the NFL, including three with the Washington Redskins (2003-05) and four with the Dallas Cowboys (1999-2002). He was a three-year starter at defensive tackle for the Cowboys and received the NFL's Ed Block Courage Award, voted upon by his Redskin teammates and given to the player who exemplifies a commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. Noble originally signed as an undrafted free agent in 1997 with the San Francisco 49ers, making the practice squad for stints during the 1997 and '98 seasons.

He was allocated to the Barcelona Dragons of NFL Europe by both the 49ers and Cowboys in 1998 and `99, making the All-NFL Europe team and helping Barcelona advance to the 1999 World Bowl Championship game.

A three-year starter at Penn State, Noble posted a team-high eight sacks and a career-high 72 tackles as a senior in 1996. The defensive tackle earned second team All-Big Ten honors and was awarded the Hall Foundation Athletic Award, given to the team's most outstanding senior player. The team captain was also named the Nittany Lions' most outstanding senior player and the defensive Most Valuable Player of the 1997 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. Noble played on the 1994 undefeated Rose Bowl squad as a sophomore and also helped the Nittany Lions to the 1993 Blockbuster Bowl. The Virginia Beach native received his degree in criminal justice in 1998.

Noble is a regular guest on the ESPN Radio show "All Night with Jason Smith" and on DC101's "Elliot in the Morning" in Washington, D.C., providing NFL news and analysis.

Noble is married to the former Mary Kate Dougherty. The couple has three children, Connor (11), Grace (9), and Jackson (7).

"We are happy to announce Mike Siravo's return to Temple University. During his first tenure here at Temple, Mike helped rebuild our football program from top to bottom. He was responsible for bringing in the top-ranked recruiting class in the MAC in 2006, including current NFL players Steve Maneri and Andre Neblett.

Mike knows what it takes to succeed at Temple. He is an excellent teacher and will motivate our players. We are happy to have him back with our team."

Mike SIRAVO

Linebackers
Boston College '98

2nd Season at Temple

Mike Siravo, who served as the Owls' linebackers coach and recruiting coach in 2006, returns to Temple University for his second season and first season under Matt Rhule as the linebackers coach.

He re-joins the Owls after six seasons as defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Boston College. Siravo coached a secondary that helped three Boston College defenses rank within the nation's Top 10 in interceptions– 2007 (second, 25), 2008 (first, 26) and 2010 (eighth, 20).

His 2010 secondary helped the team rank first in the country in rushing defense, eighth in interceptions (20), and 13th in total defense.

In 2008, Siravo coached the secondary that was a key part of a defense that ranked in the Top 10 nationally in seven different categories, including interceptions (t-first, 26), turnovers gained (second, 36), total defense (fifth, 286.14), red zone defense (sixth, .72), rush defense (seventh, 91.2), pass efficiency defense (seventh, 98.81), and first downs defense (sixth, 14.71).

In 2007, Siravo was a part of a Boston College staff that led the Eagles to an 11-3 record (the first Eagle team to win 11 games since 1940). The Eagles began the season 8-0 and were ranked No. 2 in the nation in both major polls. The team won the Atlantic Division of the ACC and went on to win an eighth consecutive bowl game. The Eagles finished 10th in the final AP poll, the program's best finish since the 1984 season.

Boston College ranked second in the country with 25 interceptions in 2007. The Eagle defense finished fourth in the ACC in pass defense efficiency and finished third in the league in total defense. Under Siravo's guidance, free safety Jamie Silva was a consensus All-America first-team honoree and a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award given to the nation's top defensive back.

Siravo first stepped on North Broad Street in 2006 as Owls' linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator during Al Golden's first season. With Siravo's help, Temple had the top-ranked recruiting class in the Mid-American Conference in 2006, which produced five NFL players, including Steve Maneri and Andre Neblett.

Prior to joining the Temple staff in 2006, Siravo spent three seasons as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Columbia University (2003-05). At Columbia, Siravo developed a system to streamline the Lions' nationwide recruiting efforts. The linebacking corps was also considerably strengthened under his tutelage, with senior Chuck Britton earning All-Ivy accolades in 2004.

A Pawtucket, R.I., native, Siravo joined the Eagles as a walk-on in 1995 and later earned a scholarship. The two-time letterwinner played linebacker under head coaches Dan Henning and Tom O'Brien. He earned Academic All-BIG EAST honors as a senior.

Siravo earned a bachelor's degree in history from Boston College in 1998. He also earned a master's degree from his alma mater in administrative studies of business in 2000.

Upon graduation, Siravo remained in Chestnut Hill and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for recruiting in 1998. The Eagles' February 1999 recruiting class was rated the best in school history, ranking 15th nationally according to expert Tom Lemming.

Siravo is married to the former Alison Cahill, who graduated from BC in 1999 and BC Law School in 2002. They have two children—William (3) and Evelyn (1).

Terry Smith

Wide Receivers
Penn State '91

1st Season at Temple

Terry Smith, one of the nations' most high-profile high school coaches, enters his first season at Temple University as the wide receivers coach.

He joins the Owls after 11 seasons as the head coach at Monroeville's Gateway High School.

Under Smith's guidance, the Gators went 101-30 overall with 11 W.P.I.A.L. playoff appearances, seven conference championships, four AAAA title games, and numerous Top 25 national rankings, while turning out more than 70 students on Division I college scholarships.

Under Smith's watch, Gateway matriculated Pittsburgh Steelers' linebacker Mortty Ivy and defensive back Justin King, his son. As a running back, King became one of the first WPIAL running backs to collect 4,000 career yards in AAAA.

In 2010, Smith was named one of the 50 Men of Excellence by The New Pittsburgh Courier for his accomplishment, sacrifice, and service in the community. Smith was honored twice as the Times Express Citizen of the Year for his involvement in the community.

Smith is a 1987 graduate of Gateway High School and a member of the 1985 and 1986 Gators' W.P.I.A.L. AAAA championship football teams. He was elected to the Gateway Sports Hall of Fame.

A 1991 graduate of Penn State, Smith received his degree in business management. The team captain was a four-year letterwinner at wide receiver with the Nittany Lions under Joe Paterno. Smith finished his collegiate career with 108 receptions for 1,825 yards and 15 touchdowns which ranks sixth on the Lions' career chart for receptions and seventh for receiving yards. He received votes towards the 1991 Heisman Trophy and was named Penn State's 1991 MVP.

Smith was an 11th-round draft pick by the Washington Redskins in 1992.

In 2009 Smith was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame East Boros Chapter. Additionally, he served as an assistant coach in the 2010 Big 33 Game, head coach of the 2009 U.S. Army All-American Bowl, assistant coach of the 2008 Hawaii/Polynesian All-Star Game, and head coach of the 2003 Foothills Classic. He was selected twice as the Pittsburgh Steelers/NFL Coach of the Week (2009, 2003).

Smith is married to the former Alison Fulton. They have two children—son Justin King (26), and wife Carli, and daughter Haley (14).

Shawn Bryson

Graduate Asst.— Offense
Tennessee '11

1st Season at Temple

Shawn Bryson begins his first season at Temple University as a graduate assistant coach, working with the offense.

In 2012, Bryson worked as the National Football League intern and fullbacks coach at Lenoir-Rhyne University.

Bryson guided sophomore Isaiah Whitaker to All-SAC honors for the second straight year in 2012. The fullbacks combined to rush for 1,679 yards this past fall and were an integral part of the Bears' rushing offense that finished second in the nation (376.2 ypg).

Bryson is a former NFL player and star running back for the University of Tennessee (1995-98). With the Volunteers, Bryson rushed for 505 career yards and eight scores. He captained the 1998 NCAA Division I National Championship Team en route to an undefeated season.

As a player in the National Football League, Bryson suited up for Buffalo (2000-02) and Detroit (2003-06) and finished his professional career with 2,144 yards rushing and six touchdowns. Bryson, a 1999 third round draft pick, led the Bills in rushing in 2000 with 591 yards and topped the Lions' squad during the 2003 season with 606 yards on the ground.

Bryson, a native of Franklin, N.C., graduated from Tennessee in December 2011 with a bachelor's degree in political science.

Bryson and his wife Stephanie have two children, Jaelyn (6) and Channing (3). Bryson also has a daughter Autumn (17).

He is pursuing a master's degree in adult and organizational development.

Colin Clancy

Graduate Asst.— Defense
Temple '09

1st Season at Temple

Colin Clancy begins his first season at Temple University as a graduate assistant coach, working with the defense.

During the 2012 football season, Clancy coached the wide receivers and returners at SUNY Cortland. The team finished with a 9-2 record, while winning the New Jersey Athletic Conference title and earning a berth into the NCAA Tournament. Under Clancy's tutelage, both starting receivers earned All-Conference accolades.

Clancy started his business career working on Wall Street with research firm Sanford C. Bernstein, working in the private client division. He currently holds Series 7 and 63 licenses.

Clancy was a two-year letterwinner at Temple. As a true freshman in 2005, he appeared in five games as a reserve quarterback. He finished 10-of-19 for 121 yards and a touchdown, a 20-yard aerial to Brian Allbrooks against Toledo. As a senior, Clancy served as the holder on field goals.

A 2004 graduate of Stonington (Conn.) High School, Clancy was named to the 2002 Hartford Courant's All-State team. The three-year varsity starter set school career records with 39 touchdowns and 3,700 passing yards. He earned All-Eastern Connecticut Conference honors as a sophomore and junior. Also a 2001 New London Day All-Area selection and Honor Roll student, Clancy earned All-Conference accolades in baseball as a sophomore.

Following high school, Clancy played one season at St. Thomas More Prep before enrolling at Temple. He set a school record by throwing for 19 touchdowns and 1,340 yards to lead the team to a 7-1 record while earning All-New England Prep accolades.

Clancy received his degree in entrepreneurship from Temple in 2009. He was cited on the Athletic Director's Honor Roll and was the recipient of the 2008 Owl Club Academic Award for sporting the team's highest GPA. Clancy is pursuing a master's degree in adult and organizational development.

Evan Cooper

Graduate Asst.— Defense
Temple '09

1st Season at Temple

Evan Cooper, Jr., begins his first season at Temple University as a graduate assistant coach, working with the defense.

He spent two seasons as the defensive backs coach at Westminster Academy in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., while working as a student advisor.

A four-year letterwinner for the Owls, Cooper played his first two seasons under Bobby Wallace. As a true freshman in 2005, he played in seven games. Under Al Golden, he moved into the starting line-up. As a senior in 2008, Cooper had 44 tackles, including 31 solos, three break-ups, and two forced fumbles. He earned the 2008 Carlos Diaz Award as the most improved player following his final season.

A 2005 graduate of American Heritage High School in Delray Beach, Fla., Cooper was a Florida Sun Sentinel first-team All-County Small School honoree. As a senior, he led Palm County with 10 interceptions and had 53 tackles and recovered two fumbles. Cooper also showed big play ability by scoring two touchdowns on defense. A standout sprinter, he qualified for state finals in two events as a junior.

Cooper received his degree in sport and recreation management from Temple in 2009. He is pursuing a master's degree in sports psychology.

His father Evan Sr. starred at Michigan before playing defensive back and returning kickoffs for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1984-87.

Adam DiMichele

Graduate Asst.— Offense
Temple '09

1st Season at Temple

Former Owl quarterback Adam DiMichele begins his first season at Temple University as a graduate assistant coach, working with the offense.

Since graduation, DiMichele has played professional football, including stints in the NFL and CFL. During the 2012 season, he played with the Philadelphia Soul of the Arena Football League.

Named the 2011 Southern Indoor Football League MVP, DiMichele led the Erie Explosion to a 9-3 record en route to a division title. He led the league in passing yards per game (270.6), team points per game (70.2), and total team offensive yards per game (260.0), while completing 235-of-427 passes (55%) for over 3,200 yards and a league-best 91 touchdowns to just seven interceptions.

DiMichele has also spent time with the Philadelphia Eagles (2009), the Calgary Stampeders (2009), and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (2009).

Temple's team two-time MVP and team captain in 2007 and 2008, DiMichele finished his career ranked fourth in school history with 5,024 passing yards, adding 40 passing touchdowns and five rushing scores. During his first season as the Owls' signal caller (2006), DiMichele played in all 11 games with nine starts as a sophomore. In 2007, he started the first eight games before suffering a season-ending injury. In one of Temple's biggest comebacks in school history, DiMichele threw three fourth-quarter touchdowns to lead TU to a come-from-behind win at Akron during their first season of Mid-American Conference play. In 2008, he overcame intense rehabilitation and started nine games as a senior. In the 55-52 win over Eastern Michigan, DiMichele threw for a school record six touchdowns and passed for a career-high 370 yards. He broke school records for passing touchdowns in a game (six) and set a career-high for passing yards in game (370). His 370 yards marked his 10th 200-plus passing yardage games, which rank him third on the Temple's career list for 200-yard passers. It also marked his fourth 300-plus passing game, which tied the school record with Henry Burris.

DiMichele finished the 2008 season at 134-of-231 (58.0 percent) for 1,911 yards and 18 touchdowns in nine games also rushed 61 times for 91 yards and three touchdowns. His passing efficiency (148.02) ranked No. 19 in the final NCAA statistics. He finished his career with 5,024 passing yards which ranks fourth on Temple's all-time chart.

One of the most accomplished prep athletes in the history of Pennsylvania, DiMichele was a three-sport all-state selection as a senior in football, basketball and baseball at Sto-Rox High School. The McKees Rocks, Pa., native had one of the best high school careers in the history of Pennsylvania as the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League's all-time leading passer, which includes breaking records set by former NFL greats and Hall of Famers Joe Montana, Dan Marino, and Joe Namath. He earned first-team All-State honors in all three sports, and was cited as the state Player of the Year in both football and basketball.

DiMichele was inducted into the WPIAL Hall of Fame in 2011.

Prior to joining the Owls, DiMichele attended Okaloosa-Walton College (Fla.) for two years to play baseball. He was selected in the 38th round of the 2005 Major League Baseball Draft by the Toronto Blue Jays.

DiMichele received his degree in sport and recreation management from Temple in 2009. He is pursuing a master's degree in sports psychology.

One of seven children, DiMichele's younger brother Alex played football at Temple before transferring to Robert Morris. His brother Anthony played football at Holy Cross. Both brothers were I-AA All-Americans.

Strength & Conditioning

Jeremy Scott

Head Strength & Cond. Coach
Lock Haven '96

1st Season at Temple

Jeremy Scott, who has spent his career optimizing the performance of collegiate and professional athletes, enters his first season at Temple University as the head strength and conditioning coach for football.

Scott previously spent 14 seasons at Penn State as the speed development coach and assistant strength and conditioning coach for the football program. He was responsible for developing players' speed, reaction, agility, quickness and acceleration, as well as working on proper running mechanics and high-intensity strength training. His expertise was a valuable resource in lowering 40-yard sprint times and preparing players for the drills used in evaluation at the NFL combines.

In 2012, Scott worked with the varsity teams at Princeton University.

Scott was recognized for his achievements with his selection in 2011 for the prestigious title of Master of Strength and Conditioning Coach.

A 1996 graduate of Lock Haven University, Scott obtained his master's degree in health education from Penn State in 1999. He previously served as a graduate assistant with the Penn State strength and conditioning program from 1997-98 and performed an internship with the program in the summer of 1996. His work experience also includes designing and implementing a high-intensity strength training program for the United States Marine Corps Company B Body Bearers (1998), serving as the strength coach for the Penn State Boxing Club (1997-98) and as a personal trainer (1995).

Scott is married to the former Cory Beth Wickizer, and they have a daughter, Emma (7), and son, Evan (3).

Shelton Gaffney

Asst. Strength & Cond. Coach
Western Carolina '07

1st Season at Temple

Shelton Gaffney, who spent three years with the University of Tennessee football team, begins his first season at Temple University as the assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Gaffney joined the Owls after two years as a strength and conditioning coach at Johnny Long's Training Academy in Knoxville, Tenn. He oversaw the development of football athletes as well as trained high school athletes and current professional athletes in various sports.

Prior to working at Johnny Long's Training Academy, Gaffney was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Tennessee from 2008-10. He worked with various sports, including football, track and field, basketball, baseball, and swimming and diving.

Gaffney started in the strength and conditioning profession in 2007 while at his alma mater, Western Carolina. While at Western, he served as an apprentice in the weight room and then went on to serve as an intern at Tennessee in the summer of 2007. That fall the Vols became the SEC East champions.

Gaffney was a four-year letter winner at Western Carolina University where he played linebacker for the Catamounts. He was a key contributor on defense as well as on special teams. Gaffney earned a bachelor's degree in sport management and exercise science in 2007.

Al Bellamy

Director of Athletic Training
Michigan State '84

1st Season at Temple

Al Bellamy is in the midst of his first season as Temple Athletics' director of athletic training.

He oversees all 24 of Temple's intercollegiate sports, while working directly with the football team, and managing the sports medicine staff. He brings 25 years of NFL athletic training experience to Temple, recently completing his 12th season with the Detroit Lions.

With Detroit, Bellamy helped manage the team's athletic training staff and worked closely with the team's physicians.

Bellamy arrived in Detroit following 13 years as assistant trainer with the Washington Redskins. He began working with the Redskins in 1988 and was a member of the team's medical staff when Washington won Super Bowl XXVI. In 2009, Bellamy also served on the Gatorade Advisory Board.

Prior to joining the Redskins, he served a two-year stint as an assistant athletic trainer with the University of Miami (Fla.) football team (1986-87). During this span, he worked with the Hurricanes' program that claimed the 1987 National Championship and included former Lions' safety Bennie Blades and wide receiver Brett Perriman. That assignment was his first full-time job and came after he had earned his master's degree in physical education (emphasis on sports medicine) from Syracuse.

Before obtaining his master's from Syracuse, Bellamy attended Michigan State as an undergraduate and received his bachelor's degree in health education in 1984. While at MSU, he began working in the NFL when he served training camp internships with both the St. Louis Cardinals and San Francisco 49ers.

Prior to attending Michigan State, Bellamy attended Archbishop John Carroll High School in Washington, D.C. In recognition of Bellamy's career in athletic training, the school's annual Student Athletic Trainer and Manager of the Year Award is named in his honor.

Bellamy and his wife Sharon have two children-- son Chase, and daughter Ashley.

Masahiro Takahagi

Assistant Athletic Trainer
Methodist University '08

3rd Season at Temple

Padden joined the Columbia University staff as the outside linebackers coach for two seasons (2001-02) prior to heading to Fordham.

Padden began his coaching career at Albright College where he coached the defensive line for two seasons (1997-98), working with Matt Rhule who coached the linebackers in 1998. Padden moved to the University of Albany as the defensive tackles coach for one season before taking over as wide receivers coach for one season.

A three-year letterwinner on special teams for the Catholic University Cardinals, Padden won the Scout Team Player of the Year Award as a junior in 1995. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in accounting in 1997.

A Norristown, Pa., native, Padden earned a master's degree in higher education administration from Albany in 2005.

Charlie Cantor

Coordinator of External Operations
Florida State '06

1st Season at Temple

Charlie Cantor enters his first season as Temple's coordinator of external operations.

A native of New Hyde Park, N.Y., Cantor joined the Owls after coaching the wide receivers at LIU-C.W. Post in 2012.

For the 2011-12 academic year, Cantor served as the offensive graduate assistant coach at Middle Tennessee State, working with the quarterbacks and wide receivers.

Prior to joining Middle Tennessee, Cantor was an assistant recruiting coordinator for Coach Mark Richt at Georgia from 2008 to 2011. He spearheaded the day-to-day recruiting coordination, and was an integral part of the recruiting efforts that landed Georgia's "Dream Team" recruiting class of 2011, considered by many to be the top recruiting class in the country.

He also played a big role in coordinating major parts of the Mark Richt Football Camp in Athens. He oversaw the 7-on-7 Passing League Camps in 2010 and 2011, co-coordinated Mini-Camp and Dawg Night activities in 2008-09-10 before being appointed as head coordinator for the two popular events in 2011.

Before working at Georgia, Cantor spent one year at Rutgers, working as a recruiting assistant from the spring of 2007 through the spring of 2008.

Cantor attended Florida State where he was an honor student while simultaneously earning bachelor's degrees in two majors, social science education and sports management. He graduated in 2006, earning Dean's List honors every semester. Additional honors included Kappa Delta Pi Honor Society, Golden Key Honor Society and Phi Sigma Theta National Honor Society.

Cantor received his master's degree sport management from Florida State in 2011.

While at Florida State, Cantor began his football career as a volunteer student manager in 2002. He became a full-time student manager in 2003. He coached at the Bobby Bowden Football Camp from 2003-2006. He was a student assistant with tight ends in 2004, then added quarterbacks to his duties the following year.

2012 Season Review

Temple, under the direction of second-year head coach Steve Addazio, finished the 2012 campaign at 4-7 overall and 2-5 (tie for 6th) in BIG EAST play. The Owls returned to the BIG EAST Conference after a seven-year absence and won back-to-back league games for a 2-0 start in BIG EAST play, both for the first time in school history.

The 2012 Temple squad returned 35 lettermen, including nine starters. The Owls utilized a multiple offense and a 4-3 defense.

On the season, senior RB Montel Harris was the Owls' top rusher with 1,054 yards and 12 touchdowns on 186 carries. He also led the BIG EAST Conference in rushing. Sophomore WR Jalen Fitzpatrick was the top receiver with 30 catches for 363 yards and two touchdowns. Junior QB Chris Coyer went 84-of-164 for 946 yards and eight touchdowns while rushing for 444 yards and two TDs. Junior QB Clinton "Juice" Granger, who started the last two games, was 31-of-55 for 370 yards and two touchdowns. He rushed for 206 yards and a touchdown on 42 carries. True freshman LB Tyler Matakevich was the top defender with 101 tackles, including a team-best 67 solo takedowns, and three break-ups. He became the first freshman in Temple history to record 100 tackles.

In the final national rankings, Temple ranked among the nation's best in several categories— No. 6 net punting (40.76), No. 21 in kickoff returns (23.96), and No. 31 in rushing (201.18). Individually, senior RB Matt Brown was No. 7 in punt returns (14.18), No. 21 in all-purpose running (143.40), and No. 28 in kickoff returns (25.48). Senior PK Brandon McManus was No. 9 in punting (45.06) and No. 41 in field goals (1.27). Senior RB Montel Harris was No. 25 in rushing (105.40), No. 81 in scoring (7.20), and No. 47 in all-purpose running (116.60). Freshman LB Tyler Matakevich was No. 38 in tackles (9.18).

True freshman LB Tyler Matakevich was named to the 2012 Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-America Team. Matakevich became just the 12th Temple freshman to earn All-America honors and the first since RB Bernard Pierce (2009) to earn recognition as a true freshman. He joined DT Dan Klecko (1999) as the only Owls to capture first-team freshman All-America accolades.

Six Temple Owls earned 2012 All-BIG EAST honors, including senior Matt Brown who was named the Special Teams Player of the Year, and true freshman LB Tyler Matakevich who took home Rookie of the Year honors. Earning first team All-Conference honors were senior RB Montel Harris, Brown at return specialist, and senior Brandon McManus at punter. Second-team accolades went to senior OL Martin Wallace, McManus at placekicker, senior DL John Youboty, and Matakevich.

A total of 31 Temple Owls were named to the 2012 BIG EAST All-Academic Team.

Additionally, junior WR Ryan Alderman, senior DB Justin Gildea, and senior OL Martin Wallace were named to the 2012 Philadelphia Inquirer Academic All-Area Football Team, along with senior RB Montel Harris who garnered Performer of the Year honors.

Seniors RB Montel Harris and P Brandon McManus were named 2012 ECAC All-Stars, while freshman LB Tyler Matakevich was named the Defensive Rookie of the Year.

The 2012 Senior Class was just the second to play in two different conferences during their playing careers. The Owls recorded the first back-to-back BIG EAST wins in school history for the first 2-0 start in BIG EAST play in school history. The seniors were a part of the first teams in school history to be bowl eligible in three consecutive years. They won more conference games than any other class in school history. They recorded three consecutive winning seasons and out-scored opponents in three straight seasons.

Temple returned to the BIG EAST in style in the fourth and final installment of the Mayor's Cup series with a 35-10 win over crosstown rival Villanova in front of 32,709 fans at Lincoln Financial Field. The Owls set the tone of the game in the opening minutes. After holding the Wildcats to a three-and-out on their opening possession, Temple used its brand of smash-mouth football to move the ball 78 yards on 14 plays to take a 7-0 lead. Senior RB Matt Brown, who recorded his 10th 100-yard rushing performance of his career, rushed for a highlight-reel 56-yard TD run with 21 seconds left to give the Owls a commanding 28-10 lead at intermission.

Temple's rally from a 23-point halftime deficit fell just short as the Owls lost to Maryland, 36-27, in front of 23,322 fans at Lincoln Financial Field. Down 26-3 at intermission, the Owls regrouped and came out with new life to start the third quarter instead of hanging their heads. Junior QB Chris Coyer made his sixth consecutive start under center. Coyer went 7-of-18 for a career-high 178 yards and two touchdowns while throwing his first interception. He led the Owls in rushing with 53 yards.

In their first road contest, the Owls struggled on offense against a tough Penn State defense, dropping a 24-13 decision in front of 93,680 fans at Beaver Stadium. TU compiled only 237 yards, with 65 of those coming in the final minutes on Temple's lone touchdown drive, a one-yard pass from Coyer to Brown. Penn State QB Matt McGloin completed 24-of-36 passes for a career-high 318 yards and one touchdown while rushing for two other scores.

Temple rejoined the BIG EAST in grand fashion, defeating South Florida, 37-28, in its conference opener in front of a homecoming crowd of 25,796 fans at Lincoln Financial Field. There were many stars in the thrilling victory that saw four lead changes and a game-saving blocked field goal by senior DE Marcus Green with 1:19 remaining in the game and Temple holding on to a 30-28 lead. One play later, Owl senior RB Montel Harris iced the game with a 35-yard touchdown run, to account for the final score.

The Owls made history in their road trip to Connecticut. First the entire travel party traveled by Amtrak train, the first for the modern-day Owls and the first time since the team traveled to the inaugural Sugar Bowl in December 1934. Sophomore WR Jalen Fitzpatrick hauled in a 14-yard touchdown pass with 19 seconds remaining to tie the game, and senior PK Brandon McManus' 29-yard field goal in overtime propelled Temple to a 17-14 win at Rentschler Field. The Owls won consecutive BIG EAST games for the first time in program history. Senior RB Montel Harris reached the 100-yard milestone for the second straight week and 24th time in his brilliant career. He carried the ball 30 times for a game-high 142 yards while scoring Temple's first touchdown on a 24-yard run in the closing minutes of the first half.

The #19/17 Rutgers Scarlet Knights scored on their first four possessions of the second half to come back from a 10-0 halftime deficit and defeat the Temple Owls, 35-10, at Lincoln Financial Field. The game was played in front of 35,145 fans, the third-largest crowd to watch a Temple game in the 10 years the Owls have been playing in the venue. The game was a tale of two halves as Temple, wearing new black uniforms, used a strong run game, which accounted for 81 yards against Rutgers' defense that entered the contest ranked second nationally against the run (60.8 ypg.). The Owls' defense was imposing, holding the Scarlet Knights to 100 total yards while keeping them off the scoreboard in the first half.

At Pittsburgh, Temple dropped its first BIG EAST road contest. The Panthers jumped out to a quick 14-0 lead and never looked back in posting a 47-17 win at Heinz Field. A 77-yard kickoff return by senior Matt Brown set up the Owls' lone score in the first half.

Temple took to the road to meet its second nationally ranked opponent at Louisville. Sophomore QB Teddy Bridgewater threw for 324 yards and a career-high five touchdowns to lead #12/10 Louisville to a 45-17 win in front of 44,609 fans at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium. The Owls started the game strong as senior Matt Brown took the opening kickoff 93 yards to paydirt to give Temple an initial 7-0 lead. It was Brown's second career kickoff return for a touchdown. He ended the day with 227 kickoff return yards, breaking the school record previously set by Travis Shelton with 205 in 2005.

Temple suffered its fourth consecutive loss in conference play against Cincinnati. The Bearcats jumped out to a 24-3 halftime lead en route to a 34-10 win at Lincoln Financial Field. Junior QB Clinton "Juice" Granger started the second half and threw his first touchdown pass, a four-yard pass to TE Cody Booth. Granger finished the game 7-of-15 for 86 yards and a touchdown. He also rushed for twice for four yards.

^ BIG EAST Conference record

The Owls made history again in their final non-conference game. Senior RB Montel Harris had a career day, rushing for 351 yards and seven touchdowns — both BIG EAST and school records — to lead the Owls to a 63-32 win at Army. The 63 points scored tied the Temple NCAA Division I-A record set back in 1973 in a win over Holy Cross. The Owls also established a new team record for rushing yards with 534, breaking the old mark set in 1977 against Drake (477 yards), just two yards shy of the BIG EAST mark. The nine rushing touchdowns were a new BIG EAST and school record.

Harris, who did not practice the entire week after suffering a mild knee injury against Cincinnati, also set a new rushing record at Army's Michie Stadium, shattering Hall of Famer and former Heisman Trophy winner Tony Dorsett's 268 yards compiled in 1975 in a Pitt win over Army.

Harris was not the only record-breaking Owl in what was a great day for the Cherry and White. Lost in the historic rushing attack was senior PK Brandon McManus breaking Bernard Pierce's record for career points. The always reliable McManus connected on nine-of-nine extra points to increase his four-year total to 330 points, six more than his good friend and former teammate's mark.

Temple closed the 2012 season with a Black Friday game against Syracuse. Junior QB Juice Granger had his best day as an Owl, completing 16-of-23 passes for 173 yards and one TD and rushing for 61 yards and another score, but it was not enough as Temple fell to Syracuse, 38-20, at Lincoln Financial Field. Senior Montel Harris had another strong day in his final game as a college player. The Temple running back became the ninth Owl to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. He had his fifth 100-yard rushing game of the season and 27th of his career, compiling 106 yards on 21 carries to end the 2012 campaign with 1,054 yards to rank eighth on the TU all-time list.

On Dec. 4, 2012, Addazio resigned to accept the head coaching position at Boston College. He led Temple for two seasons, guiding the Owls to their first bowl win in 32 years. Temple beat Wyoming, 37-15, in the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

Game Recaps

Game 1: Temple 41, Villanova 10
August 31, 2012
Lincoln Financial Field

PHILADELPHIA – Temple returned to the BIG EAST in style Friday night in the fourth and final installment of the Mayor's Cup series with a 35-10 win over crosstown rival Villanova in front of 32,709 fans at Lincoln Financial Field. The heavily-partisan Owl crowd was the third largest to watch a Temple game at the venue and the most in the four Mayor's Cup games.

The Owls set the tone in the opening minutes to set the tone of the game. After holding the Wildcats to a three-and-out on their opening possession, Temple used its brand of smash-mouth football to move the ball 78 yards on 14 plays to take a 7-0 lead.

All but four plays on the Owls' first drive were on the ground with sophomore RB Kenny Harper taking a shovel pass up the middle from junior QB Chris Coyer for an eight-yard touchdown. Senior RB Matt Brown rushed for 26 of his game-high 145 yards (19 carries) on the drive.

Villanova answered with a long drive of its own, moving the ball to the Temple 3 courtesy of big plays by Austin Medley and freshman QB John Robertson. Medley broke a 36 yard run on the second play of the possession with Robertson, inserted for starter Chris Polony, broke a 14-yard run and then connected with Medley on a 17-yard pass play.

Temple's defensive backs Anthony Robey and Justin Gildea took turns in breaking up pass plays to preseason All-America WR Norman White to hold the Wildcats to a 20-yard Mark Hamilton field goal.

After the Owls' offense stalled on its next two possessions, senior safety Vaughn picked off a Polony pass and returned it 57 yards to paydirt, making it 14-3.

Carraway was not done. He recovered a Kevin Monangai fumble, forced by redshirt freshman LB Nate D. Smith, at the Villanova 24.

Coyer rushed for 19 yards on a quarterback draw to give the Cherry and White a 21-3 advantage. He only completed five-of-11 passes for 61 yards and one touchdown, but he rushed 13 times for 80 yards and a score.

Robertson, who led VU in both rushing (76 yds on 11 carries) and passing (5-11-0, 101 yds), led the Wildcats to their lone touchdown. Fueled by a huge 37-yard hookup to Monangai and two long runs (14 and 21 yds), Robertson capped the drive with a four-yard TD run up the middle with 1:04 remaining in the half to make it 21-10.

Temple quickly answered with Brown breaking a highlight-reel 56-yard TD run with 21 seconds left to give the Owls a commanding 28-10 lead at intermission.

Harper added a 38-yard touchdown late in the third quarter. Senior kicker Brandon McManus then hit two fourth quarter field goals, his 47th and 48th of his career, to become the all-time leader in field goals.

Senior RB Montel Harris, making his debut after transferring from Boston College, was limited to just 11 yards on five carries due to a strained hamstring.

Game 2: Maryland 36, Temple 27
Sept. 8, 2012
Lincoln Financial Field

PHILADELPHIA – Temple's rally from a 23-point halftime deficit fell just short as the Owls lost to Maryland, 36-27, in front of 23,322 fans at Lincoln Financial Field.

Maryland forced two first-half Temple fumbles to take a 26-3 lead at intermission. The Owls could not do anything right over the first 30 minutes against the Terps. Besides the fumbles, the Cherry and White were penalized five times for 60 yards and a high snap led to a safety.

Offensively, Temple mustered just two first downs in the first half and 33 total yards. Junior QB Chris Coyer, playing despite a 101 fever, completed just one of three passes for six yards, while senior RB Matt Brown was contained to 33 yards on 10 carries.

The Terps, under the direction of true freshman QB Perry Hills, amounted 179 yards of total offense with Hills connecting on two TD passes to Marcus Leak (32 yds) and Matt Furstenburg (22 yds).

Senior PK Brandon McManus connected on a 35-yard FG for the Owls only points in the half.

Instead of hanging their heads, the Owls regrouped at intermission and came out with new life to start the third quarter.

Redshirt freshman LB Nate Smith, who led Temple with 11 tackles, forced a fumble on the first play of the second half which true freshman DB Tavon Young recovered at the Maryland 35. Coyer then connected with sophomore WR Jalen Fitzpatrick for a 29 yard gain. Three plays later sophomore RB Kenneth Harper barreled into the end zone from one-yard out to make it 26-10.

Hill, who completed 11-of-20 passes for 190 yards and 2 TDs, led Maryland down the field on the Terps ensuing possession. The 12-play, 67-yard drive ended in a Brad Craddock 26 yard field goal.

It took Coyer just two plays to answer, as the southpaw signal-caller aired a perfect pass to senior WR CJ Hammond for a 62-yard touchdown, making it 29-17.

After Temple's defense held Maryland to a three-and-out, Coyer guided the Owls down the field on an 11-play drive that culminated in a McManus 40-yard field goal to make the score 29-20 with 13:46 remaining.

Young then sacked Hills for a 10-yard loss on the Terps next possession, setting the tone for another defensive hold for the Owls. Temple, however, saw its drive stall quickly as Coyer was sacked at midfield.

McManus, who punted five times for a 47.8 average, sailed one to the Maryland 12 where Harper drilled him to force and recover a fumble.

The Owls were unable to punch it in from 12 yards out, having to settle for a McManus field goal attempt from 23 yards out. The attempt was blocked by A.J. Francis.

Smith then made a huge play for the Owls, stripping Wes Brown on the first play from scrimmage.

Coyer found Fitzpatrick over the middle, running untouched into the end zone to make it 29-27 with 7:04 to play.

Game 3: Penn State 24, Temple 13
Sept. 22, 2012
Beaver Stadium

STATE COLLEGE, PA - Penn State QB Matt McGloin completed 24-of-36 passes for a career-high 318 yards and one touchdown while rushing for two other scores to lead the Nittany Lions to a 24-13 win over visiting Temple in front of 93,680 fans at Beaver Stadium Saturday afternoon.

McGloin had perhaps his best day as a Nittany Lion, directing the PSU offense to 491 total yards and 27 first downs. The Owls, on the other hand, struggled on offense against the tough PSU defense, compiling only 237 yards, with 65 of those coming in the final minutes on Temple's lone touchdown drive.

Junior QB Chris Coyer connected on 13-of-26 passes for 124 yards and one touchdown while leading the Owls in rushing with 64 yards on 13 carries. Coyer, who was sacked three times on the day, was never able to get the Cherry and White offense clicking at a good pace. Four Temple drives failed to make a first down while another two converted on only one before subsequently punting.

Penn State moved the ball effectively, but penalties (9 for 100 yards) proved to be the hosts achilles heel.

On PSU's third possession they finally found the end zone. McGloin connected with Allen Robinson on a 41-yard touchdown pass.

Coyer answered by leading Temple on a 60-yard drive at the start which started at the end of the first quarter and culminated with a 33-yard Brandon McManus field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3. Senior RB Montel Harris, who made his first start as an Owl, rushed for 14 of his 23 yards during the drive.

Penn State drove deep into Temple territory on the ensuing possession before freshman CB Tavon Young intercepted a McGloin pass at the 10-yard line.

PSU pinned Temple, forcing a McManus punt from the Owls' 24. The Owls defense then held PSU at midfield, forcing a punt that Matt Brown fair caught at his own seven.

The Nittany Lions defense stymied the Owls, forced Temple to punt from its own five. McGloin then quickly drove PSU down the field on a three-play 35 yard drive in just 54 seconds with the Nittany Lion signal-caller running it in for the score with 22 seconds left in the half to make it 14-3.

The second half saw the Owls continue to struggle on offense with consecutive three-and-outs to start the third quarter. PSU then opened the game up with another McGloin TD run, this time from two-yards out, making it 21-3 with just under five minutes left in the third quarter. Coyer then connected with Deon Miller on a 12-yard pass play for one first down and rushed 20 yards for another. The Owls' drive stalled at the PSU 25 with McManus connecting on a 42-yarder to cut the deficit to 21-6.

Zwinak and McGloin then combined to drive PSU down the field, but this time the Lions had to settle on a short (21 yd) Sam Ficken field goal, making it 24-6.

Temple answered with two big pass plays, the first for 40 yards to Montel Harris, and the next for 24 yards to Jalen Fitzpatrick, to give the Owls a first and goal at the PSU one. A shovel pass to Brown two plays later gave Temple its lone touchdown with just 1:33 remaining.

Penn State then ran out the clock on its final possession to come away with the victory.

Game 4: Temple 37, South Florida 28
Oct. 6, 2012
Lincoln Financial Field

PHILADELPHIA - Temple rejoined the BIG EAST in grand fashion Saturday afternoon, defeating visiting South Florida, 37-28, in its conference opener in front of a homecoming crowd of 25,796 fans at Lincoln Financial Field.

There were many stars in the thrilling victory that saw four lead changes and a game-saving blocked field goal by senior DE Marcus Green with 1:19 remaining in the game and Temple holding on to a 30-28 lead. One play later, Owl senior RB Montel Harris iced the game with a 35-yard touchdown run, to account for the final score.

Senior RB Matt Brown put Temple ahead for good in the third quarter with a 15-yd touchdown run to make it 16-14. Brown's score followed USF's opening drive of the second half that ended with a Lindsey Lamar 19-yd touchdown run that gave the Bulls a 14-9 advantage.

Junior QB Chris Coyer connected with junior TE Cody Booth on a nine-yard TD pass to make it 23-14.

USF was not going to go away quietly. Redshirt senior QB B.J. Daniels led the Bulls on a nine-play, 75-yard drive which culminated in a Murray four-yard TD run to cut the Owls' lead to 23-21 with under two minutes remaining in the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter Harris scored from three yards out.

USF answered quickly as Daniels capped a seven-play, 75-yard drive that took just 2:10 off the clock with a Daniels one-yard TD rush to make it 30-28 with 5:19 remaining.

The Bulls' defense held the Owls to a three-and-out possession to give their offense plenty of time to drive for the winning score.

True freshman Tyler Matakevich made a huge defensive play, tackling Murray for a five-yard loss on a third and one play. It was Matakevich's 12th solo tackle of the game and 15th overall. That set up Maikon Bonani's 45-yard field goal attempt, which Green rejected to preserve the Temple win.

Temple's defense limited Daniels to 99 total yards (6-of-10 passing for 88 yards, 4 rushes for 11 yards). Redshirt freshman Brandon Chudnoff recovered a fumble and sophomore SS Chris Hutton had an interception.

Senior PK Brandon McManus connected on a big 50-yard field goal to end the half and give the Owls a 9-7 edge at intermission.

TEMPLE NOTES

- The 37-28 win gave Temple its first win in BIG EAST play since 2004.
- Junior TE Cody Booth scored his first career touchdown with a nine-yard reception in the third quarter.
- Senior RB Montel Harris' three-yard TD run was his first career TD as a Temple Owl.
- Senior DE Marcus Green's field goal block with 1:11 remaining in the game was a career first.
- Senior PK Brandon McManus snapped his streak of 59 his consecutive extra points with a miss (hit the right upright) on his first attempt in the first quarter.
- Freshman LB Tyler Matakevich led the defense with a career-best 15 tackles, including a career-high 12 solo stops and two TFL.

Game 5: Temple 17, Connecticut 14 (OT)

Oct. 13, 2012

Rentschler Field

EAST HARTFORD, CT— Sophomore WR Jalen Fitzpatrick hauled in a 14-yard touchdown pass with 19 seconds remaining to tie the game and senior PK Brandon McManus' 29-yard field goal in overtime propelled Temple to a 17-14 win Saturday afternoon at Rentschler Field.

Fitzpatrick and McManus were two of a plethora of stars for the Owls, who won consecutive BIG EAST games for the first time in program history.

Senior RB Montel Harris reached the 100-yard milestone for the second straight week and 24th time in his brilliant career. He carried the ball 30 times for a game-high 142 yards while scoring Temple's first touchdown on a 24-yard run in the closing minutes of the first half.

Then there was junior WR Deon Miller. He not only made an acrobatic grab on a third-and-13 play for a 33 yard gain to set up the tying TD, but also recovered a blocked field goal by Levi Brown minutes before that kept the Huskies from putting the game out of reach. It marked the second straight game the Owls blocked a fourth quarter field goal to help facilitate a victory.

Last, but certainly not least, was freshman LB Tyler Matakevich, who seemed to be everywhere on the field in posting a game-high 19 tackles.

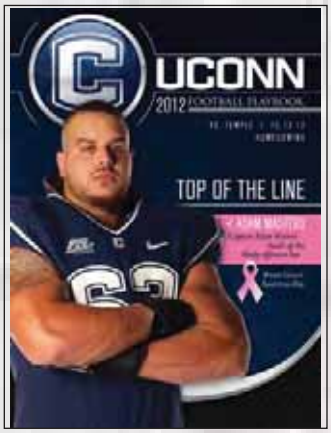
What made the win so incredible was how the contest started. UConn jumped all over Temple, scoring two first-quarter touchdowns to take a 14-0 lead in the first quarter. The Huskies amassed 192 yards of total offense while its highly-touted defense limited the Owls to a mere 11 yards. UConn QB Chandler Whitmer was 8-10 for 159 yards and two TDs, as he methodically directed the Husky attack.

The Huskies also missed a 36-yard field goal attempt, one of four costly misses on the day by Chad Christen.

It looked like the homecoming for Addazio, a native of Farmington, CT, was not going to be a pleasant one.

Then the Owls started to find their legs offensively, while the defense started to put pressure on Whitmer.

Temple, which had just eight total yards on its first four possessions, used Harris' strong legs on its fifth drive. Starting at their own 20, Owls' QB Chris Coyer (13-26-1, 126 yds) connected with redshirt freshman Jason Christopher for a 13-yard first down. Harris, who had been held to 10 yards on his first six carries, broke off a 33-yard run to the UConn 32. Two plays later Harris broke free again, this time finding paydirt, to cut the deficit to 14-7.



Neither team was able to threaten in what proved to be a defensive battle in the third quarter.

The Huskies moved the ball downfield to start the fourth, but Temple's defense forced UConn to attempt a field goal with Christen missing wide right from 42.

Temple senior DE Marcus Green sacked Whitmer forcing a fumble that was recovered by Brandon Chudnoff at the UConn 33.

UConn was in field goal position, but again Christen could not convert, this time though it was Miller deflecting it with his fingertips to thwart the 44-yard attempt.

With just under three minutes remaining, Coyer engineered a 12-play, 72-yard drive. With 19 seconds to go, Coyer found Fitzpatrick in the end zone to tie the game.

The Owls allowed one first down on the Huskies' overtime possession before forcing a Christen field goal attempt. The UConn placekicker again missed wide right.

Following a Harris 10-yard gain, the Owls went to McManus on third down for a 29-yard attempt. The senior kicker connected on his eighth (10 tries) of the season to lift the team to victory.

Game 6: #19/17 Rutgers 35, Temple 10

Oct. 20, 2012

Lincoln Financial Field

PHILADELPHIA - The #19/17 Rutgers Scarlet Knights scored on their first four possessions of the second half to come back from a 10-0 halftime deficit and defeat the Temple Owls, 35-10, Saturday afternoon at Lincoln Financial Field. The game was played in front of 35,145 fans, the third-largest crowd to watch a Temple game in the 10 years the Owls have been playing in the venue.

The game was a tale of two halves as Temple, wearing new black uniforms, used a strong run game, which accounted for 81 yards against Rutgers' defense that entered the contest ranked second nationally against the run (60.8 ypg.). The Owls defense was imposing, holding the Scarlet Knights to 100 total yards while keeping them off the scoreboard.

Temple took a 7-0 lead as junior QB Chris Coyer connected with junior TE Cody Booth for a four-yard TD reception with under a minute to go in the opening quarter. Booth made a nice diving catch on the ball that was deflected by Owls' sophomore RB Kenny Harper on the third and goal play.

Booth's TD was the culmination of an eight-play, 46-yard drive that included a 14-yard completion to sophomore WR Jalen Fitzpatrick to the Rutgers 10.

Senior kicker Brandon McManus, who earlier missed a field goal from 48 yards, connected on one from 49 yards with 2:01 remaining in the half to extend the Owls' lead to 10-0. The Temple drive was also aided by a McManus 68-yard punt, the longest of his career, that pinned RU inside its 10.

The Owls could have led by more, but Coyer (7-14-1, 65 yds) fumbled on a fourth-and-one at the RU 27 on the Owls opening drive. It halted an impressive 11-play possession that included 10 rushes for 45 yards. Senior RB Montel Harris, who had 81 yards on 19 carries, accounted for 24 of those yards.

Temple's defense allowed only 110 yards in the first half and just four first downs. Sophomore SS Chris Hutton, who started in place of senior Vaughn Carraway (suspended by the conference for a hit in the UConn win), forced a fumble at the start of the second quarter that was recovered by senior SS Justin Gildea. It was one of two turnovers the Owls' defense forced over the first 30 minutes as freshman DB Tavon Young intercepted Rutgers QB Gary Nova's pass to end the half.

The second half was all Rutgers as the Scarlet Knights came out looking like the team that is ranked 15th in the latest BCS poll, scoring touchdowns on its first four possessions and then capping a run of 35 straight points with a Khaseem Greene 20 yard TD off a fumble by Coyer with just under 11 minutes remaining.

The Owls' defense looked like a different unit in the third quarter, allowing 223 yards over the 15 minutes and 21 points. Nova had no problem moving his team down the field, completing 11 of 13 passes for 166 yards and three touchdowns. Sophomore RB Jawan Jamison (19 rushes, 114 yds) had 109 total yards in the quarter, 53 on the ground on seven carries, and another 56 on four catches, including a 32-yard TD catch that gave RU the lead for good at 14-10.

TEMPLE NOTES

- Sophomore DB Chris Hutton made his first career forced fumble in the second quarter, recovered by senior DB Justin Gildea.
- Senior PK/P Brandon McManus' 68-yard punt in the second quarter was a career long. He made a 49-yard field goal moments later.
- True freshman LB Tyler Matakevich led the defense with 10 tackles.

Game 7: Pittsburgh 47, Temple 17
Oct. 27, 2012
Heinz Field

PITTSBURGH- Pittsburgh jumped out to a quick 14-0 lead and never looked back in posting a 47-17 win over visiting Temple Saturday afternoon at Heinz Field.

Temple's defense held the Panthers on the opening possession, but the Panthers' first punt was muffed by the Owls, hitting defender Anthony Robey in the back. Pitt took advantage of the break and following two big pass plays from Tino Sunseri to Mike Shanahan, Rushel Shell capped the seven-play drive with a one-yard touchdown run to make it 7-0.

The Owls moved the ball to midfield, courtesy of a running into the kicker penalty before having to punt. Pitt then quickly moved 90 yards on six plays with Sunseri, connecting with J.P. Holtz on an 18-yard touchdown pass to put the Panthers ahead 14-0. Sunseri, who completed 20-of-28 passes for 321 yards and three touchdowns on the day, dumped a screen pass for 33 yards to Ray Graham (108 all-purpose yards: 109 rushing, 71 receiving) and hooked up with Shanahan for a 22-yard reception to set up the score.

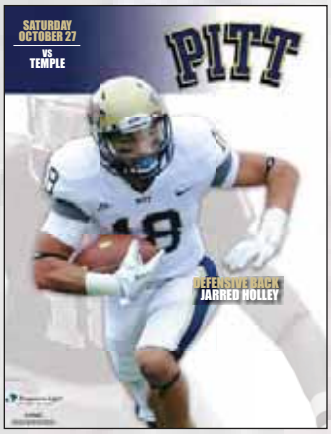
A 77-yard kickoff return by senior Matt Brown set up the Owls' lone score in the first half. With the ball at the Pitt 21, senior RB Montel Harris (18 carries, 72 yds, 1 TD) rushed three times to the Panthers 11 before junior QB Chris Coyer (16-25, 143 yds, 1 TD) connected with junior TE Cody Booth on a nine-yard touchdown.

Pitt then scored on all three of its second-quarter possessions to take a 31-7 lead at intermission. First it was Kevin Harper connecting on a 32-yard field goal. Then Graham capped an eight-play, 80-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run. That came one play after a Graham fumble on the goal line was reversed by video replay. The Panthers' final score was a dagger to the Owls as Sunseri drove his team 62 yards on six plays, hitting Graham on a four-yard touchdown toss with one second remaining in the half.

Temple started off the second half strong as Coyer led the Owls on a 10-play, 75-yard scoring drive. A big 19-yard run by the TU quarterback gave the Owls a first down at midfield. Coyer later hit Booth on a big third-and-five play for a first down at the Pitt 14. Harris then rushed around right end 14 yards for the touchdown to make it 31-14.

Pitt answered with an eight-play drive that culminated in a Kevin Harper 38-yard field goal.

Coyer then took the Owls on their longest scoring drive of the season, a 15-play, 67-yard possession. The drive stalled at the Pitt 27 with McManus converting a 45-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 34-17.



TEMPLE NOTES

- Junior TE Cody Booth's nine-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter was his third career TD (all this season).
- Redshirt freshman WR John Christopher's 12-yard reception in the third quarter was the second of his career. He finished the game with two catches for 17 yards.
- Junior QB Clinton "Juice" Granger played the fourth quarter, his second game with significant minutes. He went 2-of-3 for 52 yards while rushing for 35 yards on seven carries.
- True freshman LB Tyler Matakevich led the defense with 10 tackles.
- Senior Matt Brown had three kickoff returns for 120 yards, including a season-long 77-yard return.

Game 8: #12/10 Louisville 45, Temple 17
Nov. 3, 2012
Papa John's Cardinal Stadium

LOUISVILLE- Sophomore QB Teddy Bridgewater threw for 324 yards and a career-high five touchdowns to lead #12/10 Louisville to a 45-17 win over visiting Temple in front of 44,609 fans at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium.

The Owls started the game strong as senior Matt Brown took the opening kickoff 93 yards to paydirt to give Temple an initial 7-0 lead. It was Brown's second career kickoff return for a touchdown. He ended the day with 227 kickoff return yards, breaking the school record previously set by Travis Shelton with 205 in 2005.

Bridgewater quickly answered that, leading his Cardinals on a 10-play, 86-yard drive that culminated in a 15-yard touchdown reception by Eli Rogers.

Temple would answer with a five-yard touchdown run by senior RB Montel Harris with 2:05 left in the opening quarter. Harris, who rushed for 115 yards on 15 carries, had 41 yards on five rushes during the drive.

It took Louisville just two plays to tie the score as Bridgewater connected with Ryan Hubbell on a 72-yard touchdown.

A mishandled snap on Temple's first play following Hubbell's TD gave the Cardinals the ball on the TU 21. That led to a 36-yard John Wallace field goal to give Louisville its first lead of the game.

Two big rushes by junior QB Chris Coyer (20 yds) and Harris (25 yds) set up a Brandon McManus 34-yard field goal. The senior PK converted it to tie the game, as well as the TU mark for career field goal attempts (78).

Two explosive pass plays by Bridgewater, a 27-yarder to DeVontae Parker and a 22-yarder to Andrell Smith, set up a Jeremy Wright three-yard touchdown run to make the score 24-17.

The Owls drove the ball to midfield on their next possession with Harris converting a huge fourth-and-one at the Temple 48 to keep the drive alive. Then, on the next play, a snap that soared over Coyer's head put TU in a second-and-28 hole that stalled the drive.

Louisville then went on a back-breaking 90-yard drive that culminated in a 12-yard Bridegwater to Smith touchdown pass to give the Cardinals a 31-17 lead just prior to intermission.

The Cardinals capitalized on two Coyer third-quarter fumbles to put the game away. The first one followed a huge 30-yard punt return that gave the Owls the ball at the Louisville 45. The junior QB lost the ball on a third down and two play after he appeared to have a first down. Bridgewater hit Parker on a 25-yard touchdown on the ensuing drive to make it 38-17. Two possessions later Coyer lost the ball at the Temple 31. Bridgewater connected with Smith on his fifth touchdown pass, a nine-yarder, to complete the scoring for the game.

TEMPLE NOTES

- Redshirt freshman LB Nate Smith's 11-yard sack in the third quarter was the second sack of his career.
- With his 34-yard field goal in the second quarter, senior PK/P Brandon McManus tied the Temple career record for field goal attempts with 78. He is Temple's career leader in field goals made with 57.
- Senior RB Montel Harris recorded his third 100-yard performance as an Owl.

Game 9: Cincinnati 34, Temple 10
Nov. 10, 2012
Lincoln Financial Field

PHILADELPHIA—Cincinnati jumped out to a 24-3 halftime lead en route to a 34-10 win over host Temple Saturday afternoon at Lincoln Financial Field.

The Bearcats, who lead the BIG EAST in scoring (34.2 ppg.), matched their average by utilizing seven explosive (20+ yd) plays in the contest.

UC opened the scoring on its second possession as senior RB George Winn rushed from one yard out to make it 7-0. Winn, who had five rushes in the six play drive, had set up his score on a 19-yard run to the Temple one yard-line. The big play on the drive, however, came on a 29-yard pass play from Bearcat senior QB Brendon Kay to junior WR Anthony McClung. Fifteen yards was tacked on after the play as senior FS Vaughn Carraway was called for a personal foul on his high tackle of McClung.

The Owls answered with a 12-play, 72-yard drive that ended in a 20-yard field goal by senior PK Brandon McManus. Junior QB Chris Coyer (5-16-1, 56 yds) rushed for 17 yards to kick start the drive and then hit sophomore WR Jalen Fitpatrick on a 19-yard pass play to the Cincinnati 32. Fitzpatrick, lining up in the wildcat formation for the first of many plays in the game, took a direct snap and rushed nine-yards for a first down at the UC six. The drive then stalled with McManus extending his Temple record with his 58th career field goal.

It took Cincinnati two plays to answer as Kay hit a senior WR Kenbrell Thompson down the field on a 75-yard touchdown to make it 14-3.

Temple took a huge blow on its next possession as senior RB Montel Harris, the team's top offensive threat, left the game with an injury and did not return.

Cincinnati used not one, but two explosive plays on its first drive of the second quarter. Winn plunged into the end zone on a fourth and goal from the one for his second score of the game, making it 21-3.

Following a Coyer interception, Kay hit Alex Chisum for 29 yards to the TU 14. The Owls defense held the Bearcats to a 22-yard Tony Miliano field goal and UC took a 24-3 advantage into the locker room.

Temple coach Steve Addazio inserted junior QB Clinton "Juice" Granger (7-15, 86 yds, 1 TD) to start the second half. Granger ignited the Owls' offense on their first possession, leading the team on an eight-play, 75-yard drive to cut the deficit to 24-10. Granger connected with freshman WR Roman Deloatch (4 catches, 42 yds) on a big 17-yard first down pass play. Then, following a Matt Brown 15 yard run, he hooked up with redshirt freshman WR John Christopher on a 33-yard catch to the UC 9. Two plays later he threaded the needle with a pass in the back of the end zone to Cody Booth for the score.

Two possessions later it was another explosive that did in any comeback chances. Kay hit Chris Moore on a 65-yard touchdown pass just before the end of the third quarter to increase the Bearcat lead to 31-10.

Cincinnati tacked on another Miliano field goal in the fourth quarter, this one from 23-yards out, to account for the final score.

TEMPLE NOTES

- True freshman WR Romond Deloatch made his first career start. He had the first receptions of his career, finishing the game with a team-best four receptions for 42 yards.
- Junior QB Clinton "Juice" Granger started the second half and threw his first touchdown pass, a four-yard pass to TE Cody Booth. Granger finished the game 7-of-15 for 86 yards and a touchdown. He also rushed for twice for four yards.

Game 10: Temple 63, Army 32
Nov. 17, 2012
Michie Stadium

WEST POINT, N.Y.— Senior RB Montel Harris had a career day, rushing for 351 yards and seven touchdowns — both BIG EAST and school records — to lead the Owls to a 63-32 win at Army.

The 63 points scored ties the Temple NCAA Division I-A record set back in 1973 in a win over Holy Cross. The Owls also established a new team record for rushing yards with 534, breaking the old mark set in 1977 against Drake (477 yards), just two yards shy of the BIG EAST mark. The nine rushing touchdowns were a new BIG EAST and school record.

Harris, who did not practice the entire week after suffering a mild knee injury against Cincinnati, also set a new rushing record at Army's Michie Stadium, shattering Hall of Famer and former Heisman Trophy winner Tony Dorsett's 268 yards compiled in 1975 in a Pitt win at Army.

Harris was not the only record-breaking Owl in what was a great day for the Cherry and White. Lost in the historic rushing attack was senior PK Brandon McManus breaking Bernard Pierce's record for career points. The always reliable McManus connected on nine-of-nine extra points to increase his four-year total to 330 points, six more than his good friend and former teammate's mark.

Junior Juice Granger made his first start at QB, and also set a mark – fewest passes completed (2) and attempted (4) in a game. That was also a Temple team mark. Granger's first completion of 11 yards was on the Owls' third play and provided a key first down. Granger also set a new career-high in rushing yardage as the new starter carried the ball nine times for 85 yards

Defensively, freshman Tyler Matakevich (13) and Vaughn Carraway (11) each contributed double figures in tackles, while Matakevich and Nate D. Smith also recovered fumbles.

TEMPLE NOTES

- With his fourth PAT in the second quarter, senior PK/P Brandon McManus became Temple's career leader scoring leader, surpassing RB Bernard Pierce (324 pts.). He finished the game with a school record nine PAT on the day and now has 330 career points. He is also Temple's career leader in field goals made (58) and field goal attempts (81).
- Senior RB Montel Harris recorded his fourth 100-yard performance as an Owl. He led the Owls in rushing with a school record and career-high 351 yards and a school record and career-best seven touchdowns on 36 carries. He had 173 yards and two touchdowns on 16 carries in the first half alone. It marked the 26th 100-yard rushing game of his career (4th at Temple, 22 at Boston College) which leads the nation. It also marked his first game of 300-yard rushing performance of his career.
- Senior RB Matt Brown rushed for 71 yards and the Owls' first two touchdowns in the first half of play. He left the game with 10:54 remaining in the second quarter with a hamstring injury to his left leg. He did not return.
- The Owls played 16 total freshmen (10 true freshmen and six redshirt).

Game 11: Syracuse 38, Temple 20

Nov. 23, 2012

Lincoln Financial Field

PHILADELPHIA— Junior QB Juice Granger had his best day as an Owl, completing 16-of-23 passes for 173 yards and one TD and rushing for 61 yards and another score, but it was not enough as Temple fell to Syracuse, 38-20, Friday at Lincoln Financial Field in its final game of the season. The Owls close the year at 4-7 overall and 2-5 in BIG EAST play. Senior Montel Harris had another strong day in his final game as a college player. The Temple running back became the ninth Owl to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. He had his fifth 100-yard rushing game of the season and 27th of his career, compiling 106 yards on 21 carries to end the 2012 campaign with 1,054 yards to rank eighth on the TU all-time list.

Seniors CJ Hammond and Vaughn Carraway put in solid days in their final game donning the Cherry and White. Hammond set career highs with two catches and a team-best 64 yards, while Carraway made a career-high 10 solo tackles and recovered a fumble.

The Owls jumped out to a 10-0 lead over the Orange as Granger, making his second career start, led TU on scoring drives on two its first three possessions.

Senior PK Brandon McManus connected on a 47-yard field goal on the game's opening drive. After not one, but two Syracuse fumbles, Granger connected with redshirt freshman John Christopher for a 12-yard touchdown. Granger also helped set that up with a 30-yard run to the SU 10 yard-line, his longest career run from scrimmage.

The Orange scored on their first two possessions of the second quarter. First senior QB Ryan Nassib (16-28-0, 215 yds, 1 TD) hit Marcus Sales on a slant pattern for a 24-yard TD. Then Adonis Ameen-Moore broke off an 18-yard touchdown run, one of his two TDs on the game.

McManus extended his school record for career field goals to 60 with a 22-yarder on the Owls' ensuing drive to cut the deficit to 14-13.

Harris, serving as the team's punt returner as senior Matt Brown missed his final game due to injury, fumbled an Orange punt at the Temple 47. That led to a 26-yard field goal by Ross Krautman to give the Syracuse a 17-13 advantage at the half.

In the third, Granger hit Hammond on a 45-yard pass play to the Orange 10. On the next play, the junior QB ran to paydirt for his first rushing TD of his career to put Temple ahead, 20-17.

The veteran Syracuse squad responded with two 75-yard scoring drives.

That broke the momentum of the young Owl team, which mustered only one first down on its next two drives before Keon Lyn picked off Granger and ran it 31 yards for a game-sealing touchdown to make it 38-20 with 2:37 remaining.

TEMPLE NOTES

- Playing in their final home game were 12 Temple seniors.
- Senior PK/P Brandon McManus ends his career as Temple's career leader in field goals made (60), field goal attempts (83), and punting average (45.4).
- For the ninth straight week, true freshman LB Tyler Matakevich led the defense, finishing with 14 tackles, including 13 solo stops. He is the first freshman in school history to record 100 tackles during a season. He finished his initial campaign with 101 tackles.

A Look Back at Temple Football [1894-2012]

The Temple University football program will play its 115th season in 2013. For more than 35 years, the Owls have been the only major college football team in the Philadelphia region. That was not the case at the turn of the century.

The Early Years

Football at Temple first planted its roots in 1894, a decade after Russell Conwell founded the night school on North Broad Street. Nearly every college in and around Philadelphia had some sort of football squad at that time, though it may be a stretch to call them organized. The serious football powers of the east included Pennsylvania, Princeton, Harvard and Yale.

Temple's 11-man squad was technically a part of the school's Physical Education Department. The 1894 team was organized by physical education instructor Charles M. Williams, who also coached the basketball team. The Owls won their first game that fall against Philadelphia Dental College, 14-6.

There is almost no record of the first two decades of Temple football. The games were rarely reported in the newspapers, and the opposition usually consisted of small schools such as Pratt Institute or Pennsylvania Military College (now Widener University). After the turn of the century, the Owls began playing regularly against city schools La Salle and Saint Joseph's.

The school mascot had already been established though, along with the school colors—Cherry and White. For many years, the football team had no official home field. Eventually it settled into Vernon Park, a spacious green located on the city limits beyond Germantown.

The most notable person associated with the Temple football program prior to World War I was Elwood Geiges, who was supposed to coach the varsity team in 1917. But the Owls forfeited every regular game on the schedule that season because of the war. Late that fall, the varsity squad matched up with the freshman squad in a game to benefit the war effort. The contest finished in a 6-6 tie.

Geiges began his career as a college football official the following season. He officiated games for 27 years, advancing to the head of the profession. Geiges is credited with inventing the signals for holding, offsides, illegal shift and timeout. He was elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1984.

The Temple football program was administered by the Physical Education Department until well into the 20th century. For many years, the department was headed by Dr. Charles Prohaska, who was largely responsible for the expansion of the intercollegiate athletic program following World War I.

The Owls did not field a varsity football team between 1918 and 1921 due to the war. In the years that followed, Temple grew to have the second largest enrollment in the Philadelphia area. University President Charles F. Beury made a strong commitment at that time to greater success in intercollegiate athletics.

TEMPLE vs. BUCKNELL, Franklin Field, November 19, 1927: The first game of a 44-year series between the schools (above) and the battle for the "Old Shoe" trophy (right below).

The Modern Era

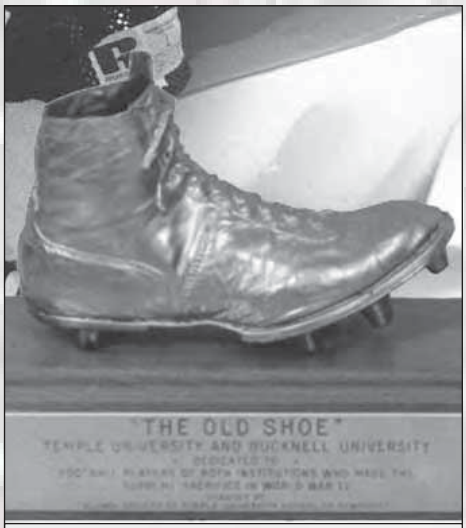
What might be called the modern era of Temple football began in 1925 with the hiring of Henry J. Miller as head coach. "Heinie" Miller had been a star player at Penn, earning All-America honors in 1917. His much-hailed arrival promised great success against a much tougher level of competition.

Miller's Owls did well in 1925 and 1926, compiling a record of 10-5-2, the best two-year stretch in the school's short history. Things were about to get much better. Several outstanding players joined the roster in 1927, including future Temple Hall of Famers Tucker "Swede" Hanson, Grover Wearshing and Jack Bonner.

The Owls opened the season with a home game against Blue Ridge College, a small school located in New Windsor, Md. The mismatch was apparent from the opening kickoff. Temple held a 27-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, and then scored eight touchdowns in the second quarter to establish a 78-0 lead at the half. Unable to move the ball on offense, Blue Ridge actually began punting on first down. The coaches agreed at halftime to shorten the third quarter to eight minutes and later shortened the fourth quarter to six minutes. By the end of the game, three Temple players had switched jerseys to fill in for Blue Ridge. The Owls won by a final score of 110-0. Hanson scored five touchdowns and Wearshing scored three.

Several other one-sided results from the 1927 campaign, against Juniata (58-0), Gallaudet (62-0) and Washington College (75-0), indicated that the Owls were ready for a new level of competition. That competition came from Dartmouth, Brown and Bucknell.

Temple finished 7-1 that season, losing only to Dartmouth, while posting notable victories against Brown (7-0) and Bucknell (19-13). The Bucknell game marked the beginning of a long rivalry with the school located in Lewisburg, Pa. The Owls and the Bison played every year for the next 44 years, often in the last game of the season. Some years later, "The Old Shoe" was dedicated as a prize for the winner of the Temple-Bucknell contest. The bronze statue of a football shoe was awarded to the winning school, which held it until the following year's game.



James Russell
1935 Team Captain

The 1927 season finale against Bucknell was played at Franklin Field, marking Temple's first appearance on the home field of the Pennsylvania Quakers. The Owls would not need to borrow the facility the following season.

In December of 1927, President Beury announced that the University had received a gift of $100,000 from Philadelphia land developer Charles G. Erny for the construction of a football stadium at Vernon Park. The stadium was to seat between 20,000 and 25,000 and was to be completed in time for the 1928 football season.

Temple Stadium was first referred to as Beury Stadium, and for many years was known as Owl Stadium. The structure was designed by Philadelphia architect Clarence E. Wunder and was built by Erny's development firm. The total cost of construction was $350,000, with a seating capacity of 34,200, including mobile field seats.

The Owls made their debut in the new stadium on Sept. 29, 1928, against St. Thomas College of Scranton. Team captain Howard "Barney" Gugel made it a successful debut, scoring on a 66-yard fumble recovery and a 38-yard interception return for a 12-0 Temple victory witnessed by 10,000 fans.

The stadium's official dedication game came two weeks later against Eastern power Western Maryland. The Owls won that game, 7-0, thanks to a touchdown pass from Wearshing to Hanson. The contest drew 25,000 fans, including several dignitaries from the city of Philadelphia.

The 1928 campaign was another great success, as the Owls finished 7-1-2, losing only to Schuylkill College and posting ties against Bucknell and Villanova. Temple was dominant in the new stadium, winning its first six games by shutout. The only team to score against the Owls was Washington College, which managed a single touchdown in a 73-7 rout. Wearshing and Hanson scored three times apiece in that contest.

The battle against Villanova—a scoreless tie—also marked the beginning of a long rivalry (though the teams had played one another in 1908). The Owls and the Wildcats were both developing strong national reputations, and this was the big game on their schedules for the next 15 years.

Miller continued to field successful teams through the Depression Era, tutoring a new set of future Hall of Famers in Hank Reese, Tony Dougal and Leon Whittock. All three played key roles in 1931, another milestone year for the program.

The Owls finished with a record of 8-1-1 that season, setting a school record for wins that stood for 42 years. Along the way, Temple recorded a 12-0 victory over developing regional power Penn State. It was considered the school's most notable victory to date. The Owls also scored their first-ever victory over Villanova by the score of 13-7. Reese had an 80-yard interception return for a touchdown and Cornelius Bonner scored on a five-yard run to secure the victory. The Wildcats were coached by Harry Stuhldreher, who had gained fame as one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."

Temple closed the 1931 campaign with its first extended road trip, traveling by train across the Midwest and the Plains to face Denver College and the University of Missouri. The Owls built their national reputation with an 18-0 victory over Denver and a 38-6 triumph over Missouri.

By this time, the University's athletic programs had grown out of their Physical Education Department beginnings. The Owls were administered by Earl Yeomans, Graduate Manager of Athletics, who had replaced James R. Clovis in that position in the mid-1920s. Yeomans would oversee the athletic programs at Temple until 1952. College football continued to grow by leaps and bounds despite the Depression.

The 1930s saw the establishment of several bowl games and the first Associated Press national poll to determine the best teams in the country. The Temple football program continued to grow as well, making a huge national splash with the hiring of college coaching legend Glenn S. Warner.

The Pop Warner Years

"Pop" Warner was one of football's great innovators. He pioneered the use of several offensive formations (the single wing, the double wing, the unbalanced line) while building powerful programs at Pittsburgh and Stanford. After carrying his legend from the East Coast to the West Coast, Warner was lured away from Stanford by Temple in December 1932.

"The Old Fox"—another one of Warner's many nicknames—had a successful 1933 debut at Owl Stadium against South Carolina, a dangerous opponent from the south. Edward Zukas had an 80-yard punt return for a touchdown in the first quarter to send the Owls on their way to a 26-6 triumph.

Another round of Hall of Famers took their place under Warner's guidance, most notably Pete Stevens, Dave Smukler, Stan Grayson and Chet Messervey. Stevens joined the team in 1933 and was named team captain in 1934. Smukler was a game-breaking running back who made an immediate impact on the team in 1934.

The Owls won their first two games that season against Virginia Tech (34-0) and Texas A&M (40-6). After a 6-6 tie against Indiana, Warner's squad won five straight against tough competition that included West Virginia, Holy Cross and Carnegie Tech. Temple finished the run with a 22-0 rout of Villanova, and then played Bucknell to a scoreless tie in the regular season finale.

The 1934 backfield quartet of Smukler, quarterback Glenn Frey and running backs Danny Testa and Wilfred H. Longsderff was one of the best in the nation. Their exploits (and the team's 7-0-2 record) drew the attention of the Mid-Winter Sports Association of New Orleans, which was busy planning the first Sugar Bowl. Warner's Owls were invited to play unbeaten Tulane in that contest on Jan. 1, 1935.

Smukler was a one-man show in the first half of the Sugar Bowl, tossing a touchdown pass to Danny Testa and running the ball in for another score. He also converted both extra points to give the Owls a 14-0 lead. Tulane responded to the second touchdown with a huge play from its star, Claude "Monk" Simons, who took a lateral on the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown. The Green Wave knotted the score at 14-14 in the third quarter and it seemed for a while that the game would end in a tie. With less than three minutes remaining, though, Tulane scored on a pass that had been deflected by a Temple defender. The Owls blocked the extra point and mounted one last offensive drive, but they could not put the ball in the end zone. They lost, 20-14.

Warner guided the Temple program for the next four years against the nation's toughest competition. The Owls beat tough southern schools Texas A&M and Vanderbilt in 1935 and began a series of games against Michigan State. The 1938 squad played three teams that finished the season in the nation's Top 10 (Pittsburgh, Holy Cross and eventual national champion, Texas Christian).

Temple was a heavy underdog in what would turn out to be Warner's finale, a contest at Florida on Dec. 3, 1938. Florida was coached by Josh Cody, who was just a couple years away from beginning a 15-year career at Temple. Playing in 80-degree heat, the Owls upset the Gators, 20-12, thanks in large part to a 102-yard kickoff return by Jimmy Powers. After missing the entire 1939 season due to injury, Powers returned the opening kickoff against Michigan State 105 yards for a touchdown in 1940. The returns remain the two longest plays in Temple football history.

The Post-Warner Years

Warner's top assistant, Fred H. Swan, took over as head coach in 1939. His tenure may have been doomed from the start. The Owls lost his debut game against Georgetown, 3-2, on a field goal with 25 seconds to go. The field goal had been preceded by a controversial pass interference penalty against the Owls.

The following season, Temple hired Ray Morrison as head coach. Morrison had gained fame as an All-American player at Vanderbilt and head coach at Southern Methodist University. One of Morrison's top assistants was Josh Cody. The new coach promised a wide-open offensive attack that he had developed in the south.

The high-scoring offense was on display in the first game of the 1940 season, a 64-7 victory over Muhlenberg. The Owls jumped to a 45-0 halftime lead in the contest and never looked back. Running back "Handy" Andy Tomasic had a 73-yard touchdown run. Tomasic, nicknamed "The Hokendauqua Hurricane" for his hometown near Allentown, Pa., was one of several Temple Hall of Famers that maintained the program's level of national success in the 1940s.

Tackles Chuck Drulis and Bucko Kilroy were All-East selections and Kilroy was Temple's first Honorable Mention All-American. Running back Phil Slosburg was an All-East pick and was chosen to play in the Blue-Gray All-Star Game. Other stars for the Cherry and White included Mike Jarmoluk, Joe Nejman and John Rogers.

The Owls fielded particularly strong teams in 1941 and 1945. The team got off to a 6-1 start in 1941, beating rivals Penn State, Bucknell and Villanova. That marks the only time in school history that all three foes were beaten in the same season. Hopes for a bowl bid were dashed though, with a 46-0 loss at Michigan State in the next-to-last game of the season. The following week, the Owls were heavy underdogs on a trip to Eastern power Holy Cross. They responded with a 31-13 upset victory to finish the season at 7-2.

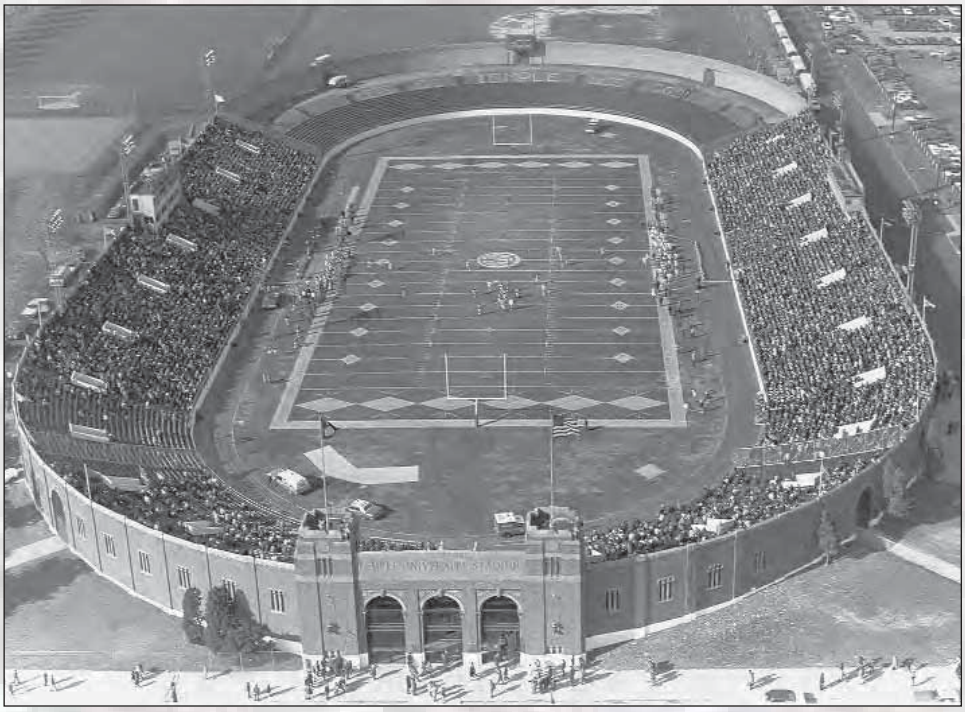
The 1945 campaign held similar promise as Temple defeated Eastern powers Syracuse (7-6) and Pittsburgh (6-0) on the way to a 6-0 start. The Owls were among the favorites to receive an Orange Bowl bid until suffering a 27-0 loss at Penn State. History repeated itself with a visit to heavily favored Holy Cross the following week. Holy Cross was undefeated at the time and had become the Orange Bowl favorite. Temple pulled off one of the greatest upsets in school history, winning 14-6 thanks to touchdown runs by quarterback Jack Burns and running back Gene Zawolski. Holy Cross received the Orange Bowl bid anyway, though the Owls received strong consideration for the Cotton Bowl—partially thanks to Morrison's ties with SMU. Temple's 7-1 squad of 1945 ranks as one of its best ever.

Morrison coached the Owls through 1948, and was followed by Albert P. Kawal. The new coach's first team featured a hard-nosed running back who nearly became the first 1,000-yard rusher in school history. Temple Hall of Famer Bill Bernardo gained 994 yards on the ground in 1949, a school record that stood until 1973. The roster also included Hall of Famer Gavin White, who would later enjoy a successful coaching career and would serve as Temple's director of athletics in the 1980s.

Cody replaced Yeomans as Temple's athletic director in 1952, as the University was entering the first few years of an "administrative de-emphasis" of intercollegiate athletics. By the mid-1950s, the Owls were no longer playing a national schedule, replacing the likes of Michigan State and West Virginia with Lafayette and Gettysburg. Bucknell remained a yearly foe, though Villanova had been dropped from the schedule in 1944.

Kawal coached the Owls through 1954, and then Cody took over for the 1955 campaign. The Owls went 0-8 that season, their first winless mark since 1923, and Cody hired 1934 team captain Pete Stevens to coach the team in 1956. Stevens remains the only former Temple player to have coached the team in the modern era.



Temple University Stadium

Temple went 3-5 in 1956 and opened the 1957 season with two losses. The Owls then beat Lafayette, 13-12, at Temple Stadium. They would not win another game for nearly three years. The Owls lost their final four games of the 1957 campaign and finished 0-8 in 1958 and 0-9 in 1959. The 21-game losing streak is the longest in school history.

Ernie Casale took over as Temple's athletic director in 1959. Years later, he recalled a 12-8 loss that season against Drexel that attracted just 200 fans on a rainy Halloween night in Philadelphia. The Owls had just 24 players in uniform for their 1959 season finale at Gettysburg.

The following year brought a new head coach, George Makris, to North Broad Street. Makris had established a fine coaching reputation at Bolling Air Force Base in Washington, D.C. The 21-game losing streak came to an end in the 1960 season opener against Kings Point.

The Owls trailed 13-0 in the first half of the contest, but then started their comeback, eventually taking an 18-13 lead on Charlie Lotson's 86-yard interception return for a touchdown. Lotson later recovered a fumble that set up the game-clinching touchdown. Running back Ernie Wayland scored two touchdowns as the Cherry and White posted a 26-13 victory. Many of the 10,000 fans in attendance stormed the field and tore down the goalposts in celebration.

Middle Atlantic Conference

Temple continued to re-establish itself in the 1960s, playing in the University Division of the Middle Atlantic States Conference. The other losing streak that had to be brought to an end was a long skid against conference rival Bucknell. While the Owls dominated the series from 1938 to 1949, compiling a record of 9-1-2 during that stretch, they had not beaten the Bison since 1953. The losing streak had reached eight by 1962.

The game was up for grabs that year. Bucknell took a 7-0 lead, but the Owls responded with a one-yard touchdown run by running back Bill Cosby (who would eventually gain greater fame). The Owls then jumped ahead, 14-7, on a 38-yard interception return for a touchdown by Joe Morelli. Late in the contest, Bucknell went ahead again, 15-14, scoring a TD and converting a two-point play. The Owls came back with a drive to the Bucknell one-yard line, but fumbled the ball away. Temple got one last chance on offense and advanced the ball deep into Bucknell territory. With 15 seconds left, the Owls lined up for a game-winning field goal attempt. It missed, and the Bison kept possession of "The Old Shoe."

Things got significantly better for the Cherry and White though, as the team posted a 5-3-1 mark in 1963, the school's first winning record since 1951. The Owls finished second in the league standings in 1964 and challenged for the Middle Atlantic title in 1965 and 1966. The 1966 campaign also brought "The Old Shoe" back to North Broad Street.

That season's battle with Bucknell was a blowout from the beginning. Temple held a 20-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, and it was 41-7 by halftime. Late in the first half, sophomore quarterback John Waller was substituted in place of starter Tom DeFelice. Waller connected with wide receiver Jim Callahan for a couple of touchdowns, and then a couple more. Entering the fourth quarter, the Owls held a 75-14 lead and Waller had thrown five touchdowns, four of them to Callahan. One more Waller-to-Callahan TD pass set the school's single-game record for touchdown passes and receptions. The Owls won, 82-28, posting the second-highest point total in school history.

"The Old Shoe" stayed in Philadelphia the next season as the Owls beat Bucknell and every other Middle Atlantic Conference foe to win the 1967 league title. Another school record was broken against the Bison, this time as running back Mike Busch carried the ball a record 38 times for a record 176 yards in a 13-8 victory that clinched a tie for the league title. DeFelice guided the squad to a 45-27 victory over Gettysburg the following week to clinch the crown outright. Temple received strong consideration for the Tangerine Bowl that year but was not selected.

Records continued to fall in 1968, especially passing records, as Waller-to-Callahan became one of the most dangerous pass-and-catch duos in the country. Waller set school marks with 35 completions, 62 attempts and 440 yards passing in a 50-40 loss to Buffalo. He finished the year as the first 2,000-yard passer in Temple history and set just about every other single-season and career passing record for the Owls. Callahan's total of 14 TD receptions in 1968 went unmatched until 2008 [by Bruce Francis]. Amazingly, Callahan's first 10 receptions were all for TDs.

The Owls left the Middle Atlantic Conference after the 1969 season so they could return to playing a full Division I-A schedule. Makris was replaced by Wayne Hardin, a well-known coach who had had six successful seasons at Navy. Hardin's Midshipmen had beaten Army in five of their six meetings. His tenure on North Broad Street did not have such an auspicious beginning.

The Hardin Years

The opponent was Akron in the 1970 season opener. The Zips scored on their first three possessions and never looked back in a 21-0 victory over the Owls. Hardin's team bounced back the following week and beat Bucknell, 10-3, in the last meeting between the two schools. Temple now had possession of "The Old Shoe" trophy for good. The winning ways continued through the 1970 campaign, though the Owls lost their season finale against Villanova, 31-26. It was the first meeting between the two teams since 1943, and it was closely contested from start to finish. Temple-Villanova was the closing game of the regular season every year from 1970 to 1980.

Wayne Hardin

The Owls compiled a record of 18-9-1 during Hardin's first three years as head coach and rolled on from there. Temple beat Villanova, 12-10, in the 1972 season finale. Temple Hall of Fame kicker Nick Mike-Mayer booted two field goals and the game-clinching touchdown was set up on a fumble recovery by Bob Bernardo, the son of Temple Hall of Famer Bill Bernardo. Wide receiver Clint Graves set a school record in 1972 with 63 receptions, and he set the single-game mark with 15 catches against Rhode Island. Hardin's first few teams featured several other stars, including quarterback Doug Shobert, an Honorable Mention All-American in 1971; tight end Randy Grossman, a Third Team All-American in 1972; and offensive guard Bill Singletary, a First Team All-American in 1972. Singletary is the only football player in Temple history to have his number (64) retired.

The Owls re-established themselves as one of the dominant programs in the East in 1973, finishing the season at 9-1 to set a school record for wins. The team won its final eight games of the season, including a 34-0 shutout of Villanova in which the defense forced 10 turnovers. Hardin's veer offense was almost impossible to stop, as the team surpassed the 30-point mark in eight of 10 games. The backfield tandem of Tom Sloan and Henry Hynoski keyed a powerful rushing attack, and the passing game was left in the capable hands of Steve Joachim. Sloan became the first 1,000-yard rusher in school history, finishing the year with 1,036 yards. Hynoski surpassed the 1,000-yard mark in 1974.

The Temple offense was just as tough to stop that season, and the defense was downright stingy.

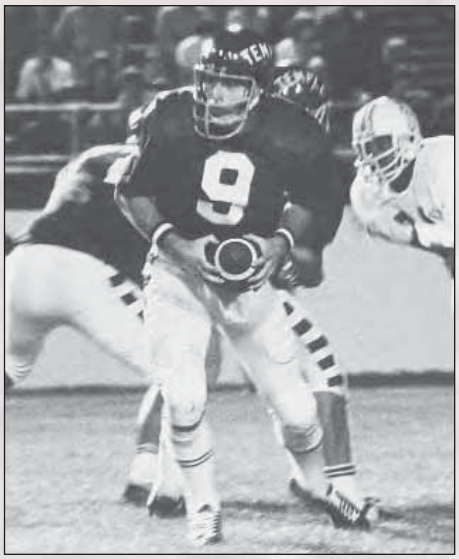
In 1974, Steve Joachim capped a brilliant two-year career by winning the Maxwell Award as college football's Player of the Year.



The Owls won their first six games of 1974, running their win streak to 14 games. It was the longest streak in the nation and it still stands as the longest in school history. In a nine-game stretch that spanned two seasons, Temple outscored its opponents, 361-58. The 14th victim of Hardin's Owls was Delaware, which battled hard before losing a 21-17 contest at Veterans Stadium. That marked Temple's first game at the South Philadelphia venue. The win streak was snapped the following week by Cincinnati, 22-20. The Owls finished the season with a record of 8-2, winning their finale against Villanova, 17-7, in another game played at The Vet.

The awards came piling in after the season. Joachim received numerous All-American honors, offensive guard Pat Staub was an All-East choice and defensive tackle Joe Klecko was an Honorable Mention All-American. The accolades culminated in Joachim being selected the Maxwell Award winner as National Player of the Year.

The 1975 season opener provided another milestone for the Owls, as the team faced Penn State for the first time since 1952. Running back Bob Harris shocked the Nittany Lions by breaking through the middle for a 76-yard touchdown on the first play from scrimmage. The up-and-back contest tilted toward the Owls in the fourth quarter when Anthony Anderson ran for a touchdown that gave Temple a 23-18 lead. But Penn State would score the last touchdown after a long punt return and win the game, 26-25.

The teams played another one-point game the following year at Veterans Stadium. Beginning in 1976, The Vet became the new home of the Temple football team. Early in the season, the stadium hosted the first meeting between Temple and Grambling, which was coached by the legendary Eddie Robinson. The Owls won the contest, 31-30. That score was reversed when Penn State returned to town in October. Temple scored on the last play of the game to make the score 31-30, and Hardin opted for a two-point conversion attempt to beat the Nittany Lions. The conversion attempt failed.

Klecko ranked as the top tackler in school history following the 1976 season. Another group of stars then arrived on campus that would eventually produce the most successful season in school history. Temple Hall of Famers Anthony Anderson and Steve Watson built that success in 1977 and 1978. The Owls wrapped up both years with a trip to Japan to play in the Mirage Bowl. Tokyo's Korakeun Stadium hosted Temple-Grambling in 1977 and Temple-Boston College in 1978. Running back Zachary Dixon set a single-season school rushing record in the BC game. He finished the year with 1,153 yards on the ground, and the Owls finished with a record of 7-3-1.

OG Bill Singletary is the first (and only) Owl to have his football jersey retired.

The 1979 Season

The 1979 campaign opened with three straight victories before Hardin's squad lost to Pittsburgh, 10-9. The Owls bounced back to rout Rutgers and Syracuse on the way to five straight wins. The 8-1 start had the Owls thinking about a postseason bowl bid in November. A loss to Penn State was followed by a 42-10 rout of Villanova, giving the team a record of 9-2 and securing a berth in the Garden State Bowl. Temple's offense was led by quarterback Brian Broomell, and his top receiving target was Gerald "Sweet Feet" Lucear, who set several records that year. The defense featured record-setting linebacker Steve Conjar, who had 163 tackles that season and surpassed that mark with 174 stops in 1980.

Mike Curcio made 332 tackles at Temple from 1976-79.

Lornezo Square made 315 career tackles from 1986-89.

The Garden State Bowl opponent was California and the matchup painted Temple as the defender of Eastern football. The Owls jumped on the Golden Bears for three touchdowns in the first quarter, with running back Kevin Duckett scoring a pair of touchdowns. California chipped away at the 21-0 lead in the second quarter, scoring a pair of touchdowns to make it 21-14 at the half. A field goal early in the fourth quarter cut the lead to 21-17. Broomell then led the Owls on a 14-play, 78-yard drive that culminated with a five-yard TD pass to Lucear. Significant credit for Temple's offensive success went to running back Mark Bright, who totaled 112 yards rushing on 19 carries. The Owls won the game, 28-17, and Bright was voted the game's Most Valuable Player. Temple's 10-2 finish to the 1979 season marks the highest single-season win total in school history.

Hardin coached the Owls through the 1982 season, compiling 80 wins in his 13 seasons on North Broad Street. He had the most wins and the longest tenure of any Temple football coach. Bruce Arians took over as head coach in 1983. Arians had been tutored by Alabama coaching legend Paul "Bear" Bryant.

John Rienstra was introduced as part of the AP All-America team on Bob Hope's 1985 Christmas Special.

The 1980s and Bruce Arians

The Owls produced some notable wins and notable players in the 1980s. They beat Pittsburgh three times in a four-year span, including one year (1987) in which the Panthers were invited to a bowl game. They also scored victories against bowl-bound squads West Virginia (1984) and Virginia Tech (1986).

Arians also coached Paul Palmer, the most prolific running back in school history. Palmer broke onto the national scene with a 206-yard rushing effort against Penn State in his junior year and continued to break records throughout the season. He holds virtually every Temple rushing record, including those for career rushing yards (4,895), 100-yard rushing games (21) and rushing touchdowns (39).

Palmer couldn't have set all those records without a solid group of teammates. Temple players who earned All-American mention during the 1980s included fellow running back Todd McNair, wide receiver Willie Marshall, tight end Mike Hinnant, defensive back Todd Bowles, linebacker Loranzo Square and offensive linemen Kevin Jones and John Rienstra, who garnered First Team All-America honors in 1985.

Paul Palmer (1983-86) is Temple's all-time leading rusher.

The Big East

Jerry Berndt followed Arians as head coach, taking over in 1989. The Owls struggled to a 1-10 finish that season, but then recorded the biggest turnaround in college football and went 7-4 in 1990. Berndt's squad received consideration for the Independence Bowl while putting together the school's best record since the Garden State Bowl season. The following year, Temple helped found the Big East Football Conference, putting the Owls in league competition for the second time in school history.

Ron Dickerson followed Berndt as head coach in 1993. At the time he was hired, Dickerson was the only African-American head football coach of a Division I-A school. Dickerson coached two of the leading tacklers-linebackers Lance Johnstone and Alshermond Singleton, along with the most prolific passer in school history. Henry Burris set more than a dozen records between 1993 and 1996, including a single-game-best 445 yards passing against Pittsburgh in 1996, and he holds nearly every single-season and career passing mark.

On December 23, 1997, Temple University named Bobby Wallace its 23rd head football coach. The Mississippi native arrived on North Broad Street as the winningest coach in NCAA Division II playoff history after capturing three consecutive national titles at the University of North Alabama from 1993-95. In his first season, Wallace assembled a staff collectively holding 18 national championship rings and persevered through an injury-plagued season with 25 first-year players in the lineup en route to a 2-9 finish.

One of those victories occurred on October 17, 1998, and is arguably one of the greatest upsets in college football history. Before a homecoming crowd the 0-6 Owls traveled to No. 10/14 Virginia Tech to take on the Hokies' top ranked defense. Substituting for 12 defensive players who exited the game due to injury and with 20 first-year players on the field, Temple overcame a 17-0 deficit en route to a 28-24 win. The victory marked the Owls' first-ever Big East road win and first triumph over a ranked opponent in 11 years. Two games later the Owls proved the win was not an aberration. Trailing 20-0 at Pittsburgh, Temple ground out a 34-33 victory to ensure the program's largest comeback win in the modern era.

With a new, pass-oriented offense, the 1999 team posted a 2-9 record and finished tied for sixth in the Big East. The Owls struggled early with a schedule that allowed only two home dates in the first seven games and ranked 13th in difficulty. A come-from-behind, 17-14, homecoming win against then undefeated Boston College and a 56-28 offensive explosion over Rutgers were the highlights. Devin Scott completed 36 of 45 passes versus Rutgers to set both school and Big East records for completions in a game. Defensively, true freshman Dan Klecko earned All-America honors from various publications while linebackers Taylor Suman and LeVar Talley ranked second and fifth, respectively, in the conference in tackles.

The 2000 season began with much anticipation. With its new state-of-the-art practice facility under construction, Temple began the campaign with a 3-1 mark, its best start in 10 years. For the first time in a long time, the Owls had something to play for in November. Unfortunately, Temple lost many tight contests and could muster only one conference victory. Although the goal of a bowl game was not reached, the Owls finished with a 4-7 mark, the program's best since 1990. Sophomore running back Tanardo Sharps became the first Owl since 1987 to rush for over 1,000 yards, accumulating 1,038.

In 2001, Temple battled through a tough schedule en route to its second straight 4-7 record and a 2-5 Big East mark to finish in sixth place. All seven of the Owls' losses were to teams that ended their respective seasons bowl eligible, with a combined .750 (63-21) winning percentage. The strength of the 2001 squad was on defense, where Temple limited opponents to 312.64 yards per game to finish 19th nationally in total defense. The Owls concluded the season with two consecutive wins, including a 17-14 win in Morgantown, W.V., to break a 10-game drought against the Mountaineers. Juniors Dan Klecko and Sean Dillard earned first and second team All-Big East honors, respectively. Klecko was a unanimous choice, becoming Temple's first unanimous All-Big East honoree since the school joined the league as a charter member in 1991.

The 2002 Temple football team was composed entirely of players recruited during Wallace's tenure at Temple University. The Owls concluded the campaign with a 4-8 record, including a 2-5 mark in Big East play to finish tied for sixth place. Seven of Temple's eight losses were against opponents that concluded their respective seasons by playing in bowl games.

Once again, the defense paved the way, leading the Big East and placing 15th nationally in run defense, allowing just 108.3 yards on the ground

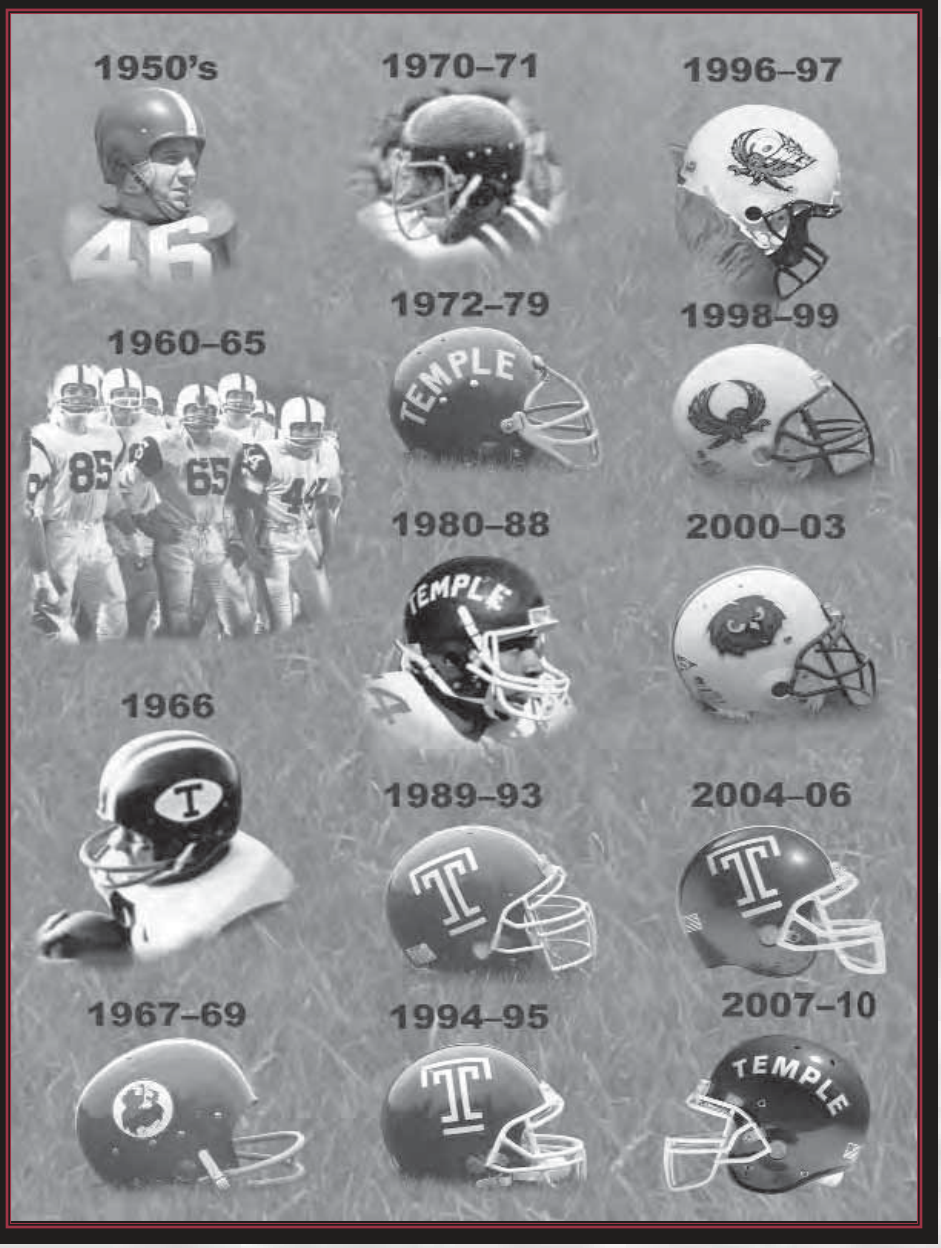
Evolution of the Helmet

The Temple"T" once again adorns the football team's helmets, beginning in 2011. The helmet features a white "T" and a white face mask on a cherry shell. The helmet is strikingly similar to the one the team wore from 1989-95 and 2004-06, except there is no longer a white stripe down the middle. The true shade of the "Temple cherry red" color was adopted by the Department of Athletics in 1996.

For 30 straight seasons, from 1966 to 1995, the Owls' helmets consisted of cherry shells. Temple switched to a white shell in 1996, sporting a helmet adorned with the flying "dominant owl" logo and featuring a black face mask. The program has worn helmets featuring both white and cherry shells with various stripes, lettering, face masks and logos since its inaugural season in 1894.



per game. Temple also made its mark in total defense, placing 18th among all Division I programs by allowing just 315.67 yards per contest. Defensive tackle Dan Klecko was a major cog in TU's defensive machine and capped his senior campaign by being named the Big East Conference Defensive Player of the Year and an AP Second Team All-American.

Tanardo Sharps gained 1,267 yards on the ground to conclude his career ranked second to Paul Palmer in virtually every Temple rushing category while Sean Dillard exited Owl Country as the team's all-time reception leader.

Despite one victory, there were many positives to the 2003 campaign under Wallace. First and foremost was the University's agreement with the Philadelphia Eagles for Temple to play its home games at Lincoln Financial Field. It marked the first time since 1991 the Owls played all their home games at the same site. Temple's five games at the venue drew an average 24,147 fans, a 21 percent increase from the prior season's average.

After battling through a school-record three overtime defeats in the early season, the Owls concluded the year with three, hard-fought losses to nationally-ranked opponents. Highlighting the final trio of games was the performance of sophomore quarterback Walter Washington, who averaged 315 yards of total offense and was responsible for eight touchdowns.

Along the way, Washington tied the school record for rushing scores with four at West Virginia and also set the Big East mark for total plays with 69 against the Mountaineers. He also became the first Temple signal caller to rush for over 100 yards in a game, eclipsing the mark versus Virginia Tech and at WVU.

Among the postseason honors to come to North Broad Street was a Second Team All-America citation for sophomore linebacker Rian Wallace from CollegeFootballNews.com. The Pottstown, Pa., native had the sixth-best single-season tackle output in Temple history, posting 148 tackles (97 solo) while also registering 19.5 TFLs.

Wallace was also a Second Team All-Big East honoree and was joined by senior wide receiver Zamir Cobb, who was a first team selection. Cobb, the Owls' all-time reception leader with 165 career catches, set the school's single-season reception mark with 74 catches for 866 yards and five TDs in 2003.

Temple concluded its 2004 campaign with a 2-9 mark, including a 1-5 league record in its final season as a member of the Big East Conference. Final NCAA rankings rated the Owls' schedule the 16th toughest in major football (60-43, .583). Six of 11 opponents were nationally-ranked at some point during the season and 10 were at least in the "receiving votes" category. Eight opponents concluded their 2004 campaigns by playing in bowl games.

Despite a multitude of adversity, Temple gave its fans reason to cheer. Many of those cheers were in response to performances turned-in by QB Walter Washington. The junior was the top scorer among Division I-A QBs with an 8.36 scoring average and led the nation in rushing TDs by a signal-caller during the regular season with 15, setting the Big East record for a QB and tying the Temple mark for total scores in a season.

Washington led the Big East with a 281.5 total yards-per-game average (3,096 total), to become Temple's first 3,000-yard player. He set a Big East and Temple record for yards rushing by a QB in a season with 889 net yards (1,104 total) and was responsible for the Owls' final 16 TDs, while accounting for 25 of 29 (86%) overall. Washington led the Big East and ranked 11th nationally in total offense (281.5), 22nd in point responsibility (13.82) and 21st in scoring. He set the Big East and Temple record for total plays with 554.

Washington, the Big East 2004 Player of the Year by CollegeFootballNews.com, was named to the All-Big East Second Team in a vote by the league's head coaches. He was joined on the all-conference squad by fellow juniors Rian "Goo" Wallace and Mike Mendenhall, who earned first and second team honors, respectively. After the season, Washington and Wallace both decided to forgo their senior seasons and enter the 2005 NFL Draft.

A Difficult Independence

Temple faced the 11th most difficult schedule in Division I-A in 2005 according to the NCAA statistical rankings, and was winless for the first time since 1959 (0-9) with a 0-11 record. It marked the final season at the helm for head coach Bobby Wallace, who concluded his eight-year Temple tenure with a 19-71 overall mark. The Owls played as a I-A independent.

Prior to the start of the season, the Owls' schedule was recognized for its degree of difficulty on a national scale in the pages of Sports Illustrated. A four-page spread penned by Franz Lidz deemed the docket as "arguably the most brutal in the country." Unfortunately for the Cherry & White faithful, the proclamation held true. The combined record of Temple's 11 opponents was 83-46 and seven played in postseason bowls, with six earning victories. Ten opponents concluded their regular season bowl eligible. The only Temple foe to post a losing record was ACC member Maryland at 5-6.

The Golden Years

Temple named Al Golden the 24th head coach in the history of the program on December 6, 2005. A Colts Neck, N.J., native and Penn State gridiron alumnus, Golden arrived on North Broad Street after having spent the previous five seasons as defensive coordinator at Virginia. At age 37, he entered his first season on the Cherry & White sideline as the fourth-youngest head coach in Division I-A football.

The 2006 season was difficult but beneficial. The team played the most true freshmen in the nation, with 22 taking the field. In total, 39 players saw their first major college football action, including 27 freshmen overall. These rookies did so against an ambitious schedule that ranked as the third toughest in the nation, with eight foes earning bowl invitations.

The first win of the Golden Era happened on Saturday, October 28 against Bowling Green at Lincoln Financial Field. The 28-14 victory earned Temple runner-up for Tostitos Fiesta Bowl National Team of the Week honors behind Oregon State. The Owls snapped a 20-game game losing streak with a gutsy performance highlighted by a multitude of big plays.

The Mid-American Conference

In his second season in 2007, Golden once again played the nation's most freshmen while guiding the Owls to four wins on the season, all in conference play, during their inaugural season of Mid-American Conference play. Temple won four games, the most wins since the 2002 season and equal to the wins from the prior four seasons combined. The four league wins were the most for Temple in 40 years. The Owls finished the 2007 campaign at 4-8 overall and 4-4 in MAC play.

Led by All-MAC honorees Andre Neblett and Dominque Harris, the Temple defense ranked atop the MAC in five statistical categories, including total defense, and finished ranked No. 1 nationally in red zone defense.

In 2008, Golden led the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades, finishing at 5-7 overall and 4-4 in the MAC to tie for second in the East Division. Temple out-scored its opponents for the season for the first time since 1990 and was so close to eight wins, falling in three games on the very last play.

The Owls led the nation in kickoff returns as a team, and senior All-MAC KOR Travis Shelton was the national leader individually.

2009 EagleBank Bowl Participants

Under the direction of fourth-year head coach Al Golden, Temple recorded one of the best seasons in school history in 2009. The Owls finished 9-4 overall while tying for first place in the Mid-American Conference East Division at 7-1. TU advanced to the 2009 EagleBank Bowl against UCLA.

TU made school history with nine consecutive wins in a single season.

Recording its first winning season since 1990 and becoming bowl eligible for the first time since 1990, Temple made its third bowl appearance in school history and first in 30 years.

The 2009 squad, featuring Golden's first recruiting class as seniors, set the school record for rushing touchdowns in a season with 29, surpassing 26 rushing TDs by the 1973 and 1979 teams. In all, Temple re-wrote 18 school season records and 11 game records in 2009.

Rookie RB Bernard Pierce earned several All-America honors during his freshman campaign, including CollegeFootballNews.com Honorable Mention All-American and College FootballNews.com Freshman All-American.

The Owls swept the Mid-American Conference honors as well. Pierce was named the Freshman of the Year, sophomore DE Adrian Robinson was named the Defensive Player of the Year, and head coach Al Golden was named the Coach of the Year. A school record 15 Temple football players were named All-MAC, including a school record eight first-team honorees.

In his fifth and final season with the Owls, Al Golden guided Temple to an 8-4 overall record and 5-3 in the MAC in 2010. Recording its first back-to-back winning seasons since 1978-79, Temple became bowl eligible for the second consecutive year for the first time in program history. However, despite a winning record, the Owls did not receive an at-large bowl invitation.

The Owls' 10-game home win streak at Lincoln Financial Field was the longest since the stadium opened in 2003 and tied the longest home win streak in school history of 10 games from the 1972-74 seasons at Temple and Veterans Stadiums.

For the second consecutive year, a school record eight Temple Owls earned first-team All-Mid-American Conference honors.

Following the season, Golden was named the head coach at the University of Miami.

The Addazio Era

On December 23, 2010, Steve Addazio was named Temple University's 25th head football coach.

In his first season in 2011, Addazio guided the Owls to an 9-4 overall record and a second-place finish in the Mid-American Conference East Division en route to their second bowl appearance in three years. Temple defeated Wyoming, 37-15, in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

The all-time winningest first-year coach in school history, Addazio mentored 10 All-MAC selections, including first-team honorees OL Pat Boyle, RB Bernard Pierce, DE Adrian Robinson, and TE Evan Rodriguez. The Owls' defense dominated the MAC, leading all teams in five categories while ranking No. 3 nationally in scoring defense.

Addazio's offense set the school records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns in a season as well behind the explosive efforts of All-MAC honorees Pierce and Matt Brown. Pierce became Temple's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (53), total touchdowns (54), and points scored (324).

Off the field, the Temple football players were recognized as the 2011 Most Valuable Players by the Philadelphia Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure for their community service efforts.

A Return to the BIG EAST

On March 7, 2012, the BIG EAST Conference announced that Temple would begin play in the league beginning with the 2012 football season. All other sports, including Temple's men's and women's basketball programs, will leave the Atlantic 10 Conference and begin play in the conference starting in 2013-14.

In his second season in 2012, Addazio led Temple to a 4-7 overall record and 2-5 (tie for 6th) record in BIG EAST play. The Owls returned to the BIG EAST Conference after a seven-year absence and won back-to-back league games for a 2-0 start in BIG EAST play, both for the first time in school history.

True freshman LB Tyler Matakevich was named to the 2012 Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-America Team.

Six Temple Owls earned 2012 All-BIG EAST honors, including senior Matt Brown who was named the Special Teams Player of the Year, and true freshman LB Tyler Matakevich who took home Rookie of the Year honors. Earning first team All-Conference honors were senior RB Montel Harris, Brown at return specialist, and senior Brandon McManus at punter. Second-team accolades went to senior OL Martin Wallace, McManus at placekicker, senior DL John Youboty, and Matakevich. A total of 31 Temple Owls were named to the 2012 BIG EAST All-Academic Team.

The Owls made history in their final non-conference game. Senior RB Montel Harris had a career day, rushing for 351 yards and seven touchdowns — both BIG EAST and school records — to lead the Owls to a 63-32 win at Army. The 63 points scored tied the Temple NCAA Division I-A record set back in 1973 in a win over Holy Cross. The Owls also established a new team record for rushing yards with 534, breaking the old mark set in 1977 against Drake (477 yards), just two yards shy of the BIG EAST mark. The nine rushing touchdowns were a new BIG EAST and school record.

Harris was not the only record-breaking Owl as senior PK Brandon McManus surpassed Bernard Pierce as the Owls' all-time scoring leader.

Following the season, Addazio was named the head coach at Boston College.

Mitchell Leff

Matt Rhule became the Owls' 26th head football coach on December 17, 2012.

Rhule Returns

On December 17, 2012, Matt Rhule was named Temple University's 26th head football coach. No stranger to Temple after six seasons as an assistant under Golden and Addazio, Rhule returned to take the reins after eight months in the NFL coaching ranks.

Mitchell Leff

PK/P Brandon McManus had a big year in 2012. He was named to the 2012 AFCA Allstate Good Works Team, won the 2012 CFPA Specialist Trophy, and became Temple's career scoring leader.

American Athletic Conference

In March 2013, the BIG EAST formally announced a separation with its basketball schools. Beginning July 1, 2013, the football schools will play under a new name, the American Athletic Conference.

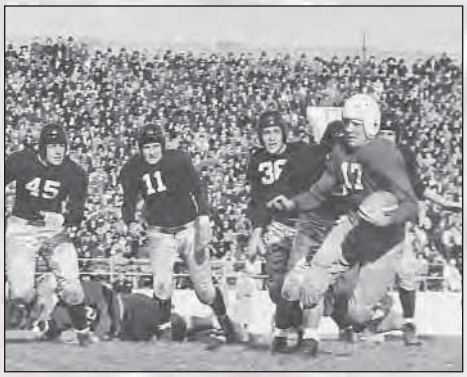
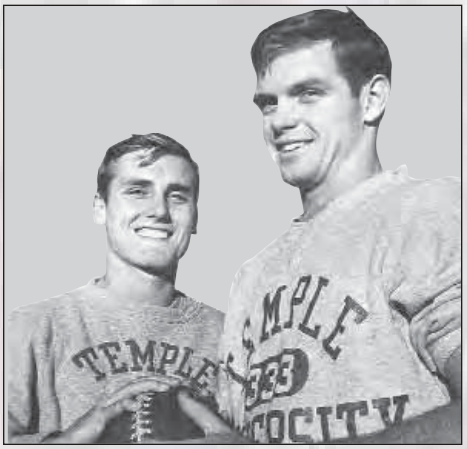
AMERICAN

Team & Individual Records [1894-1970]



Temple football in the 1940s.

John Fonash's 96-yard punt return for a touchdown against Rhode Island in 1965 still stands as the longest in Temple history.



John Waller (left) threw five touchdown passes to Jim Callahan (right) in an 82-28 Temple victory over Bucknell in 1966.

NEW ORLEANS, La. — The Mid-Winter Sports Association of New Orleans was formed in 1934 to formulate plans for an annual New Year's Day football classic. On Dec. 2, 1934, the Association's executive board selected Tulane (9-1), unbeaten in the South, and unbeaten Temple (7-0-2), coached by Glenn "Pop" Warner, to play in the first game.

The game was a financial and artistic success; however, the final 20–14 result was a heartbreaker for Temple fans. The Owls built up a 14-point lead only to see Tulane score touchdowns in the second, third, and fourth quarters to win the game.

The inaugural Sugar Bowl turned into a contest between two All-Americans—Temple's Dave Smukler (who played all 60 minutes) and Tulane's Claude "Monk" Simons. After the Owls' Danny Testa scored the first touchdown in Sugar Bowl history with a seven-yard TD reception from Smukler. Smukler rushed for second score. With Smukler converting both extra points, the Owls were up 14–0.

On the next kickoff, Johnny McDaniel received the ball and lateraled to Simons, who scampered 85 yards for a touchdown. The Owls held a 14-7 edge at halftime.

Dick Hardy scored the tying touchdown in the third quarter on an 11-yard pass from Bucky Bryan.

With less than three minutes left, Hardy notched the game-winning score on a 43-yard reception in the end zone. Temple blocked the Tulane Stadium served as home for the Sugar Bowl until 1975 when it moved to its present site— the Louisiana Superdome.

Temple Notables

- Team captain— Pete Stevens
- Temple took the train from Philadelphia to Baton Rouge, La., a three-day ride.
- During a stop in Atlanta, Ga., the Owls stretched their legs on the station platform and held a 10-minute "workout" with a loaf of bread as a football.
- Six players were ill with the grip ("flu") but made the trip.
- Halfback Horace Mowry, who fractured his wrist against Bucknell in the regular-season finale, was fitted with a special cast for the bowl game. However, he did not start the game.
- The following players saw action in the game: LE Lloyd Wise (60 mins.), LT William Doherty (60), LG John Boyd (28), C Peter Stevens (60), RG Stanley Gurzynski (60), RT James Russell (60), RE Elmer Anderson (45), QB Glenn Frey (60), RHB John Stonik (18), LHB Daniel Testa (35), FB David Smukler (60), LG Thomas Miller (32), RE Joseph Zanin (15), RHB Horace Mowrey (42), LHB Wilfred Longsderff (25).
- Temple and Tulane each received $27,800 from the gate receipts, almost double their guarantee. Admission prices were $1.50 and $3.50.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J.— Temple ended its most successful season with its first-ever bowl victory. It was the Owls' 10th win of the year (a team record) and earned Wayne Hardin's team a spot in the AP and UPI Top 20. Temple was ranked 17th in both polls, the first time the Temple football team was nationally ranked in the final wire service polls.

Appearing in their first bowl game in 45 years, the Owls jumped out to a quick 21–0 lead in the first quarter, scoring on their first three possessions. Kevin Duckett scored the first two TDs on eight and four-yard runs. QB Brian Broomell connected on a seven-yard pass to Wiley Pitts for the third score. TU had 193 yards of total offense, including 150 yards rushing, in the opening stanza.

Temple then withstood a 17-point California rally before clinching the game with a 14-play, 78-yard scoring drive over 5:58 in the fourth quarter. Broomell tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to Gerald "Sweet Feet" Lucear for the win.

The telling statistic of the game was the rushing total, with Temple gaining 300 yards on the ground while holding the Golden Bears to only 23 yards.

The game's Most Valuable Player, Temple's Mark Bright, gained 112 of those yards on 19 carries, while backfield teammate Kevin Duckett ran for 92 yards and two touchdowns. Temple quarterback Brian Broomell joined in the act by tossing touchdown strikes to Wiley Pitts and Gerald Lucear.

Temple Notables

- Team captains— Brian Broomell, Mike Curcio, Casey Murphy
- Temple was ranked No. 17 in the United Press International and the Associated Press final polls.
- Eight members of the 1935 Sugar Bowl team attended the game as guests of Temple President Marvin Wachman.
- During their bowl trip, the Owls toured New York City, eating at Mama Leone's and attending the musical The 1940s Radio Hour on Broadway.
- Temple received a $225,000 payout from the gate receipts. Admission prices were $5 and $12.
- After four years (1978-81), the Garden State Bowl was discontinued. That led to the formation of the Kickoff Classic, held at Giants Stadium to begin the football season.

WASHINGTON, D.C. – UCLA scored 23 unanswered points to pull off a come-from-behind win over Temple, 30-21, Tuesday evening in the EagleBank Bowl. The Bruins (7-6) spoiled the Owls' (9-4) first appearance in a bowl since 1979, but not a remarkable season that included a school-record nine-game win streak and a co-regular season Mid-American Conference East Division Championship.

"We are obviously disappointed in the outcome, but I don't want to diminish what these seniors have accomplished in their careers," Temple head coach Al Golden aid. "Unfortunate ending but definitely have to give credit to how UCLA finished the game. We had an excellent game plan. I thought we came out with a lot of energy and a lot of passion...We went after them. I was proud of our kids for doing that, but we made too many mistakes."

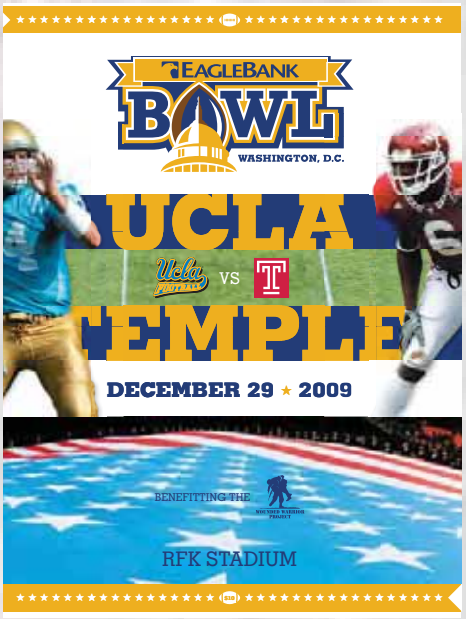
A crowd of 23,072, with more than half donning Cherry and White, braved the frigid weather and blustery winds. The Owls had plenty to cheer about in the first half as the offense, directed by junior QB Vaughn Charlton and featuring the freshman backfield combination of Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown, found the end zone three times in building a 21-7 lead.

Making his first start since the Navy win on Oct. 31, Charlton (13-23, 159 yds., 1 TD) completed seven of his first eight passes for 95 yards, none bigger than the 26-yard TD to senior TE Steve Maneri that capped the Owls six-play, 80-yard opening drive.

UCLA answered two possessions later. After Terrence Austin returned a Jake Brownell punt 47 yards to the TU 46, freshman QB Kevin Prince (16-31, 222 yds, 2 TDs) found sophomore SE Nelson Rosario streaking down the left sidelines on the first play for a 46-yard score to tie the game, 7-7.

Temple, which controlled the ball on offense for 21:27 of the 30 minutes of the opening half, started to get its running on track with Pierce and Brown playing tag-team to combine for 94 yards, 61 coming in the second quarter.

Playing his first game since suffering a shoulder injury on the first play of the Kent State game,



Pierce gained 86 total yards, 53 rushing on 12 carries and 33 on three receptions. He looked like his old self, especially on the Owls' second scoring drive. He barreled 13 yards up the middle for a first down to midfield and capped it with an 11-yard TD run around right end.

With Temple leading 14-7, junior DB Marquise Liverpool picked off Prince at midfield and returned the ball 21 yards before being pulled down by his facemask.

Starting at their own 15, Temple quickly marched it in with Pierce moving the ball five yards before giving way to Brown, who made three straight rushes, the last up the middle for a two-yard touchdown to give Temple a 21-7 lead with 1:25 remaining in the half.

Both teams exchanged three-and-out possessions that gave the Bruins the ball with 17 seconds left and at their own 47. Prince made two quick first down strikes, the second for 19 yards to Chane Moline, who went out-of-bounds at the Temple 22 with one second on the clock.

Junior PK Kai Forbath, the 2009 Groza Award winner given to the nation's top kicker, converted his 36th straight field goal from within 50 yards to cut the margin to 21-10 at intermission.

Senior Terrence Austin returned the opening kickoff 30 yards to the UCLA 47 and then he capped a six-play Bruin scoring drive with a 32-yard TD reception to cut the margin to 21-17.

When the Owls took the field for their first possession of the second half, Pierce was not with them. Instead he was standing on the sideline in a Temple parka, as he injured his left shoulder and would sit out the half.

Temple had its only real opportunity to score in the half on its opening possession. Two big plays, the first was by Charlton – a 21-yard first down scramble, and the second by Brown, who broke a 29-yarder to the UCLA 18. Three straight rushes by Brown made it fourth-and-one at the UCLA 9. The Owls elected to go for it, but with their big back sidelined, Brown was stopped short, ending the drive.

After that, the Bruins defense, which featured three Associated Press All-Americans, was able to put the clamps on the Owl attack. After gaining 242 yards of total offense and 12 first downs in the first half, Temple managed just four first downs and 40 yards of offense over the final 30 minutes.

The Owls only first down the remainder of the contest came on a roughing the kicker penalty that gave TU the ball at UCLA 40. Charlton then was picked off by first team All-America sophomore FS Rahim Moore, who recorded his nation's leading 10th interception on an acrobatic play defending junior WR Michael Campbell down the right sidelines.

Still, the Cherry and White defense, led by all-MAC performers Dominique Harris, Andre Neblett and Jaiquawn Jarrett, kept the Owls in the contest.

Temple held UCLA without a first down the remainder of the third quarter, and bent at the start of the fourth, before holding the Bruins to a 42-yard field goal by Forbath to make it 21-20 with 12:31 remaining to play.

The Owls defense stopped UCLA on its next possession as Alex Joseph and Muhammad Wilkerson corralled Prince in the backfield on a third and long at midfield. Temple took the ball at its own 18 and after Brown was stopped for a three-yard loss, Charlton was called for intentional grounding setting up a third and 20 from the TU 8. Charlton then was picked off at the line of scrimmage while looking for a short pass on the flat to Joe Jones by Akeem Ayers. Ayers, who would be named the MVP of the game, ran it in from two-yards out to give UCLA its first lead, 28-21.

Things went from bad to worse on Temple's next possession. James Nixon was tackled for a nine-yard loss on the first play. Brown, who finished with a game-high 83 yards on 20 carries, picked up three yards on the next play. Following an incomplete pass Brownell went back to punt, but the ball from center sailed over his head for a safety, making the score 30-21.

UCLA ran out the clock on the ensuing punt to end Temple's best season in three decades.

Pierce, who set the school record for touchdowns in a season (16) with his TD run tonight, and freshman Brandon McManus, who had three extra points, tied for the school single season scoring record with 96 points. They eclipsed the previous mark of 95 points set by PK Don Bitterlich in 1975.

Temple Notables

ALBUQUERQUE-- Temple used three one-yard touchdown runs to jump out to a 21-0 lead over Wyoming and never looked back in posting a 37-15 over the Cowboys to win the Gildan New Mexico Bowl on Dec. 17 in front of 25,762. It is the second bowl game victory in program history and first since Temple defeated California, 28-17, in the 1979 Garden State Bowl.

The Owls finished the season on a four-game win streak at 9-4 overall. The win also extended Temple's Senior Class record to 31 wins over the last four seasons.

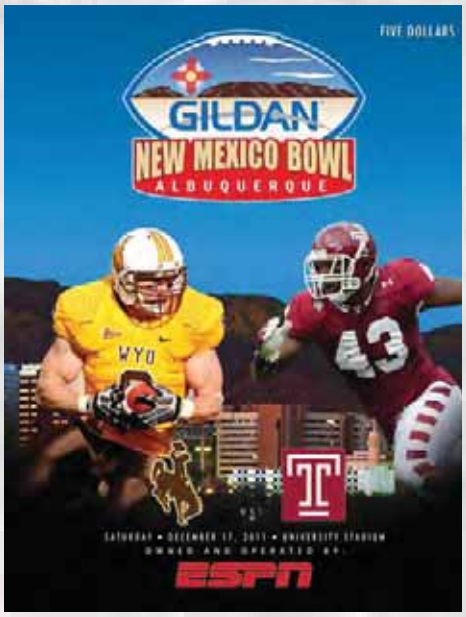
'I'm awful proud of our seniors, some great accomplishments from them," head coach Steve Addazio said. "That is our first bowl win since 1979 and our ninth win of the year for our seniors, their 31st win. It meant an awful lot to our program and our university."

Sophomore QB Chris Coyer was named the game's Offensive MVP, and senior LB Tahir Whitehead earned Defensive MVP honors. Coyer, showing no ill effects from a shoulder injury suffered in the team's final regular-season game against Kent State, was flawless directing the Temple attack. He completed eight of 12 passes for 169 yards and one touchdown and also rushed for 71 yards on 12 carries.

Whitehead, a second team All-MAC performer, had a team-high 11 tackles, leading an Owl defensive unit that allowed just 267 yards to the Cowboys.

Junior RB Bernard Pierce set the tone early for the Owls. Pierce, who rushed for 100 yards and two touchdowns on the day, had eight carries for 31 yards in Temple's opening drive. His last carry was a one-yard touchdown. That capped a 13-play, 90-yard drive that lasted 6:19 seconds.

Wyoming then marched down the field on an 11-play drive of its own, but junior FS Vaughn Carraway batted away a pass by freshman QB Brett Smith on a third and 16 play. Freshman PK Daniel Sullivan was then wide right on his 49-yard field goal giving the Owls the ball back on their own 31.



Senior WR Joe Jones broke a 35-yard run off a reverse on the first play of the Owls' second drive. It was one of nine straight rushes against the Cowboys 115th ranked rush defense. The last run was another Pierce one-yard TD, to make it 14-0 with 14:28 to play in the half.

Senior CB Kee-ayre Griffin then intercepted a Smith pass and returned it 30 yards to the Wyoming 35. Pierce and Coyer each had 12 yard first down runs before junior RB Matt Brown finished the drive with a one-yard TD run, making it 21-0.

The Cowboys finally got on the scoreboard as Smith connected with freshman WR Josh Doctson on a 21-yard touchdown on a 4th-and-three play with 37 seconds left in the half.

The Owls answered in one play as Coyer found a wide-open senior WR Rod Streater down the right sideline for a 61-yard touchdown to give Temple a 28-7 lead at halftime and momentum heading into the lockerroom.

Temple controlled the game on both sides of the ball in the second half. The only scoring for the Owls came on the foot of junior PK Brandon McManus, who connected on three of three field goals.

Wyoming finally found the end zone again with three seconds on the clock.when Smith hit Kody Sutton for 14-yard touchdown.

Temple Notables

- Temple Captains: #85 DE Morkeith Brown, #77 OL John Palumbo, #43 DE Adrian Robinson, and #2 LB Tahir Whitehead.
- The win was Temple's second bowl win in school history. The Owls won the 1979 bowl, 28-17 over California.
- The win was the ninth win under first-year head coach Steve Addazio. He has the most wins in school history by a first-year head coach. He surpassed Wayne Hardin [1970-82] who had seven wins in 1970.
- Temple finished the 2011 season at 9-4 overall. This is the third consecutive season the Owls have posted at least eight victories and the second time in three seasons TU has won nine games.
- The win extended the school record for most wins (31) by any Senior Class in school history. The previous record was 28 wins from 1928-31. The 19 members of the Senior Class concluded their collegiate careers today.
- Senior DB Kee-ayre Griffin's interception in the second quarter was the fifth of his career and the third of his career. R-freshman Anthony Robey's interception in the second quarter was the first of his collegiate career.
- With 255 rushing yards on the day, Temple set the school record for rushing yards in a season (3,335). The previous record was 2,884 from 2009.
- Temple extended the school record for rushing touchdowns in a season. With three rushing TDs in the game, the Owls finished with 38 rushing TDs this season. The previous record was 29 rushing TDs, set by the 2009 team.
- Pierce added to his career records and finished with 324 career points, 53 career rushing touchdowns, and 54 total career touchdowns. He extended his season records to 27 touchdowns and 162 points.
- With four extra points, junior PK Brandon McManus has made 50 consecutive extra points (PAT), a new season record. He surpassed Ron Fioravanti (1979) who made 48 straight.

AMERICAN
ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

University Administration

Neil D. THEOBALD
President

1st Year at Temple

Neil D. Theobald is Temple's 10th president. He began his tenure at Temple on January 1, 2013.

In naming Theobald to this role, Temple Board of Trustees Chairman Patrick J. O'Connor cited his extensive record of accomplishment as a university administrator and faculty member: "Dr. Theobald is a gifted teacher and dedicated researcher. In addition, he has a deep and practical understanding of the changing dynamics of higher education. He wants to ensure that students have access to an education that is first-class and affordable. I can't think of a better set of values to bring to the Temple presidency."

Theobald was named Indiana University's senior vice president in 2007. Previously, he had served as the senior vice provost at the University's flagship campus in Bloomington and as special assistant to IU's president. Major accomplishments during more than a decade as a senior administrator at Indiana University include increasing the mean SAT score of the incoming class at IU Bloomington from 1096 to 1203, directing a $1.1 billion capital campaign, and boosting IU's credit ranking to Moody's highest level (Aaa).

In addition to his administrative responsibilities, Theobald holds a professorship in education finance. His research interests in the appropriate role of decentralization in educational financing and in modeling educational labor markets are reflected in more than $1.5 million in funded research, numerous books and book chapters, dozens of articles published in professional journals, and nearly 50 policy reports for state governments across the United States.

At Indiana University, Dr. Theobald directed a research center that assisted state governments in Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Iowa, and Washington in devising education funding processes that equitably facilitated academic excellence. In addition, Theobald was a three-time winner of IU's Teaching Excellence Recognition Award.

Theobald is a past-president of the American Education Finance Association, winning the association's Jean Flanigan Award for the outstanding dissertation in the study of educational finance in 1990. In 1995, the University Council for Educational Administration presented Theobald with the Jack A. Culbertson Award as the professor who, in the first seven years of his or her career, made the most outstanding contribution to the profession. In 2003, Theobald was presented the Distinguished Graduate Award by the College of Education at the University of Washington.

A native of Peoria, Ill., Theobald had planned to enter an electrician's apprenticeship after high school. However, donors to Trinity College in Connecticut made it possible for him to attend college and Theobald earned a bachelor's degree in 1978. After a short stint in the corporate world, Theobald began his education career as a secondary school mathematics teacher in the State of Washington, where he also coached baseball. He subsequently served as both an assistant professor and an associate professor at the University of Washington, where he earned a doctoral degree in educational finance in 1988.

Dr. Theobald and his wife, Sheona Mackenzie, have three children: Roddy, Kinnear, and Mattie.

Dr. Theobald will be formally invested as Temple's 10th president on Oct. 18, 2013.

TEMPLE UNIVERSITY®

Athletic Facilities

Joseph V. Labolito

The Liacouras Center has been the home of the Temple men's and women's basketball teams— along with concerts, commencement, and other events— since 1997.

The Liacouras Center

The Liacouras Center is a four-building complex that includes a Convocation Center, the Independence Blue Cross Student Recreation Center, 1700 North Broad Street and the Entertainment Community Center with retail shops, a 1,200-car parking garage, and a live-music restaurant. The Center has been designed as a venue for culture, sports, entertainment, commerce and education.

The Convocation Center seats 11,000 for convocations, commencements and concerts; 10,206 for basketball games; and up to 3,500 for theater and dance. The theater configuration is named for benefactress Esther Boyer Griswold.

Rededicated on February 13, 2000, and named in honor of former Temple President Peter J. Liacouras, The Liacouras Center, the home of Temple basketball, is one of the premier on-campus arenas in the country.

Already the site of some exciting events in its history, the Temple venue has hosted such sold-out concerts as Bob Dylan, along with the NBA Players Party prior to the 2002 NBA All-Star game and the 2002 Atlantic 10 Women's Basketball Championship. The Liacouras Center was also the site of the 2003 NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championships, the 2004 NCAA Women's Basketball First and Second Rounds, and the 2006 and 2011 NCAA Women's Basketball Regionals.

In an historic partnership, the Pennsylvania state legislature provided capital funds - $31.8 million - to build a new multi-use complex, provided the University could raise $28.7 million from private sources. The total cost of the multi-building complex would be $107 million - an investment in Temple's future.

Originally christened The Forum at The Apollo of Temple, the Board of Trustees voted in 2000 to change the building name to The Liacouras Center in honor of President Liacouras' retirement after 18 years as Temple's chief executive.

Lincoln Financial Field

On August 13, 2003, the Philadelphia Eagles and Temple University announced a 15-year pact for the Owls to play their home football games at Lincoln Financial Field. An average of 24,137 fans per game witnessed the Cherry & White in its inaugural season at the venue, a 21 percent increase from the prior year's average.

Lincoln Financial Field, familiarly known as The Linc, is the home stadium of the National Football League's Philadelphia Eagles. It has a seating capacity of 68,532 (69,032 with Standing Room Only tickets). The stadium was named in June 2002 when the Lincoln Financial Group paid $139.6 million for naming rights over the next 21 years. It is located in South Philadelphia on Pattison Avenue between 11th and 10th Streets, closer to the area's stretch of Interstate 95 than to Pattison.

In 2011, the stadium became powered with a combination of onsite wind, solar, and dual-fuel generated electricity, making it the world's first major sports stadium to convert to self-generated renewable energy. Approximately $25 million was invested to build the system, saving the Eagles an estimated $60 million in energy costs.

Edberg-Olson Hall

Edberg-Olson Hall is the home of the Temple University football program. Officially dedicated on December 9, 2000, the facility was designed by AP3C Architects of Philadelphia. The building was engineered to not only support the football team's functional requirements, but to enhance the experience through innovative design concepts.

During the season, approximately 250 people will pass through its doors on a daily basis. In 2012, Edberg-Olson Hall underwent a $10 million upgrade with a 15,000-square-foot expansion. The original 23,600-square-foot building contains team and coaches locker rooms, a training room, equipment facilities, coach's offices, a players' lounge, individual position meeting rooms, and a theater-style team meeting room. Opened in July 2012, the upgrade has a strength and conditioning area that expanded from 2,500 square feet to 10,000 square feet. The expansion also features an enlarged sports medicine office with hydrotherapy, a full-service academic support area, and a 3,500-square-foot team function room. An observation balcony runs the length of the building. It is the perfect complement to a gridiron landscape outside featuring over 100,000 square feet of Sprinturf and 24,000 square feet of Astroturf. Eight, 85-foot poles providing 85 candles of white rendition light line the perimeter of the complex. Powder-coated cyclone fences provide privacy.

Geasey Field

The AstroTurf on Geasey Field is one of the largest permanent AstroTurf surfaces in the world, covering over 156,000 square feet. In summer of 2009, Geasey Field underwent a massive $1 million renovation. The surface was replaced with AstroTurf 12 carpet, complete with a drainage system. The scoreboard is a state-of-the-art wireless board with a message expansion. The lighted facility at 15th and Norris Streets serves as the home of Temple field hockey and lacrosse, in addition to an alternate football practice site.

McGonigle-Pearson Hall Athletic Complex

Summer 1969 marked the first use of Temple University's physical education and athletics building, located in the heart of the Main Campus at Broad Street and Montgomery Avenue. The complex currently houses a weight room and training facilities, as well as facilities for teaching, research, student recreation and athletic competition. The Temple volleyball, fencing and men's and women's gymnastics squads play their home competitions in McGonigle Hall.

In 2012, the University completed a $48-million renovation and expansion of McGonigle and Pearson Halls, providing additional classrooms, faculty and coaching staff offices as well as new men's and women's basketball practice courts, weight room, and cutting-edge sports medicine equipment. The additional 26,000-square feet povide 24-hour access and advanced digital technologies.

The Pavilion

The Pavilion Athletic Facility, which is utilized by football, field hockey, women's lacrosse, baseball, softball, men's and women's soccer, is a 32,000-square foot multi-purpose field. The facility, which is available as an auxiliary training site for the remainder of Temple's 24 varsity athletic programs, features Field Turf XT57, an ideal surface for Temple's varsity teams to train on.

Ambler Sports Complex

Temple's picturesque Ambler Campus plays host to the University's men's and women's soccer teams as well as baseball and softball. On January 14, 2003, Upper Dublin Township gave final approval to Temple University's plans to construct NCAA-standard soccer, baseball and softball fields at the Ambler Campus. Baseball and softball opened play in the spring of 2004 while the Owl soccer teams started in the fall of 2004.

Temple Athletics

Kevin Clark

Interim Director of Athletics
Grambling State '86

1st Year at Temple

Kevin Clark, who arrived at Temple in November 2012 in the role of Senior Advisor to the President, began serving as the University's Interim Director of Athletics on May 3, 2013. Clark will continue to serve in both positions while the University conducts a national search for its next Director of Athletics.

A veteran athletic administrator, Clark came to Temple after serving the previous 11 years on Indiana University's senior athletic staff, the last two in the role of Senior Associate Athletic Director of Internal Operations.

As Senior Associate Athletic Director of Internal Operations, Clark was responsible for overseeing the department's athletics business office, information technology, human resources, travel services, athletic facilities, IU Golf Course, equipment operations, concessions and food services, and other areas of internal administration. He served as a member of the senior administrative staff and, in this capacity, worked with other senior administrators to advise, develop and implement departmental policies and strategies including yearly and long-term strategic plans.

Additionally, Clark also served as the sport administrator for football, baseball and women's basketball.

In his first nine years at IU, Clark served as the Associate Athletic Director for Finance/CFO. In that role, he managed the athletic financial business office and was instrumental in the development and administration of the department's budget.

At Saint Louis University, Clark served as the Director of Business Administration-Student Development from 2000-2001. Prior to that role, Clark was the Assistant Athletic Director of Business and Finance from 1996-2000. He prepared and administered budgets ranging from $10-$30 million. While at Saint Louis University he established the first-ever athletic department contingency fund.

Prior to his tenure at Saint Louis University, Clark served as a staff accountant at the NCAA from 1991-1996. There he assisted with the preparation and management of a $30 million operating budget.

Clark earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Grambling State University and later earned an MBA from Webster University.

The Kansas City, Mo., native retired as a Major after serving 23 years in the United States Army Reserve. He and his wife, Kendra, have four children, Kevin Jr., Michael, Ellicia and Logan.

Dr. Patrick Kraft

Deputy Director of Athletics
Indiana '00

1st Year at Temple

Dr. Patrick Kraft, who served on the senior athletic staffs at Indiana University and Loyola University Chicago, was named Deputy Director of Athletics at Temple in May, 2013.

Kraft spent the past two years as the Executive Senior Associate Athletics Director at Loyola University Chicago. At Loyola, he had direct oversight of all aspects of the department's external operations, including the marketing, ticketing, media relations and fundraising components. Kraft played an integral role in Loyola's move from the Horizon League to the Missouri Valley Conference.

In his two years at the school he was able to grow the men's basketball season ticket base by 30 percent with an overall increase of 51 percent in ticket revenue. Additionally, he generated an increase of 400 percent in cash sponsorship to the department while also growing the department's annual giving by 75 percent.

Not limited to just external operations at Loyola, Kraft was responsible for overseeing the day-to-day management of the department's $12+ million budget. He also served as the sport supervisor for men's and women's basketball and was responsible for handling all of the department's business contracts.

At Indiana, Kraft was responsible for the branding and marketing efforts for all of the Hoosiers' programs. He oversaw game production for all of IU's varsity sports and coordinated group, season and single-game ticket sales for football, men's basketball, men's soccer, women's basketball and women's volleyball. In addition, Kraft managed the promotion, marketing, brand enhancement and enforcement of the school's Adidas contract and the Big Ten Network partnership as well as the Learfield Sport Properties multi-media rights agreement with the Hoosiers.

His efforts at Indiana helped increase home football attendance to its highest mark in 17 years, with it also being the third largest football attendance increase among all Division I schools. He also instituted a strategy that saw a 20 percent increase in student ticket sales and the overall highest season ticket base in 13 years.

The Libertyville, Ill., native began his career in 2001 as the corporate sponsorship and promotions coordinator with the Arena Football League. He then spent three years as the business development director with United States Synchronized Swimming (2001-04). He then served four years in higher education, the first three at Indiana (2005-08) as an associate instructor for sports marketing and management and the last as a clinical professor in the school of business administration at Loyola Chicago (2008-09).

Kraft, who played football as an undergraduate at Indiana, has three degrees from the University. He earned a bachelor's degree in sports marketing/management (2000), a master's degree in sports marketing/administration (2005) and a doctorate in sports marketing (2008).

Kraft resides in Haddonfield, N.J., with his wife Betsy and daughter Annabelle.

Mark Ingram

Asst. Vice President for Athletic Development
Tennessee '96

1st Year at Temple

Mark Ingram, who has successfully led the athletic development offices at three Football Bowl Subdivision schools over the past decade, is in his first year as Assistant Vice President for Athletic Development at Temple University. The Winston Salem, N.C., native, who most recently served as the Senior Associate Athletic Director at Tennessee, also serves as the sport administrator for baseball.

In his five years as the Senior Associate Athletic Director at his alma mater (Tennessee '96), Ingram was responsible for the planning and strategy for the department's Capital Campaign that raised $336 million during his tenure. While sitting on UT's athletics senior and executive staff, he oversaw an athletics development staff of 27 professionals and seven part-time employees. His role also included serving as a member of the University's Vice President's Development and External Affairs Management Team as well as being involved in project management for $250 million Neyland Football Stadium master plan.

Before his return to his alma mater, Ingram served as Assistant Athletics Director for Development at the University of Georgia for two years ('06-07). Prior to that, he was the Assistant Athletics Director for Development at the University of Missouri beginning in the fall of 2002, where he successfully guided the Champions for Life capital campaign that raised more than $117 million. That campaign benefited a number of areas including a $75 million basketball arena and a $16 million all-sport student-athlete academics and training facility.

Prior to working for the University of Missouri, Ingram served as Assistant Director of Marketing and Assistant Director of Development, both at the University of Tennessee from 1998 to 2002.

A 1996 graduate from Tennessee with a bachelor's degree in sport management and minors in business and psychology, Ingram was a two-year starter for the Volunteers' football team. He was a two-time Academic All-SEC and twice awarded the Volunteer Award which is given to the most valuable player who is a former walk-on. Also a member of the SEC Good Works Team, Ingram earned his master's degree in sport administration from Tennessee in 1997.

Eleanor Myers

NCAA Faculty Representative
University of Pennsylvania

7th Year at Temple

Beasley School of Law Associate Professor Eleanor Myers is in her seventh year as Temple University's faculty athletics representative. The NCAA requires each member institution to appoint a faculty athletics representative to represent the institution and its faculty in its relationships with the NCAA and its athletic conferences and to oversee academic integrity and compliance issues on campus. In her role as FAR, she also chairs the President's Advisory Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics. In 2009, Myers was appointed by the NCAA as a member of the Division I Committee on Infractions, which holds hearings on major violations of NCAA rules and imposes penalties.

Myers joined Temple's law faculty in 1993. She specializes in Professional Responsibility and business courses. She has won awards for curriculum design and for teaching. She has also consulted and taught internationally in China, Japan, Rome, and the Philippines. Previously, Myers served as Temple's associate university counsel from 1983 to 1989 with responsibility for technology transfer, business negotiations and health care issues. Prior to joining Temple's faculty, Myers held teaching fellow posts at the University of Pennsylvania and Stanford University and handled securities and antitrust class action litigation for a Philadelphia law firm. Myers holds a bachelor degree and a law degree (magna cum laude) from the University of Pennsylvania.

Al Shrier

Special Assistant to the Director of Athletics
Temple '53

61st Year at Temple

Al Shrier is the dean among national college sports information directors with 60 years of service. In 2004, his years of dedication to Temple University were rewarded as he was immortalized with his own bobblehead doll to become the first administrator in the history of NCAA athletics to be so honored.

Shrier officially retired from his position as Temple SID on June 30, 1995, but due to necessity, returned to the post during the 1995-96 academic year. He remains at the University in the role of special assistant to the director of athletics and is in charge of credentials, media services, and hospitality at Temple sporting events.

The 1953 TU grad is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America, Temple University, Philadelphia Big 5, Pennsylvania and Philadelphia Jewish Sports Halls of Fame. He was the 2010 recipient of CoSIDA's Arch Ward Award for outstanding contributions and the 2009 recipient of the ECAC's Pete Nevins Award for Distinguished Achievement. Shrier is past president of the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association. The Media Room at The Liacouras Center is named in his honor.

On January 23, 2013, the University hoisted a banner to the rafters of the Liacouras Center in his honor.

Joe Guinta

Senior Associate AD / Sports Administration
Neumann '93

7th Year at Temple

Joe Giunta returned to Temple University in March 2012 as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Sports Administration. He had previously served in a similar capacity with Temple Athletics from 2003-08.

Giunta is responsible for ensuring that Temple's student-athletes are given the administrative support and resources necessary to be academically and athletically successful and to ensure that all operations are conducted within University, Conference, and NCAA rules. He oversees men's basketball as well as the athletic training, equipment, facilities, and strength & conditioning departments.

Giunta previously served as the Owls' Associate Athletic Director for Sports Administration from March 2003 until June 2008 when he accepted the position of Director of Athletics and Recreation at Cabrini College. At Cabrini, Giunta managed a department consisting of a staff of 20 full and part-time staff, 16 varsity teams, club sports and recreation activities and an active community health and fitness center. In 2008-09, Giunta's first year saw the Cavaliers sweep all three Presidents' Cups: the Overall, Men's, and Women's Cups.

Over the remaining three years of Giunta's tenure, Cabrini captured two more President's Cups and never finished lower than third in any category.

A 1993 graduate of Neumann University with a bachelor of arts degree in communications, Giunta earned a master's in sports administration and facility management from Ohio University in 1997.

Giunta lives in Springfield, Pa., with his wife Colleen (Dorrian) and their young twin boys, Gavin and Braydon.

Kristen Foley

Sr. Associate AD / Sr. Women's Administrator
Rutgers '86

14th Year at Temple

Kristen Foley returns for her 14th year in Temple administration and 19th overall. She was promoted to Senior Associate Athletic Director in August 2011 and oversees the administration of women's basketball, volleyball, women's soccer, cross country and track and field, field hockey, fencing, men's gymnastics, men's and women's tennis, and men's and women's rowing. In addition, Foley provides the color analysis for the women's basketball web stream broadcasts.

Foley was the Tournament Manager for two NCAA Women's Basketball Regional Championships (2011 and 2005) and the 2004 First and Second Rounds. Throughout her tenure, she has served on numerous Atlantic 10 Conference Committees (Administrative, Executive, Volleyball, Softball, and Women's Rowing) and currently is a member of the Officiating Committee and Championship Review Subcommittee. Previously, she chaired the NCAA Fencing Committee (2004-06) and was a member of the NCAA Women's Basketball Rules Committee from 2002-06. In 2005, Foley was honored with the "Outstanding Associate Director Award" presented by the All-American Football Foundation.

Foley entered athletic administration with 13 years of Division I women's basketball coaching experience, including a five-year stint as head coach at Temple (1995-00).

Foley earned her bachelor's degree (1986) and a master's degree in educational administration (1991) from Rutgers. A standout women's basketball player, she captained the Lady Knights to consecutive NCAA Elite Eight appearances in 1986 and 1987, while being named to the All-East Regional team in 1986. She has also been honored as a member of the Rutgers Basketball Hall of Fame.

Larry Dougherty

Sr. Associate AD / Athletic Communications
Saint Joseph's '82

11th Year at Temple

Larry Dougherty is in his 11th year at Temple and second as Senior Associate Athletic Director for Communications after serving the previous four years as Associate Athletic Director. In his position, Dougherty oversees the athletic communications and publications of the University's 24-sport Division I-A athletic program as well as the television and radio operations. He also is the varsity sport administrator for men's soccer.

Dougherty joined the Owls' staff after serving 15 years in the media relations office at Saint Joseph's, the last eight as the school's assistant athletic director for media relations. Prior to SJU, he served as the SID at Nicholls State for one year and as the information director of the East Coast Conference for two years.

Active in regional and national organizations, Dougherty served as chair of the organizing committee for the 2009 ECAC-SIDA Workshop held in Avalon, N.J., and the 2005 CoSIDA Workshop held in Philadelphia. Dougherty served as the president of CoSIDA during 2010-11. He was the recipient of the ECAC-SIDA's 2011 Irving T. Marsh Award .

He earned both his bachelor's (1982) and executive MBA (1994) degrees from Saint Joseph's. His father, Andy, also served as the SID at SJU from 1972-81.

Sherryta FREEMAN

Sr. Associate AD / Compliance & SA Affairs
Dartmouth '01

9th Year at Temple

Sherryta Freeman is in her ninth year at Temple and her third year as the Senior Associate Athletic Director after serving for five years as the Associate Athletic Director for Compliance and Student-Athlete Affairs at Temple.

Freeman oversees all aspects of the department's compliance efforts with conference and NCAA rules and regulations. She works to educate coaches, administrators and student-athletes in regards to new rules and regulations as well as the processing of NCAA and conference waivers on behalf of student-athletes. She also oversees all student-athlete leadership and life skill development programming which includes the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. Freeman is the varsity sports administrator for softball and men's golf. She is also the liaison for athletics to academics.

Prior to arriving at the Temple, Freeman served as the assistant athletic director/compliance at Dartmouth College. The Hillside, N.J., native earned her bachelor's degree in environmental studies from Dartmouth in 2001 and a master's degree in sport management at the University of Massachusetts – Amherst in 2004.

Freeman was a member of two Ivy League women's basketball championship teams at Dartmouth, making two appearances in the Division I NCAA Tournament.

Harry METZINGER

Associate AD / Finance & Administration
Villanova '04

6th Year at Temple

Harry Metzinger is in his sixth year at Temple and first year in the role of Associate Athletic Director for Finance and Administration. He served the previously as the department's Athletics Business Manager.

In his position, Metzinger serves as the Chief Financial Officer of the athletics department and is responsible for managing the $35 million athletics department budget and the athletics business office. Metzinger serves as athletics' primary liaison with Human Resources, Office of Management and Budget, Purchasing, Controller's Office, General Accounting, University Counsel, Risk Management and Computer Services.

Prior to joining the Owls, Metzinger spent two seasons with Rutgers University. With the Scarlet Knights, he performed all accounting functions and procedures within the athletic ticket office.

Metzinger earned a master of business administration degree with a concentration in human resource management from Temple in May 2011. He graduated from Villanova in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in accounting.

Following graduation, Metzinger worked for The Siegfried Group in Wilmington, Del., in accounting and assurance services. He moved into collegiate athletics as a volunteer at Drexel University and the University of Pennsylvania during the 2004-05 academic year, gaining experience in ticketing, marketing, and promotions.

Before heading to Rutgers, Metzinger worked for the director of athletics at his alma mater for the 2005-06 academic year. In this capacity, he contributed in a variety of areas, including business operations, marketing, and media relations.

Scott WALCOFF

Associate AD / Marketing & Sales
Syracuse '97

9th Year at Temple

Born and raised in the suburbs of Philadelphia, Scott Walcoff started at Temple University in August 2005. He was promoted to the position of Associate Athletic Director for Marketing and Sales in August 2011 after serving six years as Assistant Athletic Director for Marketing and Promotions.

Walcoff is responsible for developing season ticket campaigns and creating/facilitating all media advertisements (including radio, television, print, online and outdoor support). He also develops and coordinates game-day promotions. In his current role, he oversees the Ticket Sales Office, Corporate Sales Department, and Spirit Squad.

While at Temple, Walcoff and his staff have won four National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA) awards. The awards were given for the creation of "Hooter the Owl's Birthday Party" theme at a Temple Men's Basketball game, the development of Temple Men's Basketball's "Five Months of Christmas" ticket sales campaign; Temple Men's Basketball's "Last Stand" poster, and Temple Football's "Game Face" campaign/on-campus promotional efforts geared towards students. In addition, Walcoff and his staff have increased Temple Football season tickets 300% and Temple Men's Basketball season tickets 100%.

Walcoff, a 1997 graduate of the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University, previously served as director of marketing and public relations for the Liacouras Center for four years. He also spent time as a marketing coordinator for Comcast-Spectacor, as a promotions coordinator for Ticketmaster, as well as a writer/editor for both the Media Theatre for the Performing Arts and The Sports Network.

Rich Burg

Assistant AD / Football Communications
St. John's '88

1st Year at Temple

Rich Burg enters his first year as the Assistant Athletic Director for Football Communications.

Burg, who left the Philadelphia Eagles in 2007 after a decade of service with the organization, most recently served as the president of 5 Star Unlimited, a full-service public relations firm he established upon his departure from the NFL franchise. His company, based in Voorhees, N.J., specialized in the publicity of active and retired professional players with his most notable clients being former Eagles Donovan McNabb and Brian Dawkins.

In his role with the Eagles (1997-07), he managed all media commitments for McNabb, while also facilitating interview requests for most of the other members of the squad. He also created and implemented all media credential policies, coordinated all press box activities and arranged press conferences.

The Brooklyn, N.Y., native was also instrumental in transitioning the organization into a new practice facility in 2001 and Lincoln Financial Field, which also serves as the home of the Temple Owls, in 2003. Twice during his tenure (2002, 2005), he was part of a staff that won the Pete Rozelle Award given by the Pro Football Writers' Association to the NFL's best PR staff.

Burg also served three years (1994-97) as the communications manager for Rainbow Media Holdings Sports in Woodbury, N.Y, where he handled the day-to-day media relations for the first 24-hour sports news channel while also coordinating the publicity efforts for programs airing on 21 regional sports networks.

His extensive resume also includes stops at College Bound Student-Athletes in Cedarburg, Wisc., where he served one year (1994-95) helping potential student-athletes secure college scholarships. He also served two years (1992-94) as a store manager at The Complete Athlete and one year as the director of public relations of the Professional Spring Football League.

His first stint at the Eagles was for three years (1988-91), marking his first full-time position in the profession. He had served previously as an intern in the New York Rangers public relations office (1986-88).

A 1988 graduate of St. John's University, Burg resides in Voorhees, N.J., with his wife Carol and daughter Skylar.

Lee Roberts

Assistant AD / Facilities
Temple '82

29th Year at Temple

Now in his 29th year at Temple, Lee Roberts serves as the Assistant Athletic Director for Facilities and Event Management. In this role, Roberts oversees the maintenance and upkeep of the University's athletic facilities, both on the main and Ambler campuses, as well as serving as the department's liaison with The Liacouras Center and Lincoln Financial Field.

The veteran administrator manages the game operations of all athletic events. He has helped to facilitate numerous conference and national competitions that Temple has hosted during that time, including the 2004 NCAA Women's Basketball first and second rounds, the 2005 NCAA Women's Basketball Philadelphia Regional, the 2011 NCAA Women's Basketball Philadelphia Regional, and the 2013 NCAA Men's Basketball Second and Third Rounds at the Wells Fargo Center.

Roberts, a 1982 graduate of Temple, joined the Owl staff in 1984 as director of football operations, a position he held for 12 years before moving into his current position. His role as director of football operations, which entailed overseeing the Division I-A program's day-to-day operations, helped to groom him for his current post.

Kelli Sheesley

Assistant AD / Creative Services
Juniata '98

5th Year at Temple

Pennsylvania native Kelli Sheesley is in her fifth year as the Assistant Athletic Director for Creative Services. Prior to joining the Owls, she spent five years as the Director of Publications at the United States Naval Academy, returning to her home state in 2009.

Sheesley, who grew up in Beavertown, Pa., administers the day-to-day operations of the publications process at Temple, while also serving as the media contact for tennis and softball. Her publications have been cited over 20 times in the past seven years by CoSIDA in district or national contests, most recently garnering "Best Cover" honors for the 2012-13 Temple men's basketball media guide. In 2008-09, three of her media guide covers received "Best in the Nation" awards while her 2008 Navy sprint football media guide and 2009 men's lacrosse media guide were ranked first nationally.

While at Navy, Sheesley was responsible for the design and layout of materials for 31 varsity sport programs, while working closely with the marketing and promotions department, as well as Navy's booster program, the Blue & Gold Club.

Prior to her work at Navy, Sheesley spent six years at Bucknell University as Assistant Director of Athletic Communications. Sheesley is a graduate of Juniata College ('98), where she was a four-year letterwinner in softball and was the team's MVP her senior season.

Harry Donahue

Radio Play-by-Play
Saint Joseph's

19th Season at Temple

The 2013 season marks Harry Donahue's 19th consecutive year as the voice of Temple University football. A Philadelphia native, he has also served as play-by-play announcer for the Owls' men's basketball program since the 2002-03 campaign.

One of the most recognizable voices in the Delaware Valley, Donahue has worked as a morning news and sports anchor at KYW Newsradio (1060 AM) since 1979. He first joined the station in 1974 as a freelance reporter and anchor. Today, the Infinity Broadcasting radio station is the market leader, with more listeners than any other radio station in the Philadelphia region

Donahue is a well-known broadcaster and an integral part of the Philadelphia sports scene. He has done play-by-play for Eagles pre-season games, 76ers basketball contests and college basketball for ESPN's Atlantic 10 Conference Game of the Week. Every Sunday, NFL fans around the country hear Donahue describe NFL Films' highlights that are displayed on stadium scoreboards. He is the voice of NFL.com's weekly highlights. Donahue also hosted "Temple Sports Now," a bi-weekly TV show that featured Owl athletics.

Donahue was the play-by-play voice for the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL. He has also hosted "Center Court," the pre-game, half-time, and post-game shows for the 76ers' telecasts.

Donahue's reporting has earned him two Pennsylvania Associated Press Awards for his coverage of the Philadelphia Phillies' World Series run in 1980. In May 2000, he was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

Donahue is a graduate of Saint Joseph's University. He and his wife Lynda reside in Montgomery County, Pa., and have three sons and five grandchildren.

Mid Week

Interview Requests
All interview requests for players, coaches or staff members should be directed to the Athletic Communications staff.

Practice Regulations
Head coach Matt Rhule and select players, depending on pre-practice requirements, will be available for brief television interviews following daily practices early in the week. Advance notice is required to the Department of Athletic Communications. Photographers and videographers are permitted to shoot the last 15 minutes of practice. Otherwise, all practices are closed to all individuals except Temple football personnel.

Please make interview requests by Sunday evenings. Player interviews take place on Mondays, Tuesdays & Wednesdays during the season. The Owls practice on Chodoff Field at the Edberg-Olson Hall facility, located at 10th and Diamond Streets.

Weekly Football Release
To access Temple's weekly football release, please log on to www.OwlSports.com. The release will be posted on the web site in Acrobat PDF format. In order to view a PDF file, you must first download Adobe Acrobat Reader to your computer, which is available from www.adobe.com for no cost. The weekly release will include updated game notes, schedule, depth chart, and game-by-game wrap-ups. Team and individual statistics will be posted to the website as well.

Weekly Media Luncheon
Matt Rhule's weekly media luncheon is held each Tuesday at Edberg-Olson Hall on the main campus (10th & Diamond Streets, 2nd floor) starting at Noon. Please check the weekly gamenotes for luncheon schedule.

Game Day

Credentials
All requests for home games must be made through Athletic Communications. Season credentials should be requested in the preseason and game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to the game. Local media requesting credentials for a road game must have that request into Athletic Communications two weeks prior to the contest (preceding Monday) by submitting in writing on company letterhead by mail (1700 North Broad Street, 4th Floor, Philadelphia, PA 19122), fax [(215) 204-7499] or e-mail (ashrier5@temple.edu).

Media Parking
Media parking at Lincoln Financial Field is available on a limited basis. Please contact Al Shrier in Athletic Communications at (215) 204-2222 for availability.

Media Will-Call / Entrance
Media attending games at Lincoln Financial Field must enter on the west side of the stadium (facing 11th St.) across from the Wells Fargo Center. Credentials left at will-call must be picked up at that entrance only.

Press Box Phone (267) 570-4453

Telephone Services
All seat locations and photographer work areas at Lincoln Financial Field have complimentary lines for high-speed Internet access as well as local and 800 telephone service. Wireless internet access is also available and pool phones will be accessible in the press box for outgoing calls. If you need more services, please contact Athletic Communications.

Statistics
Complete individual and team statistics and play-by-play will be distributed throughout the press box at the conclusion of each quarter.

Locker Room Policy
Temple maintains a closed locker room policy.

Post-Game Interview Procedures
Following games, head coaches and players from both teams are made available to the media. Please take the elevator to the street level and proceed left off the elevator through the double doors. Follow the signs to the media conference rooms, located on the east side of the stadium. Each team will utilize an interview room adjacent to its respective locker room. Please address player requests to the Temple Athletic Communications staff and the visiting school's sports information representative by the 10-minute mark of the fourth quarter.

Taxi Cabs
For transportation to and from Lincoln Financial Field, it is suggested that you call either Checker Cab Co. at (215) 744-8294 or Olde City Taxi at (215) 338-0838.

Matt Rhule Football Camp

The Matt Rhule Football Camp, LLC, will kickoff the 2014 summer camp circuit for a second consecutive season on the campus of Temple University.

Edberg-Olson Hall, the Owls' training facility, will serve as the central location of all camp activities. The camp objective is to teach the basic fundamentals and skills of the game of football. The Temple coaching staff will be assisted by coaches from major universities and colleges and also premier high school coaches from the Northeast. Though the backgrounds of these coaches differ, they all share one common trait; the love of football. The opportunity to work with some of the best teachers that this great game has to offer will give you the best value at under $60 per session) of any camp you will attend this summer!
